Mertens, Micki M. Caskey, 2021-04-01 In April 2020 middle level education lost one of its most ardent and influential advocates with the passing of Dr John H Lounsbury His career of more than 70 years focused on providing young adolescents with a developmentally appropriate educational program He is recognized as one of the founders of the modern middle school movement and a founding member of the National Middle School Association now the Association for Middle Level Education Through his efforts as an educator writer editor and researcher John served as a mentor and inspiration to many John s writings and mentorship continue to influence generations of middle level teachers colleagues researchers and advocates His legend lives on as we continue his work to improve the lives and educational experiences of young adolescents This tribute volume is a collection of stories anecdotes vignettes and defining moments that the contributors want to share about Dr John Lounsbury Science Education as a Pathway to Teaching Language Literacy ,2010-01-01 In this era of mandated high stakes and standardized testing teachers and schools officials find themselves struggling to meet the demands for improved student achievement At the same time they are also expected to teach all subjects as required by national and state curriculum standards Because of these competing demands science is not even taught or taught less often in order to make more room for mathematics and language arts drill and practice and teaching to the test Anyone concerned with providing students with a well rounded education should ask whether these drastic measures even if they were to show improvement in achievement justify denying children access to the unique opportunities for intellectual growth and social awareness that the effective instruction of science provides Will these students have enough exposure to the science curriculum to prepare them to do well later in middle and high school How is this current situation going to help ameliorate the pervasive achievement gap in science and how is it going to motivate students to pursue science related careers The authors of this book believe that instead of sacrificing the science curriculum to make more time for drill and practice in mathematics and language arts what should be done is to connect current research on literacy and science instruction with effective pedagogy Therefore this volume provides fresh theoretical insights and practical applications for better understanding how science can be used as a pathway to teaching literacy and hence as a pathway to improving teachers practice and students learning ePedagogy in Online Learning: New Developments in Web Mediated Human Computer Interaction McKay, Elspeth,2013-03-31 ICT tools and the digital age continue to redefine teaching strategies for both the corporate sector and educational institutions These teaching environments have enabled openness and interaction in order to teach communities to flourish ePedagogy in Online Learning New Developments in Web Mediated Human Computer Interaction provides approaches on adopting interactive web tools that promote effective human computer interaction in educational practices This book is a vital tool for educational technology practitioners and researchers interested in incorporating e learning practices in the education sector Inclusive Education Theory and Policy: Moving from Special Educational Needs to Equity Sue Soan,Jeremy Monsen,2023-06-29 This book co authored by long time practitioners brilliantly demonstrates that an inequitable illiberal education system can be changed to become inclusive and equitable With one part examining the system over the decades since the Warnock report and a second part presenting policy and practice for a fairer system with an end to a SEND industry it presents a state maintained education system desperately in need of radical reform that can be renewed to serve all children and young people Professor Sally Tomlinson Emeritus Professor Goldsmiths at the University of London UK Honorary Fellow at the Department of Education University of Oxford UK This book is a wake up call to us all to the liberation of our current system it invites active engagement in change through review and reflection I would recommend this book to my teachers Dr Stella Scharinger Primary School Executive Head Teacher The Stour Academy Trust UK This is an important and imaginative book written by two experts whose writing is always both clear and engaging It is both theoretically sound but also very practical It deals with extremely important issues and deserves a wide readership Professor Adrian Furnham Professor of Psychology Norwegian Business School Norway Dr Sue Soan and Prof Jeremy J Monsen have written what is undoubtedly one of the most thought provoking books on inclusive education of our time They have captured perfectly the evolution of the education system in England to date demonstrating how good intentions have too often failed to deliver good outcomes No stone is left unturned by Sue and Jeremy From teacher education and technology to teacher retention and the curriculum excellent insights and ideas are provided in abundance It is a book that is itself built on inclusive principles designed for a broad readership extending beyond educators and into the general public This is a book that everybody should read at least once and probably more than once Professor Adam Boddison Chief Executive of the Association for Project Management UK This book provides a critical overview of the development of the Special Educational Needs and Disabilities SEND industry within the English state education system It connects the work of earlier educational thinkers with the challenges faced by school leaders teachers parents carers and policy makers today Moving from separate systems towards a truly integrated and inclusive educational system the authors explore which areas have been undervalued and why Instead they encourage debate and the chance to explore new ideas away from the constant cycle of reforms without improvements The book Proposes how to move beyond inclusion vs exclusion Provides guiding principles to create true equity within education Analyses past and present issues in the sector across policy and practice Inclusive Education Theory and Policy is essential reading for anyone interested in building an education system that is for every child It provides an incisive analysis of how to make SEND truly equitable and is relevant across all career stages Sue Soan is Senior Lecturer at Canterbury Christ Church University UK and the facilitator of the research group Action for Collaborative Transformation ACT which is working to improve collaborative practice across the statutory professions Previously Sue worked as a teacher and SENCo for over 25 years Jeremy Monsen is Executive Principal Educational and Child Psychologist for the London boroughs of Westminster and Kensington and Chelsea He is also Visiting Professor at the University of Strathclyde UK Lecturer Honorary to University College London
