We Confess Anthology:

We Confess Hermann Sasse, 1999 These essays define a Lutheran approach and understanding of the Gospel The book is divided into three sections previously published as separate volumes Section 1 includes essays on Jesus Christ the theology of the cross and church and confession Section 2 offers essays on the Sacraments Section 3 presents writings on the Church the Holy Spirit ministry last things and more An Uncompromising Gospel Wade Johnston, Wade R Johnston, 2017-01-05

Martin Luther with preached and written word unleashed the unconditional and uncompromising gospel of God's love for sinners in Jesus Christ crucified and risen He exposed both man's lost condition and Christ's unfathomable love with unrelenting persistence and unmistakable clarity Bound in sin only Christ could set the sinner free and Luther held Christ before his students hearers and readers That message marked and formed his students and coworkers and yet after his death bitter disputes broke out about some of the most central aspects of his theology Debates cut to the very heart of the Reformation and this while its future hung precariously in the balance An Uncompromising Gospel highlights Luther's key theological teachings details the controversies that broke out over them after his death and provides important lessons for our own day as Christians still struggle to grasp and hold forth the love of Christ for sinners dead in trespasses and sins As Lutheranism in specific and Christianity as a whole struggle to find and articulate their identity in challenging times yet once again An Uncompromising Gospel provides helpful reminders about what the chief task and message of the church are and ought to be as it presses forward in God's grace and with the good news of Christ Jesus From Death to Life Scott W.

Block, 2009-09-03 From Death to Life examines what happens when people die Have you ever wondered or are you curious about end of life moments Is there actually a splitting of the body and soul at the time of death or is there something else What happens to the survivors after their loved one dies and how are they comforted in their time of sorrow and grief In this book the words of the Holy Bible and others like Martin Luther will speak to you tell you the truth and give you words of comfort so that you too can have the sure and steadfast anchor of the soul I Confess! Thomas Waugh, Brandon

Arroyo, 2019-11-21 In the postwar decades sexual revolutions first women's suffrage flappers Prohibition and Mae West later Alfred Kinsey Hugh Hefner and the pill altered the lifestyles and desires of generations Since the 1990s the internet and its cataclysmic cultural and social technological shifts have unleashed a third sexual revolution crystallized in the acts and rituals of confession that are a staple of our twenty first century lives In I Confess a collection of thirty original essays leading international scholars such as Ken Plummer Susanna Paasonen Tom Roach and Shohini Ghosh explore the ideas of confession and sexuality in moving image arts and media mostly in the Global North over the last quarter century Through self referencing or autobiographical stories testimonies and performances and through rigorously scrutinized case studies of gay for pay gaming camming YouTube uploads and the films Tarnation and Nymph maniac the contributors describe a spectrum of identities desires and related representational practices Together these desires and practices shape how we see

construct and live our identities within this third sexual revolution embodying both its ominous implications of surveillance and control and its utopian glimmers of community and liberation Inspired by theorists from Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze to Gayle Rubin and Jos Esteban Muñoz I Confess reflects an extraordinary paradigm shifting proliferation of first person voices and imagery produced during the third sexual revolution from the eve of the internet to today

The Doctrine of Atonement Jack D. Kilcrease, 2018-03-22 Post Enlightenment theology has frequently rejected the historic Christian doctrine of substitutionary atonement For theologians standing in the tradition of the Lutheran Confessions rejection of substitutionary atonement is particularly problematic because it endangers the unconditional nature of the justification through faith If one rejects vicarious satisfaction then the only alternative is to make redemption dependent on what sinners do for themselves In this study Jack Kilcrease argues for substitutionary atonement within the perspective of what he calls the Confessional Lutheran Paradigm The author also critiques a wide variety of modern Lutheran theologians understandings of atonement Werner Elert Gustaf Aulen Gustaf Wingren Robert Jenson Eberhard Jungel Wolfhart Pannenberg and Gerhard Forde As Kilcrease demonstrates although these authors often give many fine theological insights their distortion or misrepresentation of the doctrine of atonement carries over to a problematic understanding of law gospel and justification through faith

