In the Shadow of Liberty Kenneth C. Davis, 2024-06-04 A look at how some of America s founding fathers who fought for liberty and justice for all were slave owners A powerful examination of five enslaved individuals and their presidential owners In a thoroughly researched and reasoned account Davis exposes the intricacies of this impossibly tangled web Publishers Weekly starred review Through the powerful stories of five enslaved people who were owned by four of our greatest presidents this middle grade nonfiction book helps set the record straight about the role slavery played in the founding of America From Billy Lee valet to George Washington to Alfred Jackson personal manservant and lifelong slave of Andrew Jackson these dramatic narratives explore our country s great tragedy that a nation conceived in liberty was also born in shackles These stories help us know the real people who were essential to the birth of this nation but traditionally have been left out of US history books Their stories are true and they should be heard This thoroughly researched and documented book by Kenneth C Davis can be worked into multiple aspects of the Common Core curriculum It is a great resource for young students of United States history Praise for In the Shadow of Liberty This well researched book offers a chronological history of slavery in America and features five enslaved people and the four U S presidents who owned them A valuable broad perspective on slavery Booklist starred review Compulsively readable A must have selection School Library Journal starred review

The Window Seat Aminatta Forna, 2021-05-18 Gutsy funny risky and wise full of dazzling late night insight in the middle of everything epiphanies moments of sheer honesty blooming into gut truths Marlon James Booker Prize winning author Aminatta Forna is one of our most important literary voices and her novels have won the Windham Campbell Prize and the Commonwealth Writers Prize for Best Book In this elegantly rendered and wide ranging collection of new and previously published essays Forna writes intimately about displacement trauma and memory love and how we coexist and encroach on the non human world

Movement is a constant here In the title piece The Window Seat she reveals the unexpected enchantments of commercial air travel In Obama and the Renaissance Generation she documents how despite the narrative of Obama s exceptionalism his father like her own was one of a generation of gifted young Africans who came to the United Kingdom and the United States for education and were expected to build their home countries anew after colonialism In The Last Vet time spent shadowing Dr Jalloh the only veterinarian in Sierra Leone as he works with the street dogs of Freetown becomes a meditation on what a society s treatment of animals tells us about its principles In Crossroads she examines race in America from an African perspective and in Power Walking she describes what it means to walk in the world in a Black woman s body and in The Watch she explores the raptures of sleep and sleeplessness the world over Deeply meditative and written with a wry humor The Window Seat confirms that Forna is a compelling essayist her voice direct lucid and fearless Claire Messud Harper s Magazine Benedict Cumberbatch - The Biography Justin Lewis,2015-04-02 This is the story of Benedict Cumberbatch still only in his thirties and one of Britain s foremost acting talents excelling in theatre television radio and cinema African American Theater Glenda Dicker/sun,2013-08-23 Written in a clear accessible storytelling style African American Theater will shine a bright new light on the culture which has historically nurtured and inspired Black Theater Functioning as an interactive guide for students and teachers African American Theater takes the reader on a journey to discover how social realities impacted the plays dramatists wrote and produced The journey begins in 1850 when most African people were enslaved in America Along the way cultural milestones such as Reconstruction the Harlem Renaissance and the Black Freedom Movement are explored The journey concludes with a discussion of how the past still plays out in the works of contemporary playwrights like August Wilson and Suzan Lori Parks African American Theater moves unsung heroes like Robert Abbott and Jo Ann Gibson Robinson to the foreground but does not neglect the race giants For actors looking for material to perform the book offers exercises to create new monologues and scenes Rich with myths history and first person accounts by ordinary people telling their extraordinary stories African American Theater will entertain while it educates

From These Ashes Part III T. E. Reynolds,2011-02 Even in history s darkest times enlightened men looked to the heart when choosing a friend From These Ashes is about a young man from Barnwell County South Carolina who inherits 150 of his fellow human beings Part I A Friend Loveth at All Times speaks of the close relationships that existed on plantations between master and slave and the unrecognized struggle for freedom complicated by loyalty to a fair master Part II A Brother Offended continues the story through the war The characters serve with the 2nd South Carolina Cavalry under Edgefield s M C Butler sharing in such adventures as Brandy Station Hampton s cattle raid and the bitter return to South Carolina to fight against Kilpatrick s Army who gloried in burning a path from the low country to Columbia with more vengeance than Sherman dealt Georgia After the war the main character returns home to find another challenge Following true accounts of the Reconstruction Part III Through Wisdom is a House Built places the characters into this agonizing time In Part III the main character does what he must to build a safe future for those he loves from the ashes left by Kilpatrick's invasion From These Ashes celebrates positive qualities in men of both colors Reynolds believes what we give our power over to will manifest With this story he has chosen to celebrate the good in mankind the good that was present then and is now President Lincoln once said when meeting Harriet Beecher Stowe So you're the little lady who wrote the book that started this great war Reynolds shares a veiled history with a new generation of Americans Knowledge brings understanding and understanding empathy So with this tale his prayer is set free Let the South be free to celebrate her Confederate heritage

