Political Disaffection Among British University Students Jack Citrin, David J. Elkins, 1975 Generation on a Tightrope Arthur Levine, Diane R. Dean, 2012-07-19 Today's college students feel as if they are crossing an abyss between their dreams and the reality of an uncertain future They are a generation seeking stability in a time of profound and accelerating change They want government and our other social institutions to work in a time when they're broken they cling to the American Dream in an age of diminished expectations They are walking a tightrope attempting to balance digital connectedness and personal isolation global citizenship and local vision commonality and difference in the most diverse generation in American history and a desire to be treated as mature adults while being more dependent on their parents than previous college students Generation on a Tightrope offers a compelling portrait of today's undergraduate college students that sheds light on their attributes expectations aspirations academics attitudes values beliefs social lives and politics Based on research of 5 000 college students and student affairs practitioners from 270 diverse college campuses the book explores
