We Share Walls Language Land And Gender In Berber Morocco:

We Share Walls Katherine E. Hoffman, 2008-04-15 We Share Walls Language Land and Gender in Berber Morocco explores how political economic shifts over the last century have reshaped the language practices and ideologies of women and men in the plains and mountains of rural Morocco Offers a unique and richly textured ethnography of language maintenance and shift as well as language and place making among an overlooked Muslim group Examines how Moroccan Berbers use language to integrate into the Arab speaking world and retain their own distinct identity Illuminates the intriguing semiotic and gender issues embedded in the culture Part of the Blackwell Studies in Discourse and Culture Series

Berbers and Others Katherine E. Hoffman, Susan Gilson Miller, 2010 Katherine E Hoffman is Associate Professor of Anthropology at Northwestern University and author of We Share Walls Language Land and Gender in Berber Morocco

Language and Identity in the Arab World Fathiya Al Rashdi, Sandhya Rao Mehta, 2022-09-05 Language and Identity in the Arab World explores the inextricable link between language and identity referring particularly to the Arab world Spanning Indonesia to the United States the Arab world is here imagined as a continually changing one with the Arab diaspora asserting its linguistic identity across the world Crucial questions on transforming linguistic landscapes the role and implications of migration and the impact of technology on language use are explored by established and emerging scholars in the field of applied and socio linguistics The book asks such crucial questions as how language contact affects or transforms identity how language reflects changing identities among migrant communities and how language choices contribute to identity construction in social media As well as appreciating the breadth and scope of the Arab world this anthology focuses on the transformative role of language within indigenous and migrant communities as they negotiate between their heritage languages and those spoken by the wider society Investigating the ways in which identity continues to be imagined and re constructed in and among Arab communities this book is indispensable to students teachers and anyone who is interested in language contact linguistic landscapes and minority language retention as well as the intersections of language and technology Language and Social Justice Kathleen C. Riley, Bernard C. Perley, Inmaculada M. García-Sánchez, 2024-02-22

Language whether spoken written or signed is a powerful resource that is used to facilitate social justice or undermine it The first reference resource to use an explicitly global lens to explore the interface between language and social justice this volume expands our understanding of how language symbolizes frames and expresses political economic and psychic problems in society thus contributing to visions for social justice Investigating specific case studies in which language is used to instantiate and or challenge social injustices each chapter provides a unique perspective on how language carries value and enacts power by presenting the historical contexts and ethnographic background for understanding how language engenders and or negotiates specific social justice issues Case studies are drawn from Africa Asia Europe North and South America and the Pacific Islands with leading experts tackling a broad range of themes such as equality sovereignty communal well being and the recognition of complex intersectional identities and relationships within and beyond the human world Putting issues of language and social justice on a global stage and casting light on these processes in communities increasingly impacted by ongoing colonial neoliberal and neofascist forms of globalization Language and Social Justice is an essential resource for anyone interested in this area of research The Handbook of Bilingual and Multilingual

Modernizing Patriarchy Katja Žvan Elliott,2015-09-01 Morocco is hailed by academics international NGO workers and the media as a trailblazer in women s rights and legal reforms The country is considered a model for other countries in the Middle East and North African region but has Morocco made as much progress as experts and government officials claim In Modernizing Patriarchy Katja van Elliott examines why women s rights advances are lauded in Morocco in theory but are often not recognized in reality despite the efforts of both Islamist and secular feminists In Morocco female literacy rates remain among the lowest in the region many women are victims of gender based violence despite legal reforms and girls as young as twelve are still engaged to adult men despite numerous reforms Based on extensive ethnographic research and fieldwork in Oued al Ouliyah Modernizing Patriarchy offers a window into the life of Moroccan Muslim women who though often young and educated find it difficult to lead a dignified life in a country where they are expected to have only one destiny that of wife and mother van Elliott exposes their struggles with modernity and the legal reforms that are supposedly ameliorating their lives In a balanced approach she also presents male voices and their reasons for criticizing the prevailing women's rights discourse Compelling and insightful Modernizing Patriarchy exposes the rarely talked about reality of Morocco's approach toward reform

