The World of Proust, as Seen by Paul Nadar Paul Nadar, Anne-Marie Bernard, 2002 A portrait gallery of Marcel Proust's world includes detailed captions explaining which photographic subjects were the models for which characters in Remembrance of Things Past 138 duotones

Marcel Proust's Search for Lost Time Patrick Alexander, 2009-09-22 An accessible irreverent guide to one of the most admired and entertaining novels of the past century Remembrance of Things Past There is no other guide like this a user friendly and enticing entry into the marvelously enjoyable world of Proust At seven volumes three thousand pages and more than four hundred characters as well as a towering reputation as a literary classic Proust's novel can seem daunting But though begun a century ago in 1909 it is in fact as engaging and relevant to our times as ever Patrick Alexander is passionate about Proust's genius and appeal he calls the work outrageously bawdy and extremely funny and in his guide he makes it more accessible to the general reader through detailed plot summaries historical and cultural background a guide to the fifty most important characters maps family trees illustrations and a brief biography of Proust Essential for readers and book groups currently reading Proust and who want help keeping track of the huge cast and intricate plot this Reader's Guide is also a wonderful introduction for students and new readers and a memory refresher for long time fans

Fifty Key Writers on Photography Mark Durden, 2013-02-15 A clear and concise survey of some of the most significant writers on photography who have played a major part in defining and influencing our understanding of the medium It provides a succinct overview of writing on photography from a diverse range of disciplines and perspectives and examines the shifting perception of the medium over the course of its 170 year history Key writers discussed include Roland Barthes Susan Sontag Jacques Derrida Henri Cartier Bresson Geoffrey Batchen Fully cross referenced and in an A Z format this is an accessible and engaging introductory guide

The Preparation of the Novel Roland Barthes, 2011 Completed just weeks before his death the lectures in this volume mark a critical juncture in the career of Roland Barthes in which he declared the intention deeply felt to write a novel Unfolding over the course of two years Barthes engaged in a unique pedagogical experiment he combined teaching and writing to simulate the trial of novel writing exploring every step of the creative process along the way Barthes's lectures move from the desire to write to the actual decision making planning and material act of producing a novel He meets the difficulty of transitioning from short concise notations exemplified by his favorite literary form haiku to longer uninterrupted flows of narrative and he encounters a number of setbacks Barthes takes solace in a diverse group of writers including Dante whose La Vita Nuova was similarly inspired by the death of a loved one and he turns to classical philosophy Taoism and the works of François-René Chateaubriand Gustave Flaubert Franz Kafka and Marcel Proust This book uniquely includes eight elliptical plans for Barthes's unwritten novel which he titled Vita Nova and lecture notes that sketch the critic's views on photography Following on The Neutral Lecture Course at the Collège de France 1977-1978 and a third forthcoming collection of Barthes's lectures this volume provides an intensely personal account of the labor and love of writing Proust's Duchess Caroline Weber, 2019-11-26 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST A brilliant look at turn of the century Paris through the first in depth study of the three women Proust used to create his supreme fictional character the Duchesse de Guermantes Weber has done a remarkable job of bringing to life a world of culture glamour and privilege The Wall Street Journal Geneviève Halvy Bizet Straus Laure de Sade Comtesse de Adhème de Chevalign and Elisabeth de Riquet de Caraman Chimay the Comtesse Greffulhe these were the three superstars of fin de siècle Parisian high society who as Caroline Weber says transformed themselves and were transformed by those around them into living legends paragons of elegance nobility and style All well but unhappily married these women sought freedom and fulfillment by reinventing themselves between the 1870s and 1890s as icons At their fabled salons they inspired the creativity of several generations of writers visual artists composers designers and journalists Against a rich historical backdrop Weber takes the reader into these women's daily lives of masked balls hunts dinners court visits nights at the opera or theater But we see as well the loneliness rigid social rules and loveless arranged marriages that constricted these women's lives Proust as a twenty year old law student in 1892 would worship them from afar and later meet them and create his celebrated composite character for The Remembrance of Things Past
