Human Flourishing, Liberal Theory, and the Arts Menachem Mautner, 2018-04-09 This book claims that in addition to autonomy liberal tradition recognizes human flourishing as an ideal of the good life There are two versions of the liberalism of flourishing for one the good life consists in the ability of an individual to develop her intellectual and moral capabilities and for the other the good life is one in which an individual succeeds in materializing her varied human capabilities Both versions expect the state to create the background conditions for flourishing Combining the history of ideas with analytical political philosophy Menachem Mautner finds the roots of the liberalism of flourishing in the works of great philosophers and argues that for individuals to reach flourishing they need to engage with art Art provides us with wisdom insight critical social and political thinking and moral education Thus a state which practices the liberalism of flourishing must play an active role in funding the creation and dissemination of art Consequently the liberalism of flourishing is better equipped than autonomy liberalism to compete with religion in the domains of meaning and over the shape of the regime the political culture and the law in countries in which liberalism is contested Political theorists and lawyers will enjoy engaging with this version of liberalism as will students of social democracy and art policy

West African Women in the Diaspora Rose A. Sackeyfio, 2021-09-08 This book examines fictional works by women authors who have left their homes in West Africa and now live as members of the diaspora. In recent years, a compelling array of critically acclaimed fiction by women in the West African diaspora has shifted the direction of the African novel away from postcolonial themes of nationhood, decolonization, and cultural authenticity and towards explorations of the fluid and shifting constructions of identity in transnational spaces. Drawing on works by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, Buchi Emecheta, Ama Ata Aidoo, Sefi Atta, Chika Unigwe, and Taiye Selassie, this book interrogates the ways in which African diaspora women's fiction portrays the realities of otherness, hybridity, and marginalized existence of female subjects beyond Africa's borders. Overall, the book demonstrates that life in the diaspora is an uncharted journey of expanded opportunities along with paradoxical realities of otherness. Providing a vivid and composite portrait of African women's experiences in the diasporic landscape, this book will be of interest to researchers of migration and diaspora topics and African women's and world literature.

African Women Narrating Identity Rose A. Sackeyfio, 2023-08-08 This book examines the complexities of women's lives in Africa and the transnational spaces of Europe and North America through the literary works of key African women writers. Using a postcolonial analytical framework, the book highlights the commonalities of African women's identities and experiences across national, ethnic, linguistic, and religious boundaries in Africa and in western settings. It collates the multi-regional narratives of key African women writers who convey how women's lives are shaped by social, economic, and political factors at home and abroad. It also illustrates the intersection of ethnicity, class, and gender that flows through all the texts examined. Unlike existing works that explore African women's fiction, this book uncovers the transformation from postcolonial themes of nationhood to global modalities of post-independence writing through the lens of gender. The book engages with feminist expression through broad themes including religion, war, and ethnic conflict, women's status in society, tradition and modernity, and local and global tensions. A unique approach to literary criticism of Anglophone African women's writing, this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of African Literature, African Studies, Women's Literature, Postcolonial Literature, Cultural and Ethnic Studies, and Migration and Diaspora Studies. Transit Lit

Cameron Leader-Picone, 2025-12-15 Explores new forms of cosmopolitan identity constructed in contemporary diasporic fictions. The expanding number of migrants to the United States from continental Africa since the 1960s has led to a flourishing twenty first century literary corpus by immigrants and the children of immigrants Transit Lit Fictions of Migration in Twenty First Century African Immigrant Literature analyzes key works by African immigrant authors such as Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Teju Cole and Yaa Gyasi to argue that such texts reveal the tensions between the authors own cosmopolitan ideals and a necessary critique of how such ideals become co opted and commodified within contemporary geopolitics Cameron Leader Picone offers a new conceptual framework for reading contemporary diasporic texts that do not fit easily into national or continental traditions or previous literary models Instead he argues for the need to embrace the overlapping instabilities of meaning identity and citizenship that characterize twenty first century diasporic movement in an interconnected world These texts and the constructions of identity that they trace map the terrain of contemporary migration
