The Times Do Not Permit Christine Lucia, 2024-10 This biography of Michael Mosoeu Moerane 1904-1980 surveys the unique life times and music of the first classically educated African composer in southern Africa Daniel – a South African Chronicle Daniel van der Merwe, 2015-02-17 Despite being written mainly in the third person this book enables the perceptive reader to study a dramatic part of South Africa's history through the experiences of the main protagonist Because of his legal background Daniel is able to see how an initially fair legal system is corrupted in order to serve the increasingly desperate needs of the White minority This is a mere backdrop however to a love story that grows closer to tragedy as time passes because the heroine is an alcoholic The arrival of the computer alters the career of the hero dramatically and sends him on some overseas adventures to learn more about the legal implications of the new machine As a leader of a missionary team to Malawi Daniel also gets to grips with people with a totally different background and a differing worldview The book is sensitive to background and atmosphere and the hero encapsulates some of this in a few poems that form part of the main text Jealousy that green eyed monster also rears its head occasionally and further complicates relationships South African Education Policy Review, 1993-2000 Linda Chisholm, Shireen Motala, Salim Vally, 2003 The South African Education Policy Review is an invaluable historical archive It is a source book on policies conflicts developments and perspectives on education policy in the period 1993 to 2000 Drawing from a selection of articles from the successful Quarterly Reviews of Education and Training produced by the Education Policy Unit of the University of Witwatersrand this book provides readers with detailed accounts of educational changes in South Africa over the past decade It reflects upon significant events trends and debates and provides insightful analysis of this extremely momentous period of South Africa's history Education and climate change Samantha Govender, Mncedisi C Maphalala, Dumisani W. Mncube, 2025-06-15 The book highlights the critical yet often overlooked role of education in combating climate change It advocates for a transformative educational framework that integrates social emotional learning and interdisciplinary collaboration Traditional education which focuses solely on factual knowledge is deemed insufficient Instead education should foster empathy provide hands on experiences and encourage active engagement in climate solutions The book outlines various ways education can drive climate action such as raising awareness preparing individuals for green jobs empowering communities and fostering innovation in higher education It highlights the interconnectedness of climate change and education particularly for marginalised populations showing how quality education can enhance both mitigation and adaptation strategies while supporting Sustainable Development Goal SDG 4 and SDG 13 Key chapters discuss successful initiatives such as the Keep it Cool Climate Change Education KIC CCE project in South Africa and offer strategies for integrating climate change education into subjects like Natural Sciences and Geography Ultimately the book positions education as a strategic tool for promoting sustainable development and building climate resilience New research findings presented in the book connect education to climate change highlighting education as both a tool to address climate issues and a domain affected by these issues The book integrates empirical evidence innovative theories and practical examples to ensure intellectual integrity and academic rigour It introduces a unique framework that emphasises social emotional learning action oriented teaching and interdisciplinary collaboration Case studies such as the KIC CCE initiative in South Africa illustrate these concepts The book critiques traditional models and advocates for transformative approaches to climate education aligning with SDG 4 Quality Education and SDG 13 Climate Action It also highlights the significance of teacher preparedness community empowerment gender equality and innovation providing valuable insights for scholars policymakers and practitioners addressing the climate crisis
