Peter Shirlow, Kieran McEvoy

Watching The Wind Conflict Resolution During South Africa's Transition To Democracy:

Watching the Wind Susan Collin Marks, 2000 A compelling inspiring account of peacemaking in action Watching the Wind takes us to the front lines of South Africa's struggle to manage the tempestuous transition from apartheid to democracy When Mandela de Klerk and other political leaders launched the 1991 National Peace Accord in a far reaching effort to staunch political bloodshed and promote consultation and cooperation between bitter adversaries Susan Collin Marks was one of thousands of South Africans who committed themselves to making the peace process work where it mattered most at the local level Over the next three years Marks and other leaders of the conflict resolution movement adopted and adapted a vast array of tools and techniques they mediated facilitated and counseled they created forums for open discussion and trained community leaders they fostered community policing and they anticipated crises and stood between demonstrators and security forces And as Marks explains something extraordinary happened The international community had expected a bloodbath but what it saw instead was a near miraculous process of negotiation and accommodation With passion and eloquence the author captures the drama the personalities and the heroism of this grassroots peace process WATCHING THE WIND... CONFLICT RESOLUTION DURING SOUTH AFRICA'S TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY... U.S. INSTITUTE OF PEACE. United States Institute of Peace, 2001* Contributions to the Study of Peacemaking, 1995 Contributions to the Study of Peacemaking United States Institute of Peace, 1991 Peacemaking Susan Allen Nan, Zachariah Cherian Mampilly, Andrea Bartoli, 2011-11-10 In a world where conflict is never ending this thoughtful compilation fosters a new appreciation of the art of peacemaking as it is understood and practiced in a variety of contemporary settings Peacemaking From Practice to Theory is about seeing knowing and learning peacemaking as it exists in the real world Built on the premise that peacemaking is among the most elemental of human experiences this seminal work emphasizes the importance of practice and lived experiences in understanding the process and learning what works to nurture peace To appropriately reflect the diversity of peacemaking practices challenges and innovations these two volumes bring together many authors and viewpoints The first volume consists of two sections Peacemaking in Practice and Towards an Inclusive Peacemaking the second of two additional sections New Directions in Peacemaking and Interpreting Peacemaking As the title states the work moves peacemaking beyond mere theory showcasing peacemaking efforts produced recorded recognized and understood by a variety of individuals and institutions In doing so it refocuses the study of peacemaking and guides readers to a systematic understanding and appreciation of the practices of peacemakers around the globe The Business Student's Guide to Sustainable Management Petra Molthan-Hill, 2017-11-09 The Business Student's Guide to Sustainable Management has become a core textbook for business undergraduates With a full introduction to sustainable management the textbook covers all subject areas relevant to business students This second edition features fully updated chapters on how to integrate the Sustainable Development Goals into accounting marketing HR and other subjects in management and business studies

Furthermore this second edition offers brand new chapters on how to teach the Principles for Responsible Management Education PRME in any business discipline how to explore new business models designed to support sustainable development and how to crowdsource for sustainable solutions The book contains over 40 ready made seminars short workshops which enable teachers and students to integrate the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs into every discipline in business including economics operations marketing HR and financial reporting Each chapter follows the same easy to use format The Business Student s Guide to Sustainable Management provides a true treasure chest of materials to support staff wanting to integrate sustainability into their teaching and provides support to effectively embed sustainability in the curriculum The chapters also offer a starting point in developing teaching units for Masters and MBA students The material is not just useful to people in business schools but to those involved in wider scale curriculum change and those looking to make links between different disciplines for example how to teach system thinking corporate peace making and the crowdsourcing of sustainable solutions Online Teaching Notes to accompany each chapter are available on request with the purchase of the book

The New Humanitarians Chris E. Stout Ph.D., 2008-11-30 From Braille Without Borders and Unite for Sight to Geekcorps and PeaceWorks humanitarian groups are working worldwide largely in undeveloped countries to better the lives of the residents Whether they are empowering people with schools for the blind prosthetic limbs the devices to understand and use technology or the information to work for civil peace the men and women of these agencies offer tremendous talent to their causes great dedication and sometimes even risk their lives to complete their missions Working in war or civil war zones humanitarians with nonprofits non governmental agencies and university connected centers and foundations have been injured kidnapped or killed Now terrorist events and war crimes are more and more often bringing these self sacrificing workers into the national spotlight by media headlines Their work is doubtless remarkable And so too are the stories of how they developed including the defining moments when their founders felt they could no longer stand by and do nothing In this set of books founders and top officials from humanitarian organizations established in the last 50 years spotlight how and why they began their organizations what their greatest victories and challenges have been and how they run the organizations down to where they get their funding and how they spend it to grow the group and its efforts Led by Chris E Stout named Humanitarian of the Year by the American Psychological Association the contributors here come from across training disciplines including psychology medicine technology science politics social work and business Stout who has worked in Latin American terrorist zones in Vietnam and along the Amazon in Ecuador with Flying Doctors of America has chosen to feature a sample of humanitarian groups across four primary areas medicine environment education and social justice He also concentrates on what he calls guerilla humanitarians those who step into unsafe or unhealthy conditions despite the dangers There is also a concentration on those that have been very successful with on the ground guerilla innovations without a lot of bureaucracy or baloney Above all They are rebels with a cause whose actions speak louder than mere words Stout explains They have all felt a moral duty to serve as vectors of change In addition to being psychologically insightful these volumes hold invaluable practical information Sustainable Management Petra Molthan-Hill,2023-08-22
