nursing social work and counselling psychology Music, Music Therapy and Refugees Sami Alanne, 2025-09-07 This book is the first of its kind dealing with music therapy and traumas for music therapists psychotherapists and other mental health workers working with refugees asylum seekers and their families It follows the music therapy literature by studying music and traumas from the psychodynamic principles and can be used for the educational purposes of treating especially from different cultural backgrounds In addition to the clinical and educational purposes this book can also be used as a reference book for researchers of music therapy and its methods for refugees This book is contributing to the most recent psychological social and philosophical discussions and aspects of liberating musical practices from oppression and discrimination Cultural attuning and dialoguing are proposed as the methods for building ethically sound practices with clients from different social and normative backgrounds Turning the Tide Rael Meyerowitz, David Bell, 2020-10-28 Since it was founded in 1920 the Tavistock Clinic has developed a wide range of developmental approaches to mental health which have been strongly influenced by the ideas of psychoanalysis It has also adopted systemic family therapy as a theoretical model and a clinical approach to family problems The Clinic is now the largest training institution in Britain for mental health providing postgraduate and qualifying courses in social work psychology psychiatry and child adolescent and adult psychotherapy as well as in nursing and primary care It trains about 1 700 students each year in over 60 courses This important volume traces an impressive range of descriptions all clinically based of the work of the remarkable Fitzjohn's Unit which has about 60 patients under its care at any one time The book also evokes a clear sense of collective commitment one that has lasted over seventeen years since its beginnings as an experimental project that was set up by David Taylor in 2000

Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Hysteria Peter Halligan, Christopher Bass, John C. Marshall, 2001 Patients with striking symptoms which have no discernible physical cause are typically labelled as suffering from hysterical conversion This book covers aspects neglected by previous works on this controversial condition moving away from traditional historico sociological accounts towards neuroscientific theories about the causes and categorization of hysteria Importantly it also covers medico legal aspects prognosis treatment and rehabilitation Sexuality and Gender Now Leezah Hertzmann, Juliet Newbigin, 2019-08-08 Sexuality and Gender Now uses a psychoanalytic approach to arrive at a more informed view of the experience and relationships of those whose sexuality and gender may not align with the heterosexual norm This book confronts the heteronormative bias dominant in psychoanalysis using a combination of theoretical and clinical material offering an important training tool as well as being relevant for practicing clinicians The contributors address the shift clinicians must make not only to support their patients in a more informed and non prejudicial way but also to recognise their own need for support in developing their clinical thinking They challenge assumptions deconstruct theoretical ideas extend psychoanalytic concepts and importantly show how clinicians can attend to their pre conscious assumptions They also explore the issue of erotic transference and countertransference which if unaddressed can limit the possibilities for supporting patients more fully to explore their sexuality and gender Theories of psychosexuality have tended to become split off from the main field of psychoanalytic thought and practice or read from an assumed moral high ground of heteronormativity The book specifically addresses this bias and introduces new ways of using psychoanalytic ideas The contributors advocate a wider and more flexible attitude to sexuality in general which can illuminate an understanding of all sexualities including heterosexuality Sexuality and Gender Now will be essential reading for professionals and students of psychoanalysis who want to broaden their understanding of sexuality and gender in their clinical practice beyond heteronormative assumptions

New Discoveries in Child Psychotherapy Margaret Rustin, Michael Rustin, 2019-05-28 New Discoveries in Child Psychotherapy presents eleven new contributions to child psychoanalytic research most of them based on the experience of the clinical consulting room Each chapter is the work of an experienced child psychotherapist or child analyst vivid in their description of the children and families they encountered Their understanding of the inner worlds of patients and the clinical consulting room is clearly evidenced in their analysis of clinical presentations The chapters are the result of the psychoanalytic clinical and observational practices of their authors allied to their use of rigorous qualitative research methods in particular Grounded Theory and interpretative phenomenological analysis IPA They describe developments of child psychoanalytic knowledge in several fields including autism psychotherapy with severely deprived children and the study of early infancy They demonstrate advances in child psychoanalytic theories and methods and the development of new forms of clinical service provision Contested issues in psychoanalytic research are thoroughly evaluated showing how it can be made more accountable and rigorous through the adaptation of established qualitative research methods to the study of unconscious mental phenomena New Discoveries in Child Psychotherapy will be an essential text in the field of child psychoanalysis and will be highly useful in psychotherapy and psychoanalysis training courses and for psychoanalytic researchers as well as for practitioners Paragraph, 2007

Complex Trauma Joanne Stubbley, Linda Young, 2021-12-21 The new diagnosis of Complex Post Traumatic Stress Disorder presents diagnostic and treatment challenges that need to be grappled with since in a troubled world it is increasingly important to understand the impact and aftermath of traumatic experiences and crucially how to work with those affected by them In Complex Trauma Joanne Stubbley and Linda Young have assembled a fascinating range of approaches in order to explore the questions of understanding and intervention They detail the relevance of an applied psychoanalytic approach both in the Tavistock Trauma Service and more broadly in illuminating understanding of traumatized individuals The book includes chapters related to the impact of trauma on the body as well as on the mind incorporating neurobiological and attachment theory to develop ideas on the impact and aftermath of complex trauma A number of specialist areas of trauma work are covered within this volume including work with adolescents with refugees and asylum seekers with military veterans and with survivors of child sexual abuse The editors bring together chapters that will be of interest to those working with traumatized individuals in a variety of settings and using different modalities The central importance of relationships as understood within the psychoanalytic model is depicted throughout as being at the heart of understanding and working with traumatic experience Other People's Pain Martin Modlinger,2011 This series promotes inquiry into the relationship between literary texts and their cultural and intellectual contexts in theoretical interpretative and historical perspectives It has developed out of a research initiative of the German Department at Cambridge University but its focus of interest is on the European tradition broadly perceived Its purpose is to encourage comparative and interdisciplinary research into the connections between cultural history and the literary imagination generally Echoes of Suicide Siobhan Foster-Ryan,Luke Monahan,2001 A three hundred page resource of personal stories interviews articles essays and reflections relating to suicide Bibliographic Guide to Psychology New York Public Library.
