We Are Iran The Persian Blogs:

We are Iran Nasrin Alavi,2005 We Are Iran is a seamlessly edited multi voiced portrait of contemporary Iran translated from Farsi using that nation s weblogs as its primary source Iran has more web diarists than most countries and in cyberspace many Iranians find a freedom to express opinions that is not available to them in print Theirs is not the Iran of bearded ayatollahs and thuggish militias but a country that has educated itself to the point where it finds the Islamist fundamentalists antiquated and laughable where adult literacy and computer literacy is higher than in many European states and where 70 per cent of the population is under 30 and keen to usher in a new Iran Their voices infused with Persian lyricism are refreshing utterly at odds with the grim vision of the country peddled by Western governments They talk of their conflicts with the law the condition of women of repression and its subversion the police and media of singing and dancing of snatched romance and nostalgia for lost heroes Reading We Are Iran you have the sense that for more reasons than are obvious the worst thing that could possibly happen to Iran now would be a US attack We Are Iran Nasrin Alavi,2005-11-08 In September 2001 a young Iranian journalist Hossein Derakhshan created one of the first weblogs in Farsi When he also devised a simple how to blog guide for Iranians it unleashed a torrent of hitherto unheard opinions There are now 64 000 blogs in Farsi and Nasrin Alavi has painstakingly reviewed them all weaving the most powerful and provocative into a striking picture of the flowering of dissent in Iran From one blogger s blasting of the Supreme Leader as a pimp to another s mourning for an identity crushed by the stifling protection of her male relatives this collection functions not only as an archive of Iranians thoughts on their country culture religion and the rest of the world but also as an alternative recent history of Iran Government crackdowns may soon still these voices in February 2005 one blogger was sentenced to 14 years in jail and We Are Iran may serve as the only serious record of their existence Iranian and Diasporic Literature in the 21st Century Daniel Grassian,2013-01-07 The most populous Islamic country in the Middle East Iran is rife with contradictions in many ways caught between the culture and governments of the Western more dominant and arguably imperialist world and the ideology of conservative fundamentalist Islam This book explores the present day writings of authors who explore these oppositional forces often finding a middle course between the often brutal and demonizing rhetoric from both sides To combat how the West has falsely generalized and stereotyped Iran and how Iran has falsely generalized and stereotyped the West Iranian and diasporic writers deconstruct Western caricatures of Iran and Iranian caricatures of the West In so doing they provide especially valuable insights into life in Iran today and into life in the West for diasporic Iranians The Middle East Barry Rubin,2015-03-17 The Middle East is an area of great importance globally yet misperceptions abound Events have made it a region of special interest to the West and so the search for understanding gains momentum This publication is intended to clarify the region s complex history and issues In developing this project the contributors set out to explore seven significant themes that are usually not found in other sources While many books focus on political history and conflicts this two volume work deals specifically with culture religion women economics governance and media as well as the role that the region s modern history has played in shaping its society and worldview Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran Lois Beck,2014-09-19 Examining the rapid transition in Iran from a modernizing westernizing secularizing monarchy 1941 79 to a hard line conservative clergy run Islamic republic 1979 this book focuses on the ways this process has impacted the Qashqa i a rural nomadic tribally organized Turkish speaking ethnic minority of a million and a half people who are dispersed across the southern Zagros Mountains Analysing the relationship between the tribal polity and each of the two regimes the book goes on to explain the resilience of the people s tribal organizations kinship networks and politicized ethnolinguistic identities to demonstrate how these structures and ideologies offered the Qashqa i a way to confront the pressures emanating from the two central governments Existing scholarly works on politics in Iran rarely consider Iranian society outside the capital of Tehran and beyond the reach of the details of national politics Local level studies on Iran accounts of the ways people actually lived are now rare especially after the revolution Based on long term anthropological research Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran provides a unique insight into how national level issues relate to the local level and will be of interest to scholars and researchers in Anthropolgy Iranian Studies and Middle Eastern Studies

