highly complex problem Asia is considered as one of the most dynamically changing parts of the world. The quick economic, political and socio-cultural changes are generating interesting topics in those scholarly fields such as anthropology, ethnography, linguistics and literary studies or in other fields of social, political and economic science. Especially after the years of anti-Covid 19 measures, it is important to understand what remains stable or what had been changed and may be lost forever.

Media Representation and Public Perception of War Al-Kassimi, Khaled, Işık, Tuba, Fahim, Muhammad, Gezmen, Başak, 2025-11-10. Media representation plays a role in the public perception of war influencing how conflicts are understood and remembered. Through selective imagery, language and framing, media outlets can portray war differently depending on political agendas, cultural narratives or economic interests. This dynamic impacts public opinion while affecting policy decisions, national morale and lived experiences. Examining how war is represented in the media may further reveal the relationships between information power and public perception in times of crisis. Media Representation and Public Perception of War explores and analyzes the media coverage of conflict, uncovering the narratives, biases and influences that shape public opinion. It examines the complexities involved in international media coverage and its impact on global humanitarian discourse. This book covers topics such as political science, social media and cyber warfare and is a useful resource for government officials, policymakers, media and communications professionals, academicians, researchers and political scientists.

Reconceptualizing New Media and Intercultural Communication in a Networked Society Bilge, Nurhayat, Marino, María Inés, 2018-04-20. Over one billion people access the internet worldwide and new problems of language, security and culture accompany this access. To foster productive and effective communication, it becomes imperative to understand people's different linguistic and cultural backgrounds as well as their value systems. Reconceptualizing New Media and Intercultural Communication in a Networked Society is a critical scholarly resource that addresses the need for understanding the complex connections between culture and new media. Featuring a broad range of topics such as social presence, crisis communication and hyperpersonal communication model, this book is geared towards academicians, researchers, professionals, practitioners and students seeking current research on the discipline of intercultural communication and new media.

Multicultural Instructional Design: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-07-05. As the world becomes more globalized, student populations in educational settings will continue to grow in diversity. To ensure students develop the cultural competence to adapt to new environments, educational institutions must develop curriculum policies and programs to aid in the progression of cultural acceptance and understanding. Multicultural Instructional Design: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools and Applications is a vital reference source for the latest research findings on inclusive curriculum development for multicultural learners. It also examines the interaction between culture and learning in academic environments and the efforts to mediate it through various educational venues. Highlighting a range of topics such as intercultural communication, student diversity and language skills this multi volume book is ideally designed for educators professionals school administrators researchers and practitioners in the field of education

Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth Bill Fox, 2022-03-23 Media has long been considered a primary site for political discourse in Western liberal democracies but now with the advent of social media giant multinational digital platforms such as Google and online journalism the way we do politics talk politics and cover politics has completely transformed Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth considers the ways that technology has led to an irreversible transition in power distribution political journalism and public discourse Discussing how the military industrial complex of the 1950s gave way to today s celebrity distribution complex Bill Fox examines the amount of power accorded to people well known for being well known from Donald Trump to Justin Trudeau Taking on a Canadian perspective Fox addresses the disturbing cries of fake news in the post truth age and demonstrates how journalism no longer the domain of a select few political reporters and editors has become decentralized and disaggregated In a world that now plays out on mobile devices Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth seeks a path through the debris left behind by recent seismic shifts in political media and technology
