Woman Spirit A Menarche Myth:

Woman Spirit, 1980 The Curse Janice Delaney, Mary Jane Lupton, Emily Toth, 1988 In its hard headed richly documented concreteness it is worth a thousand polemics New York Times from a review of the first edition The Curse deserves a place in every women s studies library collection Sharon Golub editor of Lifting the curse of Menstruation A stimulating and useful book both for the scholarly and the general reader Paula A Treichler co author of A Feminist Dictionary

Guardians of the Flutes, Volume 1 Gilbert Herdt, 1994-12-15 This unique study of boy inseminating rituals among the Sambia of New Guinea challenges our deepest assumptions about the role of culture in understanding homosexuality and gender identity development Uncovering the Codes Kim Yol-kyu, 2005 Uncovering the Codes Fifteen Keywords in Korean Culture is a cultural guide to what is unique about Koreans and their way of life The questions raised in this book range from the mundane to the spiritual each touching on the essence of Korea s 5 000 year old culture Why is a Korean spoon flat and round not oval Why do Korean women pray to a bowl of water Why do Koreans eat dog meat Kim Yol kyu a renowned scholar of Korean folklore and literature carefully digs up the answers embedded deep in centuries old customs Quoting from a wide scope of references from ancient mythology to Merleau Ponty and Levi Strauss Kim unearths the fascinating connections between the past and the present Kim is Dignified Professor of Korean Studies at Keimyung University in Daegu Korea where he also directs the Academia Koreana Women as Unseen Characters Pascale Bonnemere, 2004-06-29 Rituals have always been a focus of ethnographies of Melanesia providing a ground for important theorizing in anthropology This is especially true of the male initiation rituals that until recently were held in Papua New Guinea For the most part these rituals have been understood as all male institutions intended to maintain and legitimate male domination Women s exclusion from the forest space where men conducted most such rites has been taken as a sign of their exclusion from the entire ritual process Women as Unseen Characters is the first book to examine the role of females in Papua New Guinea male rituals and the first systematic treatment of this issue for any part of the world In this volume leading Melanesian scholars build on recent ethnographies that show how female kin had roles in male rituals that had previously gone unseen Female seclusion and the enforcement of taboos were crucial elements of the ritual process forms of presence in their own right Contributors here provide detailed accounts of the different kinds of female presence in various Papua New Guinea male rituals When these are restored to the picture the rituals can no longer be interpreted merely as an institution for reproducing male domination but must also be understood as a moment when the whole system of relations binding a male person to his kin is reorganized By dealing with the participation of women a totally neglected dimension of male rituals is added to our understanding Encyclopedia of Women's Folklore and Folklife Pauline Greenhill, Liz Locke, Theresa A. Vaughan, 2008-12-08 From the stone age to the cyber age women and men have experienced the world differently Out of a cosmos of goddesses and she devils earth mothers and madonnas witches and queens saints and whores a vast body of women's folklore has come into bloom International in scope and drawing on more than 130 expert contributors this encyclopedia reviews the myths traditions and beliefs central to women's daily lives More than 260 alphabetically arranged entries cover the lore of women across time space and life Students of history religion and spirituality healing and traditional medicine literature and world cultures will value this encyclopedia as an indispensable guide to women's folklore In addition there are entries on women's folklore and folklife in 15 regions of the world such as the Caribbean Central Asia the Middle East and Western Europe Entries provide cross references and cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected bibliography of print and electronic resources Students learning about history world cultures religion and spirituality healing and traditional medicine and literature will welcome this companion to the daily life of women across time and continents New Blood Chris Bobel, 2010 Chris Bobel is a careful ethnographer respectful of research participants and while she clearly takes a stand on menstrual activism she handily defends her proposition that feminism is finding its balance between reliving its past and creating its future Bobel's work which includes incisive analysis of how third wave activists incorporate and update tactics and strategies of the second wave will be a welcome addition to the scholarship of feminism Elizabeth Kissling author of Capitalizing on the Curse The Business of Menstruation

Hunter-Gatherers of the Congo Basin Barry S. Hewlett, 2014-05-23 The forest foragers of the Congo Basin known collectively as Pygmies are the largest and most diverse group of active hunter gatherers remaining in the world At least fifteen different ethno linguistic groups exist in the Congo Basin with a total population of 250 000 to 350 000 individuals Extensive knowledge about these groups has accumulated in the last forty years but readers have been forced to piece together what is known from many sources French Japanese American and British researchers have conducted the majority of the research each national research group has its own academic traditions history and publications Here leading academic authorities from diverse national traditions summarize recent research on forest hunter gatherers The volume explores the diversity and uniformity of Congo Basin hunter gatherer life by providing detailed but accessible overviews of recent research It represents the first book in over twenty five years to provide a comprehensive and holistic overview of African forest hunter gatherers Chapters discuss the cultural variation in characteristic features of Congo Basin hunter gatherer life such as their yodeled polyphonic music pronounced egalitarianism multiple child caregiving and complex relations with neighboring farming groups Other contributors address theoretical issues such as why Pygmies are short how tropical forest hunter gatherers live without the carbohydrates they receive from neighboring farmers and how hunter gatherer children learn to share so extensively Fifty Synagogue Seminars Jeremy Hugh Baron, 2010-07-08 During the last twelve years Dr Baron has led fifty pre Sabbath service seminars at the Society for the Advancement of Judaism New York and or the New London Synagogue These didactic essays explore the Bible theology liturgy social responsibility and the arts from Who wrote the Bible to Mark Twain's Concerning the Jews Each chapter examines a problem that had perplexed Baron and for which he provides a detailed evidence based review together with sources He pursues each issue from hundreds or thousands of years ago to the present including both the Diaspora and Israel He looks at what countries bordering Palestine had discussed and practiced and scrutinizes the attitudes of other Abrahamic and Eastern religions and their differing denominations Finally he attempts to assess the relevance of each topic for the twenty first century History in Three Keys Paul A. Cohen,1997

Part Two explores the thought feelings and behavior of the direct participants in the Boxer experience individuals who without a preconceived idea of the entire event understood what was happening to them in a manner fundamentally different from historians
