Irish History of Civilization, Volume 2 Don

Akenson,2005-02-11 In a sprawling chronicle of civilization through Irish eyes Akenson takes us from St Patrick to Woodie Guthrie from Constantine to John F Kennedy from India to the Australian outback In two volumes of masterful storytelling he creates ironic playful and acerbic historical miniatures a quixotic series of reconstructions woven into a helix in which the same historical figures reappear in radically different contexts as their narratives intersect with the larger picture

Walking Nature Home Susan J. Tweit,2023-01-06 Offers the reader a constellation of healing stories Powerful articulations of the human heart Overlaid with the stories of the natural world Denise Chavez author of A Taco Testimony Meditations on Family Food and Culture Without a map navigate by the stars Susan Tweit began learning this lesson as a young woman diagnosed with an autoimmune disease that was predicted to take her life in two to five years Offered no clear direction for getting well through conventional medicine Tweit turned to the natural world that was both her solace and her field of study as a plant ecologist Drawing intuitive connections between the natural processes and cycles she observed and the functions of her body Tweit not only learned healthier ways of living but also discovered a great truth love can heal In this beautifully written moving memoir she describes how love of the natural world of her husband and family and of life itself literally transformed and saved her own life In tracing the arc of her life from young womanhood to middle age Tweit tells stories about what silence and sagebrush bird bones and sheep dogs comets death and one crazy Englishman have to teach us about living She celebrates making healthy choices the inner voices she learned to hear on days alone in the wilderness the joys of growing and eating an organic kitchen garden and the surprising redemption in restoring a once blighted neighborhood creek Linking her life lessons to the stories she learned in childhood about the constellations Tweit shows how qualities such as courage compassion and inspiration draw us together and bind us into the community of the land and of all living things