Maroons and the Marooned Richard Bodek, Joseph Kelly, 2020-04-20 Contributions by Richard Bodek Claire P Curtis Joseph Kelly Simon Lewis Steve Mentz J Brent Morris Peter Sands Edward Shore and James O Neil Spady Commonly the word maroon refers to someone cast away on an island One becomes marooned usually through a storm at sea or by a captain as a method of punishment But the term originally denoted escaped slaves Though being marooned came to be associated mostly with white European castaways the etymology invites comparison between true maroons escaped slaves establishing new lives in the wilderness and people who were marooned through maritime disaster This volume brings together literary scholars with historians encompassing both literal maroons such as in Brazil and South Carolina as well as metaphoric scenarios in time travel novels and postapocalyptic narratives Included are examples from The Tempest Margaret Atwood's MaddAddam trilogy A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court and Octavia Butler's Kindred Both runaways and castaways formed new societies in the wilderness But true maroons escaped slaves were not cast away they chose to fly towards the uncertainties of the wild in pursuit of freedom In effect this volume gives these maroons proper credit at the very heart of American history

Literacy for All Shawna Coppola, 2023-12-01 An equity conscious culturally sustaining approach to literacy education Every student comes to the classroom with unique funds of knowledge in addition to unique needs How can teachers celebrate and draw upon the valuable literacies each child already possesses to engage them more effectively in school literacy practices In Literacy for All Shawna Coppola shows how a literacy pedagogy founded on anti-oppressive principles can transform the experiences of teachers and students alike Using her framework which highlights the social and cultural aspects of literacy teachers can help students participate in literacy experiences that illuminate their individual strengths Coppola's book an ideal introduction for equity conscious literacy educators shows how to design instructional and assessment practices that reflect both the cognitive processes and the social practices inherent in learning to read and write

A Desolate Place for a Defiant People Daniel Sayers, 2014-11-25 In the 250 years before the Civil War the Great Dismal Swamp of Virginia and North Carolina was a brutal landscape 2 000 square miles of undeveloped and unforgiving wetlands peat bogs impenetrable foliage and dangerous creatures It was also a protective refuge for marginalized communities including Native Americans African American maroons free African Americans and outcast Europeans Here they created their own way of life free of the exploitation and alienation they had escaped In the first thorough examination of this vital site Daniel Sayers examines the area's archaeological record exposing and unraveling the complex social and economic systems developed by these defiant communities that thrived on the periphery He develops an analytical framework based on the complex interplay between alienation diasporic exile uneven geographical development and modes of production to argue that colonialism and slavery inevitably created sustained critiques of American capitalism

Writers of Multicultural Fiction for Young Adults M. Daphne Kutzer, 1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape This reference helps scholars teachers and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults Included are entries for 51 writers some of whom have nearly been forgotten others who are just emerging Each entry provides biographical critical and bibliographical information while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book Authors included range from the nearly forgotten such as Laura Adams Armer to the newly discovered such as Graham Salisbury winner of the 1994 Scott O Dell Award for Historical Fiction The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children's literature lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself

Free Soil Diane Jordan-Grizzard, 2010 Recently fired from her position as a public school teacher in Ohio Zenobia yearns to go back to her family's homeland of Liberia and open a women's clinic As she encounters the conditions that grew out of Liberia's class division and oppression what will she discover

Beat Collection Barry Miles, 2010-09-30 The Beats a title that Jack Kerouac coined to define the exhausted exaltation of a generation produced a body of works infected with a new energy Their spontaneous often unedited style epitomised their own era and their famed close knit literary community continues to inspire writers today Barry Miles friend and biographer of Allen Ginsberg William Burroughs and Jack Kerouac was there part of the Beat Vibe here he gathers together some of the most influential as well as the most overlooked writers of the era He covers the writings from The Original Beats New York 1944-53 The San Francisco Scene 1954-57 and The Second Wave New York 1958-60 including works from Gregory Corso John Clellon Holmes Lawrence Ferlinghetti Frank O'Hara Diane di Prima and

Alexander Trocchi to the king of the Beats Himself Jack Kerouac The result is a fascinating compendium that recaptures the unique but varied voices of the Beat generation Negotiating Copyright Martin T. Buinicki, 2014-02-04 This book examines how debates over copyright law in the United States during the nineteenth century particularly over the lack of an international copyright law intersected with the business practices and political and artistic beliefs of American authors These debates shaped a discourse of literary property rights that forced authors to negotiate their copyrights not only with their publishers but with their readers as well The author argues that the act of taking out a copyright was more than a mere legal mechanism marking a transition from amateur to professional or artist to businessperson Taking out a copyright had a profound impact on how audiences viewed authors how authors perceived their profession and how they represented individual rights and property ownership within their texts The book is unique in the scope of its research tracking developments from the 1820s through the 1890s and in the way it approaches the work and careers of well known authors The author employs research from the American Antiquarian Society the Harriet Beecher Stowe Center and the Government and Special Collections at the University of Iowa drawing on an array of documents including newspaper editorials legislative hearings court decisions and the public and private writing of James Fenimore Cooper Walt Whitman Harriet Beecher Stowe Samuel Clemens and Emily Dickinson to demonstrate how authors found themselves in an uneasy opposition to their reading public Unbroken and Unbowed Jimmie R. Hawkins, 2022-02-22 In this compelling and informative volume Jimmie R.

Hawkins walks the reader through the many forms of Black protest in American history from pre colonial times though the George Floyd protests of 2020 Hawkins breaks American history into five sections with subsections highlighting how Black identity helped to shape protest during that period These protests include slave ship mutinies the abolitionist movement the different approaches to protest from Frederick Douglas W E B Dubois and Booker T Washington protest led by various Black institutions Black Lives Matter movements and protests of today s Black athletes musicians and intellectuals such as Lebron James Beyonce and Kendrick Lamar Hawkins also covers the backlash to these protests including the Jim Crow era the Red Summer of 1919 and modern day wars on the Black community in the form of the War on Drugs and voter suppression