The Oxford Handbook of Language and Society Ofelia García, Nelson Flores (Linguist), Massimiliano Spotti, 2017 This book challenges basic concepts that have informed the study of sociolinguistics It proposes a critical poststructuralist perspective that examines the socio historical context that led to the emergence of dominant sociolinguistic concepts and develops new theoretical and methodological tools that challenge these dominant concepts

The Government and Politics of the Middle East and North Africa Mark Gasiorowski, 2016-08-02 A comprehensive country by country examination of the history domestic politics and foreign policies of the Middle East and North Africa

Crossing Borders, Making Connections Allison Burkette, Tamara Warhol, 2021-01-18 This edited volume explores the scope of interdisciplinary linguistics and includes voices from scholars in different disciplines within the social sciences and humanities as well as different sub disciplines within linguistics Chapters within this volume offer a range of perspectives on interdisciplinary studies represent a connection between different disciplines or demonstrate an application of interdisciplinarity within linguistics The volume is divided into three sections perspectives connections and applications Perspectives The goal of this section is to address more generally the definition of and value of multi trans and inter disciplinary work In what areas and for what purposes is there a need for work that crosses discipline boundaries What are the challenges of undertaking such work What opportunities are available Connections This section features paired chapters written by scholars in different disciplines that discuss the same concept idea issue For example a discussion of how assemblage works in archaeology is paired with a discussion of how assemblage can be used to talk about style in linguistics Applications This section can be framed as sample answers to the question What does interdisciplinarity look like Reproducing, Rethinking, Resisting National Narratives Ignacio Brescó de Luna, Floor van Alphen, 2022-01-01 In his now classic Voices of Collective Remembering James V Wertsch 2002 examines the extent to which certain narrative themes are embedded in the way the collective past is understood and national communities are imagined In this work Wertsch coined the term schematic narrative templates to refer to basic plots such as the triumph over alien forces or quest for freedom that are recurrently used setting a national theme for the past present and future Whereas specific narratives are about particular events dates settings and actors schematic narrative templates refer to more abstract structures grounded in the same basic plot from which multiple specific accounts of the past can be generated As dominant and naturalised narrative structures schematic narrative templates are typically used without being noticed and are thus extremely conservative impervious to evidence and resistant to change The concept of schematic narrative templates is much needed today especially considering the rise of nationalism and extreme right populism political movements that tend to tap into national narratives naturalised and accepted by large swathes of society The present volume comprises empirical and theoretical contributions to the concept of schematic narrative templates by scholars of different disciplines Historiography Psychology Education and Political Science and from the vantage point of different cultural and social practices of remembering viz school history teaching political discourses rituals museums the use of images maps etc in different countries The volume's main goal is to provide a transdisciplinary debate around the concept of schematic narrative templates focusing on how narratives change as well as perpetuate at times when nationalist discourses seem to be on the rise This book will be relevant to anyone interested in history history teaching nationalism collective memory and the wider social debate on how to critically reflect on the past Arab Masculinities Konstantina Isidoros, Marcia C. Inhorn, 2022-01-04 Arab Masculinities provides a groundbreaking analysis of Arab men's lives in the precarious aftermath of the 2011 Arab uprisings It challenges received wisdoms and entrenched stereotypes about Arab men offering new understandings of masculinity across the Middle East and North Africa The 10 individual chapters of the book foreground the voices and stories of Arab men as they face economic precarity forced displacement and new challenges to marriage and family life Rich in ethnographic details they illuminate how men develop alternative strategies of affective labor how they attempt to care for themselves and their families within their local moral worlds and what it means to be a good son husband father and community member Arab Masculinities sheds light on the most private spaces of Arab men's lives offering stories that rarely enter the public realm It is a pioneering volume that reflects the urgent need for new anthropological scholarship on men and masculinities in a changing Middle East Language and Identities Carmen Llamas, 2009-12-18 Language and Identities offers a broad survey of our current state of knowledge on the connections between variability in language use and the construction negotiation maintenance and performance of identities at different levels individual group regional and national It brings together over 20 specially commissioned chapters written by distinguished international scholars on a range of topics around the language identity nexus The collection deals sequentially with identities at various levels both social and personal Using detailed empirical evidence the chapters illustrate how the multi layered dynamic nature of identities is realised through linguistic behaviour Several chapters in the volume focus on contexts in which we might expect to observe a foregrounding of factors involved in the definition and delimitation of self and other for example cases in which identities may be disputed changing blurred peripheral or imposed Such a focus on complex contexts allows clearer insight into the identity making and marking functions of language The collection approaches these topics from a range of perspectives with contributions from sociolinguists sociophoneticians linguistic anthropologists clinical linguists and forensic linguists