Sexuality in Muslim Contexts Anissa Helie,Homa Hoodfar,2012-10-11 This groundbreaking book explores resistance against the harsh policing of sexuality in some Muslim societies Many Muslim majority countries still use religious discourse to enforce stigmatization and repression of those especially women who do not conform to sexual norms promoted either by the state or by non state actors In this context Islam is often stigmatized in Western discourse for being intrinsically restrictive with respect to women s rights and sexuality The authors show that conservative Muslim discourse does not necessarily match practices of believers or of citizens and that women s empowerment is facilitated where indigenous and culturally appropriate strategies are developed Using case studies from Pakistan Iran Indonesia China Bangladesh Israel and India they argue persuasively that Muslim religious traditions do not necessarily lead to conservative agendas but can promote emancipatory standpoints An intervention to the construction of Muslim women as uniformly subordinate this collection spearheads an unprecedented wake of organizing around sexualities in Muslim communities

Iranian Intellectuals Lloyd Ridgeon,2013-10-18 Previously published as a special issue of British Journal of Middle East Studies this volume focuses on leading figures within Iran between 1997 2007 and their visions and works that are related to Iranian society A cross section of opinion is investigated including the clerical Ali Khameneh i Muhammad Khatami and Mohsen Kadivar the dissident Mohsen Makhmalbaf and the poetic Qaysar Aminpour and cinematic The past decade has been a traumatic one in Iran and the essays in this volume testify to the vibrancy of the responses from Iranian thinkers It may be a surprise to some observers that in some senses Ali Khameneh i may be considered a liberal whereas Muhammad Khatami s own credentials as an advocate of rapprochement with the West needs to be qualified Responses to Western culture continue to remain centre stage and this is also nowhere more apparent than in the complex relationship between the directors of Iranian films perhaps Iran s most celebrated export these days and their audiences both Iranian and Western Despite some viewing Iran as a pariah state it remains firmly connected to the West and to modern technology typified in the practice of blogging that is enjoyed by so many Iranians which has provided a new space for expression and thinking

Wired Citizenship Linda Herrera,2014-03-05 Wired Citizenship examines the evolving patterns of youth learning and activism in the Middle East and North Africa MENA In today s digital age in which formal schooling often competes with the peer driven outlets provided by social media youth all over the globe have forged new models of civic engagement rewriting the script of what it means to live in a democratic society As a result state society relationships have shifted never more clearly than in the MENA region where recent uprisings were spurred by the mobilization of tech savvy and politicized youth Combining original research with a thorough exploration of theories of democracy communications and critical pedagogy this edited collection describes how youth are performing citizenship innovating systems of learning and re imagining the practices of activism in the information age Recent case studies illustrate the context specific effects of these revolutionary new forms of learning and social engagement in the MENA region Iranophobia Haggai Ram,2009-04-16 Israel and Iran invariably are portrayed as sworn enemies engaged in an unending conflict with potentially apocalyptic implications Iranophobia offers an innovative and provocative new reading of this conflict Concerned foremost with how Israelis perceive Iran the author steps back from all too common geopolitical analyses to show that this conflict is as much a product of shared cultural trajectories and entangled histories as it is one of strategic concerns and political differences Haggai Ram an Israeli scholar explores prevalent Israeli assumptions about Iran to look at how these assumptions have in turn reflected and shaped Jewish Israeli identity Drawing on diverse political cultural and academic sources he concludes that anti Iran phobias in the Israeli public sphere are largely projections of perceived domestic threats to the prevailing Israeli ethnocratic order At the same time he examines these phobias in relation to the Jewish state s use of violence in the Palestinian territories and Lebanon in the post 9 11 world In the end Ram demonstrates that the conflict between Israel and Iran may not be as essential and polarized as common knowledge assumes Israeli anti Iran phobias are derived equally from domestic anxieties about the Jewish state s ethnic and religious identities and from exaggerated and displaced strategic concerns in the era of the war on terrorism