Cross Narratives Neal J. Anthony, 2010-06-01 Luther's radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ and specifically its expression through the ubiquitous presence of the humanity of Christ is a fundamental integral expression of that same theology This expression of Luther's theology of the cross Anthony asserts provides both a fuller elaboration and an important and creative corrective with reference to recent signal expressions of the theology of the cross As contemporary theologians of the cross have articulated most notably Douglas John Hall and the late Alan E Lewis the theology of the cross through a transformation of the divine attributes that honors the integrity of created beings is preeminently a theology of redemption from within within redemption In the process of outlining and analyzing these theologies of within redemption Anthony exposes an impasse created by these theologies regarding the relationship of within redemption to individual human narratives It is through Luther s radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ Anthony contends that complete within redemption can be expressed Anthony also evaluates the Christology of Karl Barth from the perspective of his findings Not only is Anthony s work an innovative and fresh application of Luther s Christology for contemporary discussions of the theology of the cross but it places Luther s Christology at the cutting edge of contemporary discussions regarding the theology of the cross and its within redemption

Evangelicals and Nicene Faith () Timothy George,2011-10-01 The Nicene Creed is the most universally accepted statement of Christian faith by Protestant Catholic and Orthodox believers alike In this volume top scholars examine the Nicene Creed s connection with the evangelical tradition helping readers see evangelicalism as a renewal movement within the one holy catholic and apostolic church Particular focus is given to the Creed s practical outworking in the life of the church its theology spirituality worship and mission Topics include pastoral work biblical exegesis the emerging phenomena and Christian orthodoxy s revival in the Global South The book helps readers present the traditional Christian faith to twenty first century people Contributors include Thomas C Oden Gerald Bray Carl E Braaten Curtis W Freeman Elizabeth Newman and Ralph C Wood among others

They Were Eyewitnesses Nancy A. Almodovar,2021-07-23 For many of today s Christians their go to style of proclaiming the faith is to share their own experiences While this may be a stepping stone to the conversation we should not remain on our subjective and unprovable experiences Rather Christians should use the pattern set forth in the New Testament by the apostles and evangelists the gospel of Jesus who died was buried and rose to life on the third day according to the Scriptures In this book the sermons of the apostles and evangelists will be looked into to see how they both proclaimed and defended the Christian faith giving all Christians the pattern to follow in their own opportunities to share the one true faith

The Self-Donation of God Jack D. Kilcrease,2013-03-20 In The Self Donation of God Jack Kilcrease argues that the speech act of promise is always an act of self donation A person who unilaterally promises to another is bound to take a particular series of actions to fulfill that promise Being that creation is grounded in God s promising speech the divine human relationship is fundamentally one of divine self donation and human receptivity Sin disrupts this relationship and therefore redemption is constituted by a reassertion of divine promise of salvation in the face of the condemnation of the law Gen 3 15 As a new and effective word of grace the promise of a savior begins the process of redemption within which God speaks forth a new narrative of creation In this new narrative God gives himself in an even deeper manner to humanity By donating himself through a promise first to the protological humanity and then to Israel he binds himself to them At the end of this history of self binding God in Christ enters into the condemnation of the law neutralizes it in the cross and brings about a new creation through his omnipotent word of promise actualized in the resurrection is a theology learned by Francis Kai throughout the years he was thrown into the Valley of Achor Although he had been a Catholic from ten years old Francis did not know to receive grace from God in deep suffering when his wife Martha was diagnosed with brain cancer During his search for spiritual help Francis discovered Martin Luther was the first theologian to preach suffering Luthers doctrine of justification by faith alone is the doctrine of salvation by grace alone through faith alone Grace is the free gift of God to mankind A Christian must learn the way to receive grace through his faith in Christ Francis learned to receive grace by learning Luthers teaching Submit totally to God He was transformed from living his church life to Christian life God calls us to bear great fruit for his glory in this suffering world Francis learned the verse of John 14 12 from Pastor Scott Scruggs to do greater things than Jesus by telling his readers about the theology of suffering A church that does not preach suffering is not Gods church Francis learned to be a godly man from living a life in doctrine

Catastrophe Theology Francis Kai,2017-05-15 The Catastrophe Theology

The Religious Concordance Joshua Hollmann,2017-05-01 In The Religious Concordance Nicholas of Cusa and Christian Muslim Dialogue Joshua Hollmann examines Nicholas of Cusa s unique Christocentric approach to Islam While many late medieval Christians responded to the fall of Constantinople with polemic Nicholas of Cusa wrote a peaceful dialogue De pace fidei between Christians and Muslims as synthesis of religious concordance through the person and work of Jesus Christ Nicholas of Cusa s Christ centered dialogue with Muslims sheds further light on his broader Christ centered theology over his entire career as philosopher and theologian Drawing upon Nicholas of Cusa s philosophical foundations for religious dialogue and peace Joshua Hollmann convincingly proves that Cusa constructively understands religious diversity through the concordance of religion as centred in Christ
