hasn't felt this awful since the summer after graduation when Jonah ruined their college plans by running off on a cross country trip without even saying goodbye. Jonah isn't just angry. He's furious and hurt. Devastated even because he's completely in love with Emerson but although they've been together for a year Emerson still doesn't trust him. The full weight of their past mistakes drags Jonah and Emerson into memories of happier and lonelier times but wallowing in their guilt isn't solving the problems. The only way to move forward is to learn from the past but someone still has to be the first to apologize.

Say Yes to the Soccer Player Abby

Crofton, 2016-10-14 Settling into college is easy settling into a relationship is another story. Jenny Jeffries loves her first year of college: the late nights in the dorms, the parties and the freedom that comes with being away from home for the first time. The girls who flirt with her are nice too except she can't work up the courage to actually talk to any of them. Just standing next to an attractive female causes Jenny's brain to shut down which means that she's still single. When Beth Kirkland, the star forward for the university's women's soccer team, uses the same drive she has on the soccer field to get Jenny's attention, Jenny turns to her friends for help. She gets advice from her best friend who is in a committed relationship with Jenny's one-time worst enemy and another friend looking for the perfect guy among a sea of lesbians. She gets lots of advice, some better than others. Has Jenny finally found the relationship she's always been looking for? Or will forces outside of their control end their romance before it can even begin.

Our House is Not in Paris Susan Cutsforth, 2018-09-01

Susan Cutsforth and her husband Stuart are ordinary people living an extraordinary life. They both work full time: one is a teacher/librarian of thirty years and the other a middle level clerk in the public service. But as Susan recounts in Our House is Not in Paris, they own a holiday house in France, the other side of the world. And not only that, this petite maison required significant renovating which they accomplished almost singlehandedly during their working holidays. Our House is Not in Paris is a story of pushing boundaries, aiming high and most of all, taking risks. With humour, poetry and insight, Susan's story shows that you can do more than simply dream if you work hard; anything is possible.
