Zo Zijn Onze Manieren Visies Op Multiculturaliteit In Nederland:

Zo zijn onze manieren. Visies op multiculturaliteit in Nederland Lammert de Jong, 2007 The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2015 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari'a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari'a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion Dynamics of Power in Dutch Integration Politics Justus Uitermark, 2025-10-01 Integration politics in the Netherlands has changed dramatically between 1990 and 2005 Whereas ethnic and religious differences were hitherto pacified through accommodation a new and increasingly powerful current in Dutch politics problematized the presence of minorities This development represents a challenge to sociologists and political scientists how to map and explain drastic changes Arguing that extant approaches are better at explaining continuity than change this book develops a relational discourse analysis to understand dynamic power relations in national as well as local politics Multi - Girl - Culture Linda Duits, 2008 In this highly readable book Linda Duits investigates girl culture in the Dutch multicultural society Her ethnographic account provides a thick description of life at school still the most prominent setting for today's youth She followed young girls of diverse ethnic backgrounds in their transition from primary to secondary school focusing on the ways they use the body clothing and media in their performance of identity Countering several media hypes including the internet generation the headscarf debate and the sexualisation of society Duits shows how contemporary girl culture is a mundane culture that is reflexively negotiated in an everyday setting

Blackness in Western Europe Dienne Hondius, 2017-09-29 While the study of race relations in the United States continues to inspire and influence European thinking Europeans have yet to confront their own history To be black in Europe

whether during the sixteenth century or today means sharing one crucial experience being part of a small but visible minority European slave owners company directors and investors in the distant past maintained an ocean wide gap between themselves and the enslaved in the plantation colonies of the Caribbean In the following centuries this distance persisted Even today to be black in Europe often means to be one of a few black persons in a group A racial pattern of exclusion has characterized European policy for more than four centuries Dienne Hondius identifies ideas and attitudes toward blackness the concept of race as visible difference developed in western Europe She argues that racial discourses are generally dominated by paternalism a concept usually used to explain power structures that is often applied to the nineteenth century Hondius identifies five patterns of paternalism that influenced Europe much earlier and initiated trends of imagery and perception Taking a chronological and thematic approach Hondius first focuses on southern European societies in the Early Modern period and moves to northwest European societies in the Modern period Addressing religion law and science she concludes with a synthesis of developments from the twentieth century to the present

The Perils of Belonging Peter Geschiere, 2009-08-01 Despite being told that we now live in a cosmopolitan world more and more people have begun to assert their identities in ways that are deeply rooted in the local These claims of autochthony meaning born from the soil seek to establish an irrefutable primordial right to belong and are often employed in politically charged attempts to exclude outsiders In The Perils of Belonging Peter Geschiere traces the concept of autochthony back to the classical period and incisively explores the idea in two very different contexts Cameroon and the Netherlands In both countries the momentous economic and political changes following the end of the cold war fostered anxiety over migration For Cameroonians the question of who belongs where rises to the fore in political struggles between different tribes while the Dutch invoke autochthony in fierce debates over the integration of immigrants This fascinating comparative perspective allows Geschiere to examine the emotional appeal of autochthony as well as its dubious historical basis and to shed light on a range of important issues such as multiculturalism national citizenship and migration

Black Man in the Netherlands Francio Guadeloupe, 2022-01-04 Francio Guadeloupe has lived in both the Dutch Antilles and the Netherlands An anthropologist by vocation he is a keen observer by honed habit In his new book he wields both personal and anthropological observations Simultaneously memoir and astute exploration Black Man in the Netherlands charts Guadeloupe's coming of age and adulthood in a Dutch world and movingly makes a global contribution to the understanding of anti Black racism Guadeloupe identifies the intersections among urban popular culture racism and multiculturalism in youth culture in the Netherlands and the wider Dutch Kingdom He probes the degrees to which traditional ethnic division collapses before a rising Dutch polyethnicity What comes to light given the ethnic multiplicity that Afro Antilleans live is their extraordinarily successful work in forging an anti racist Dutch identity via urban popular culture This alternative way of being Dutch welcomes the Black experience as global and increasingly local Black artists find fame and even idolization Black Man in the Netherlands is a vivid extension of renowned critical race studies by such Marxist theorists as Achille Mbembe Paul Gilroy Stuart Hall and C L R James and it bears a palpable connection to such Black Atlantic artists as Peter Tosh Juan Luis Guerra and KRS One Guadeloupe explores the complexities of Black life in the Netherlands and shows that within their means Afro Antilleans often effectively contest Dutch racism in civic and work life
