Theory of Sacrifice Ivan Strenski, 2003-11-01 Are social scientific theories and confessional theologies of sacrifice equally well suited as public discourse about religion The French liberal Protestant theologians of the 5th Section of the cole Pratique and the French doyen of sociology mile Durkheim and his two main followers Henri Hubert and Marcel Mauss engage in a struggle over the proper approach to sacrifice in the public university The Durkheimians argued that theological language and assumptions were inappropriate for this purpose because of their confessional allegiances Another approach to sacrifice free of confessional entanglements was required This is what Hubert and Mauss sought to provide in the Sacrifice Its Nature and Function T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation, 2024-03-07 The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation Science,

Religion, and the Protestant Tradition James C. Ungureanu, 2019-10-03 The story of the conflict thesis between science and religion the notion of perennial conflict or warfare between the two is part of our modern self understanding As the story goes John William Draper 1811 1882 and Andrew Dickson White 1832 1918 constructed dramatic narratives in the nineteenth century that cast religion as the relentless enemy of scientific progress And yet despite its resilience in popular culture historians today have largely debunked the conflict thesis Unravelling its origins James Ungureanu argues that Draper and White actually hoped their narratives would preserve religious belief For them science was ultimately a scapegoat for a much larger and more important argument dating back to the Protestant Reformation where one theological tradition was pitted against another a more progressive liberal and diffusive Christianity against a more traditional conservative and orthodox Christianity By the mid nineteenth century narratives of conflict between science and religion were largely deployed between contending theological schools of thought However these narratives were later appropriated by secularists freethinkers and atheists as weapons against all religion By revisiting its origins development and popularization Ungureanu ultimately reveals that the conflict thesis was just one of the many unintended consequences of the Protestant Reformation Disciplinary at the Fin de Siècle Amanda Anderson, Joseph Valente, 2021-03-09
