Women and Narrative Identity Mary Jean Matthews Green,2001 A feminist re reading of the Quebec literary tradition from Laure Conan and Gabrielle Roy to contemporary figures such as France Th oret and R gine Robin A Season in the Life of Emmanuel Marie-Claire Blais,1980 In her third and most powerful novel Marie Claire Blais explores with sober compassion and realistic detail a season in the life of Emmanuel the sixteenth child of a poverty stricken farmer s family in rural Quebec First published in 1965 A Season in the Life of Emmanuel established Blais s international reputation when it won the Prix France Quebec and the Prix Medicis of France The novel has been translated into 13 languages "Une saison dans la vie d'Emmanuel" Lauren Ayotte,1996 The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin Heidenreich,1989-10-31 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan s hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy s social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel s narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions Marie-Claire Blais Irene Oore,Oriel MacLennan,1998-03 The most comprehensive reference guide to one of Canada s most distinguished writers A three time Governor General s Award winner Marie Claire Blais has changed the literary landscape of the nation An indispensable source for information on both Blais s works and on the wealth of criticism devoted to the writer this bibliography also provides accurate and insightful details about manuscript and archival material Oore and MacLennan have fully annotated all of the critical material concerned with Blais s writing and their book also includes thorough coverage of Blais related radio and television broadcasts in France and Canada as well as a guide to all published interviews with this important writer An essential text to Blais scholars and of great interest to students and researchers in both Canadian and Qu bec literature and in women s studies and comparative literature Le Québec, connais-tu? Canada : Images D'une Société Post/nationale Nordic Association for Canadian Studies. International Conference, 2009 Has Canada moved beyond the nation state into the world of the post national To what extent have fixed notions of Canadian nationhood been replaced by a more global decentralized sense of identification Is nationhood or post nationhood best expressed by statelessness and exile or by belonging Or can Canadian national identity in fact fruitfully coexist with the post national consciousness These are some of the issues covered by this volume issues seen from a range of perspectives literary cultural political and economic In the literary sphere the national post national debate is explored both through canonical writers such as L. M. Montgomery Stephen Leacock and Marie Claire Blais and through recent First Nations Asian Canadian African Canadian Ukrainian Canadian and Quebec writing The political and economic range is equally diverse covering such topics as immigration policy multiculturalism Canadian American relations tourist imaginings of the Canadian North the Canadian city and Quebec nationalism The book brings together 27 original articles from international scholars and creative writers offering both European and Canadian perspectives Six articles in French focus specifically on the francophone sphere Do the Americas Have a Common Literary History? Barbara Buchenau, Annette Paatz, 2002 This book is based on the assumption that the problem of American literatures written in European languages is not the burden of Europe but the fact that they are second or further literatures written in the same language as older ones that happen to be located in Europe The papers collected here address the following questions Is it possible for two or more distinct literatures to coexist in the same language If the distinction is more than merely ideological and convenient what are the differences and how did they come about Is it reasonable to assume that differentiation followed similar patterns in the various literatures The volume combines textual and theoretical studies of programmatic writings literary works and literary histories in English French and Spanish