English Medium Instruction in Higher Education Fouzia Rouaghe, Nadia Idri, Tarek Assassi, 2025-09-26 This book provides a thorough analysis of the implementation of English as a Medium of Instruction EMI in Higher Education HE institutions in the North African region It examines the challenges and opportunities associated with EMI in Maghreb and Mashreq countries considering factors like language proficiency teaching methods and the attitudes of both students and teachers towards using English as a medium of instruction The book also explores the historical cultural and linguistic contexts that have influenced language ideologies in these countries and their impact on the adoption of EMI policies It raises questions about the role and status of particular languages and how these impact the reception and implementation of EMI in various contexts This book contributes to understanding language policy and planning providing valuable insights for academics educators policymakers and scholars with an interest in the region It is also useful for academics teachers and policymakers worldwide

Urban Restructuring, Power and Capitalism in the Tourist City Khalid Madhi, 2019-04-17 The book focuses on the processes of urban restructuring power relations and the political economy of touristic authenticity Through an in depth analysis of Marrakesh Morocco the book proposes a comprehensive analytic framework It highlights the issues of post coloniality ideology heritage commodification subjectivity and counter conduct in the shadow of global capitalism It explores how power relations and political economy have shaped the city of Marrakesh over the past few decades formulating new subjectivities It reveals how urban policy's sole purpose is to boost tourism in the city bringing into question the long term resilience and success of tourism as an economic activity and a policy choice This book considers how the well being of city residents is submitted to such policies conforming to certain forms of appropriation of land culture and memory The example of Morocco helps us understand a phenomenon affecting many other cities internationally This book will be valuable to academics and practitioners across disciplines including geography political science urban planning and architecture

Saharan Crossroads Tara F. Deubel, Hélène Tissières, Scott M. Youngstedt, 2014-06-26 Saharan Crossroads Exploring Historical Cultural and Artistic Linkages between North and West

Africa counteracts the traditional scholarly conception of the Sahara Desert as an impenetrable barrier dividing the continent by employing an interdisciplinary lens to examine myriad interconnections between North and West Africa through travel trade communication cultural exchange and correspondence that have been ongoing for several millennia Saharan Crossroads offers a unique contribution to existing scholarship on the region by uniting a diverse group of African European and American scholars working on various facets of trans Saharan history social life and cultural production and bringing their work together for the first time This trilingual volume includes eleven chapters written in English five chapters in French and three chapters in Arabic reflecting the multicultural nature of the Sahara and this international project Saharan Crossroads explores historical and contemporary connections and exchanges between populations living in and on both sides of the Sahara that have led to the emergence of distinctive cultural and aesthetic expressions This contact has been fostered by a series of linkages that include the trans Saharan caravan trade the spread of Islam the migration of nomadic pastoralists and European colonization The book includes three major sections 1 history culture and identity 2 trans Saharan circulation of arts music ritual performance and architecture and 3 religion law language and writing While the gaze of international political analysts has turned toward the Sahara to follow problematic developments that pose serious threats to human rights and security in the region it is especially timely to recall that the people and countries of the Sahelo Saharan world have maintained long histories of peaceful coexistence interdependence and cooperation that are too often overlooked in the present
