Time and history. Jaclyn I. Pryor introduces the concept of time slips: moments in which past, present, and future coincide. Moments that challenge American narratives of racial and sexual citizenship. Framing performance as a site of resistance, Pryor analyzes their own work and that of four other queer artists: Ann Carlson, Mary Ellen Strom, Peggy Shaw, and Lisa Kron. Between 2001 and 2016, Pryor illuminates how each artist deploys performance as a tool to render history visible, trauma recognizable, and transformation possible by laying bare the histories and ongoing systems of violence woven deep into our society. Pryor also includes a case study that examines the challenges of teaching queer time and queer performance within the academy. In what Pryor calls a post-9/11 homeland security state, Masterfully synthesizing a wealth of research and experiences, Time Slips will interest
