Zimbabwe Catholic Liturgical Guide Of 2014:

Politics and Religion in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2020-04-03 This book illustrates how religion and ideology were used by Robert Mugabe to ward off opposition within his own party in Zimbabwe and from the West An interdisciplinary line up of contributors argue that Mugabe used a calculated narrative of deification presenting himself as a divine figure who had the task of delivering land freedom and confidence to black people across the world to remain in power in Zimbabwe The chapters highlight the appropriation and deployment of religious themes in Mugabe s domestic and international politics reflect on the contestation around the deification of Mugabe in Zimbabwean politics across different forms of religious expression including African Traditional Religions and various strands of Christianity and initiate further reflections on the interface between religion and politics in Africa and globally Politics and Religion in Zimbabwe will be of interest to scholars of religion and politics Southern Africa and African politics Inventing the New Dispensation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram Tarusarira, 2024-11-14

How does a regime whose members have been actively involved in the previous one appropriate and deploy religious ideas and rhetoric to cast itself as born again and attractive Exploring intersections between politics religion and economics this book examines invention of Zimbabwe s New Dispensation the regime of Emmerson D Mnangagwa and how it has aimed to separate itself from the previous regime of Robert G Mugabe Utilizing the concept of invention contributors reflect on how Mnangagwa and his publicists deploy religious ideas concepts and rhetoric in the quest for legitimacy in a heavily contested political field The book also reflects on the ways opposing political actors have utilized the same template in their quests to secure power The contributors interrogate the use of time theological ideas and religious practices to separate Mnangagwa s regime from Mugabe s This book provides insight into how religious rhetoric is used not only to gain but also to contest legitimacy in Zimbabwe s political sphere Directory of Publishing 2014, 2013-10-24 Now in its 37th edition and compiled in association with the Publishers Association this is the most authoritative detailed trade directory available for the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland listing over 900 book publishers Comprehensive entries include where available full contact details including addresses and websites details of distribution and sales and marketing agents key personnel listing of main fields of activity information on annual turnover numbers of new titles and numbers of employees ISBN prefixes including those for imprints and series details of trade association membership information on overseas representation details of associated and parent companies In addition to the detailed entries on publishers the Directory offers in depth coverage of the wider UK book trade and lists organizations associated with the book trade packagers authors agents trade and allied associations and services The directory is also available to purchase as an online resource for more information and a free preview please visit www.continuumbooks.com directoryofpublishing Religion-Regime Relations in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram

Tarusarira, 2023-08-01 This book explores religion regime relations in contemporary Zimbabwe to identify patterns of co operation and resistance across diverse religious institutions Using co operation and resistance as an analytical framework the book shows how different religious organisations have interacted with Emmerson Mnangagwa s Second Republic following Robert Mugabe s departure from the political scene In particular through case studies on the Zimbabwe Council of Churches Zimbabwe Catholic Bishops Conference and Pentecostals African Traditional Religions Islam and others the book explores how different religious institutions have responded to Mnangagwa s new regime Chapters highlight the complexities characterising the religion regime interface showing how the same religious organisation might co operate and resist at the same time Furthermore the book compares how religious institutions co operated or resisted Mugabe s earlier regime to identify patterns of continuity and change Overall the book highlights the challenges of deploying simplistic frames in efforts to understand the interface between politics and religion A significant contribution to global scholarship on religion regime interfaces this book will appeal to academics and students in the field of Religious Studies Political Science History and African Studies

Scattered and Gathered Michael L. Budde, 2017-09-15 This volume takes its title from the first century Christian catechism called the Didache Even as this broken bread was scattered over the hills gathered together and became one so let Your Church be gathered together from the ends of the earth For Christians today these words remain relevant in an era of massive human movements voluntary and coerced hybrid identities and wide ranging cultural interactions How do modern Christians live as both a scattered and gathered people How do they live out the tension between ecclesial universality catholicity and particularity distinctive ways of being church in a given culture and context Do Christians today constitute a diaspora a people dispersed across borders and cultures that nonetheless maintains a sense of commonality and mission Scattered and Gathered Catholics in Diaspora explores these questions through the work of fourteen scholars in different fields and from different corners of the world Whether through reflections on Zimbabweans in Britain Levantines in North America or the remote island people of Chiloe now living in other parts of Chile they guide readers along the winding road of insights and challenges facing many of today s Christians

Shona Women in Zimbabwe--A Purchased People? John Chitakure, 2016-09-29 The position and treatment of women in every religion culture and society have been subjects of concern for a long time In every society women fight for their emancipation from exploitive and oppressive patriarchal structures The most contentious issues include domestic violence gender discrimination and inequality in the areas of employment leadership and marriage Domestic violence tops the list and is the worst enemy of any progressive and democratic society It dehumanizes disfigures and demeans its victims and survivors Shona Women in Zimbabwe a Purchased People explores the causes of domestic violence the cultural practice of bridewealth in particular and assesses the extent to which it contributes to the proliferation of domestic violence among the Shona people of Zimbabwe It then explores the Christian traditions particularly the Roman Catholic Church in search of resources that can be used to emancipate Shona women from patriarchal subjugation Finally the book offers a pastoral response that is informed by the experiences of the
