European modernity but were also wedded to tradition while Jewish men recklessly abandoned tradition and forced their wives to do the same The result was not only marital and intergenerational conflict but also catastrophic cultural loss with women's inability to transmit tradition in the home leading to larger cultural drift Two of Wengeroff's children converted when faced with anti Jewish educational and professional discrimination unwilling to sacrifice secular ambitions and visions for the sake of a traditional culture they did not know Memoirs is a tale of loss but also of significant hope which Wengeroff situates not in her children but in a new generation of Jewish youth reclaiming Jewish memory To them she addresses her Memoirs giving an orphaned youth orphaned of their past and culture a grandmother
