Privilege and Anxiety Hagen Koo,2022-07-15 In Privilege and Anxiety Hagen Koo examines what has happened to the Korean middle class in the era of neoliberal globalization and demonstrates that global economic change brought more profound changes than mere economic decline and shrinking size to this class Globalization has inserted an axis of polarization into the middle class separating a small minority that benefits from the globalized economy from the large majority that suffers from it This internal differentiation generates a challenging dynamic within Korean society as the newly affluent seek to distinguish themselves from the rest of the middle class to establish a new privileged class position Privilege and Anxiety explores how these tensions play out in three areas consumption and lifestyle residential differentiation and education In all three areas the dominant orientation of the affluent middle class is to preserve their newfound privilege and to pass it onto their children Their new class practices Koo argues bring great anxiety to both the winners and losers of neoliberal globalization Sutton Hoo M. O. H. Carver,1998 Examines what the Sutton Hoo ship burial site reveals about early England describes the site s treasures and mysteries and recounts the events surrounding its discovery Teaching History Hilary Bourdillon,2013-10-31 Against a background of controversy surrounding the teaching of history this reader gathers the current thoughts of the leading practitioners The development of school history up to the national curriculum and beyond is traced and the main issues concerning history teachers today are examined These issues include access to history the definition of British history in a multicultural society gender and the place of history with the humanities Progression and attainment are discussed as is the development of pupil s historical understanding and practical approaches to teaching history to 11 18 level pupils are explored Green Infrastructure for Sustainable Urban Development in Africa John Abbott,2013-07-03 This book shows for the first time how green infrastructure can work in an African urban context On one level it provides a major rethinking of the role of infrastructure in urban society since the creation of networked infrastructure in the early twentieth century On another it explores the changing paradigms of urban development through the fundamental question of how decisions are made With a focus on Africa s fast growing secondary towns where 70 per cent of the urban population live the book explains how urban infrastructure provides the key to the relationship between economic development and social equity through the mediation of natural resources Adopting this view enables investment to be channelled more effectively to provide the engine for economic growth while providing equitable services for all residents At the same time the mediation of resource flows integrates the metabolism of the city into the wider ecosystem This vision leads to a new way of thinking about infrastructure giving clear definition to the concept of green infrastructure On the basis of research gathered throughout an extensive career John Abbott draws in particular from his experience in Ethiopia to demonstrate the ways in which infrastructure needs to respond to the economies societies and natural environments of twenty first century urban Africa Catalogue Bernard Quaritch (Firm),1903 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 1, 600-1660 George Watson,Ian Roy Willison,1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Research in Education ,1974
