Du Bois, 2021-06-08 The Comet 1920 is a science fiction story by W. E. B. Du Bois. Written while the author was using his role at The Crisis, the official magazine of the NAACP, to publish emerging black artists of the Harlem Renaissance, The Comet is a pioneering work of speculative fiction which imagines a catastrophic event not only decimating New York City but bringing an abrupt end to white supremacy. How silent the street was. Not a soul was stirring, and yet it was high noon, Wall Street, Broadway. He glanced almost wildly up and down, then across the street, and as he looked, a sickening horror froze in his limbs. Sent to the vault to retrieve some old records, bank messenger Jim Davis emerges to find a city descended into chaos. A comet has passed overhead, spewing toxic fumes into the atmosphere. All of lower Manhattan seems frozen in time. It takes him a few moments to see the bodies piled into doorways and strewn about the eerily quiet streets. When he comes to his senses, he finds a wealthy woman asking for help. Soon it becomes clear that they could very well be the last living people in the planet; that the fate of civilization depends on their ability to come together, not as black and white, but as two human beings. But how far will this acknowledgment take them? With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript, this edition of W. E. B. Du Bois' The Comet is a classic work of African American literature reimagined for modern readers W. E. B. Du Bois: Selections from His Writings W. E. B. This pioneering work was the first full-length study of the role black Americans played in the crucial period after the Civil War when the slaves had been freed and the attempt was made to reconstruct American society. Hailed at the time, Black Reconstruction in America 1860-1880 has justly been called a classic The Negro W. E. B. Du Bois, 2007-10-01 This is the classic history of the African peoples in Africa and the New World, a repudiation of the absurd belief widely held in the post-Civil War period that Africans had no civilization but the one foisted upon them by their slavetrading captors. Writing for a popular audience in 1915, Du Bois tersely worded letter to former President Rutherford B Hayes when it appeared that Du Bois might have initially been denied a fellowship The third section includes writings where Du Bois assumed a more combative posture but in doing so displayed the fire and passion that made him a most influential although ignored educational thinker These writings demonstrate that Du Bois was not an incidental thinker about education he was a cornerstone contributor
