Navigating Nationality Johannes Kögel, 2024-01-18 In recounting their migration journey references to nationality pervade the narratives of Zimbabweans in South Africa Given the challenges many migrants confront based on their nationality this presents a seeming paradox This qualitative interview study conducted with Zimbabwean migrants in two areas of Cape Town Observatory and Dunoon aims to elucidate the nuances of national self descriptions in a demanding environment Identifying as Zimbabwean serves as a sanctuary and a retreat where alternative identifications often prove transient embracing Zimbabweanness fosters an affirmative and positive self perception surpassing the limitations of other collective self descriptions Rather than pre emptively characterizing a nationalist demeanour the articulation of national self description emerges as a strategic tool to navigate experiences of hostility and discrimination while also asserting legitimate claims to equal opportunities In this way nationality takes a trajectory that diverges from conventional notions of nationality and the ones of the nation state or citizenship as per Northern theory contributing to alternative conceptualizations within the framework of the Global South
