Their Eyes Meeting the World Robert Coles, 1992 When I recall all those pictures I have seen drawn and discussed I am reminded yet again how earnestly and strenuously children struggle to comprehend the world to seek out its beauties and mysteries and terrors For more than three decades the renowned child psychiatrist Robert Coles has investigated the inner lives of children through their expressive words and pictures His beautiful and revealing new book his first devoted entirely to children's drawings distills his insights into the ways children from all over the world disclose their deepest convictions feelings and dreams with crayon paint and pencil The fifty full color drawings in Their Eyes Meeting the World were created by boys and girls under ten from richly diverse backgrounds Here is artwork by children urban and rural Christian and Jewish and Muslim children from the United States and from various other nations In the company of Dr Coles we meet Helen a ten year old dying of leukemia and Ruby the sole black child in a newly desegregated school These are children who draw with profound seriousness and passion and from their pictures Dr Coles sensitively interprets what matters most in their lives always attentive to the influence of race class region and historical moment Most important he uses the visual worlds children represent to gain entry into their moral religious and spiritual lives It was the poet physician William Carlos Williams who offered the wisdom that guides Robert Coles's observations of children Look at them looking he gently advised their eyes meeting the world In place of abstract analysis Dr Coles relies on the concreteness of art he demonstrates with empathy and respect how eloquently children can use color and form to speak from the heart mind and soul

Forms of Feeling Robert F. Hobson, 1985 First Published in 1985 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Complete Lyrics of Oscar Hammerstein II Oscar Hammerstein II, 2008-11-25 From every beautiful mornin to some enchanted evening the songs of Oscar Hammerstein II are part of our daily lives his words part of our national fabric Born into a theatrical dynasty headed by his grandfather and namesake Oscar Hammerstein II breathed new life into the moribund art form of operetta by writing lyrics and libretti for such classics as Rose Marie music by Rudolf Friml The Desert Song Sigmund Romberg The New Moon Romberg and Song of the Flame George Gershwin Hammerstein and Jerome Kern wrote eight musicals together including Sweet Adeline Music in the Air and their masterpiece Show Boat. The vibrant Carmen Jones was Hammerstein's all-black adaptation of the tragic opera by Georges Bizet. In 1943 Hammerstein, pioneer in the field of operetta, joined forces with Richard Rodgers, who had for the previous twenty-five years taken great strides in the field of musical comedy with his longtime writing partner Lorenz Hart. The first Rodgers and Hammerstein work, Oklahoma, merged the two styles into a completely new genre: the musical play, and simultaneously launched the most successful partnership in American musical theater. Over the next seventeen years Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote eight more Broadway musicals: Carousel, Allegro, South Pacific, The King and I, Me and Juliet, Pipe Dream, Flower Drum Song, and The Sound of Music. They also wrote a movie musical, State Fair, and one for television, Cinderella. Collectively, their works have earned dozens of awards, including Pulitzers, Tonys, Oscars, Grammys, and Emmys. Throughout his career Hammerstein created works of lyrical beauty and universal feeling, and he continually strove, sometimes against fashion, to seek out the good and beautiful in the world. "I know the world is filled with troubles and many injustices," he once said. "But reality is as beautiful as it is ugly. I just couldn't write anything without hope in it." All of his lyrics are here: 850 more than a quarter published for the first time in this sixth book in the indispensable Complete Lyrics series that has also brought us the lyrics of Cole Porter, Lorenz Hart, Ira Gershwin, Irving Berlin, and Frank Loesser. From the young scribe's earliest attempts to the old master's final lyric, Edelweiss, we can see, read, and yes, sing the words of a theatrical and lyrical genius.

The World's Best Orations

David Josiah Brewer, 1899. The text of thousands of speeches from all historical periods through the 19th century arranged in alphabetical order.

Feminist Imagination Vikki Bell, 1999-11-24. Reading feminist theory as a complex imaginative achievement. Feminist Imagination considers feminist commitment through the interrogation of its philosophical, political, and affective connections with the past and especially with the racial trials of the twentieth century. The book looks at the directionlessness of contemporary feminist thought, the question of essentialism and embodiment, the racial tensions in the work of Simone de Beauvoir, the totalitarian character in Hannah Arendt, the mimetic Jew, and the concept of mimesis in the work of Judith Butler. Vikki Bell provides a compelling rethinking of feminist theory as bound up with attempts to understand oppression outside a focus on women. She affirms feminism as a site and mode of making these connections.
