War In Human Civilization:

War in Human Civilization Azar Gat,2008-03-26 Why do people go to war Is it rooted in human nature or is it a late cultural invention How does war relate to the other fundamental developments in the history of human civilization And what of war today is it a declining phenomenon or simply changing its shape In this truly global study of war and civilization Azar Gat sets out to find definitive answers to these questions in an attempt to unravel the riddle of war throughout human history from the early hunter gatherers right through to the unconventional terrorism of the twenty first century In the process the book generates an astonishing wealth of original and fascinating insights on all major aspects of humankind s remarkable journey through the ages engaging a wide range of disciplines from anthropology and evolutionary psychology to sociology and political science Written with remarkable verve and clarity and wholly free from jargon it will be of interest to anyone who has ever pondered the puzzle of war The Causes of War and the Spread of Peace Azar Gat,2017 The causes of war why people fight is one of the big questions of human existence Azar Gat s book ranging from the beginning of prehistory to the 21st century offers a definitive answer to the lingering mystery Humanity Barry Brown,2017-01-17 War and Civilization (1901) William Peterfield Trent,2009-08 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work Looking at Animals in Human History Linda Kalof,2007-08-15 From the first cave paintings to Britta Jaschinski s provocative animal photography it seems we have been describing and portraying animals in some form or another for as long as we have been human This book provides a broad historical overview of our representations of animals from prehistory to postmodernity and how those representations have altered with changing social conditions Taking in a wide range of visual and textual materials Linda Kalof unearths many surprising and revealing examples of our depictions of animals She also examines animals in a broad sweep of literature narrative and criticism from Pliny the Elder s Natural History to Donna Haraway s writings on animal human machine interaction and from accounts of the Black Plague and histories of the domestic animal and zoos to the ways that animal stereotypes have been applied to people to highlight hierarchies of gender race and class Well researched and scholarly yet very accessible this book is a significant contribution to the human animal story Featuring more than 60 images Looking at Animals in Human History brings together a wealth of information that will appeal to the wide audience interested in animals as well as to specialists in many disciplines Linda Kalof is professor of sociology at Michigan State University Her books include The Earthscan Reader in Environmental Values and The Animals Reader The Essential Classic and Contemporary Writings The Origin, Structure & Working of the League of Nations, by C. Howard-Ellis Charles Howard-Ellis,1928 Includes the text of the Covenant of the League of Nations The First Universe War Ankit
