The World Is On Fire Scrap Treasure And Songs Of Apocalypse:

The World Is on Fire Joni Tevis, 2015-05-19 This magnificently compelling essay collection explores obsession anxiety and Existential dread from the Book of Revelation to the Liberace Museum Minneapolis Star Tribune The sermons of Joni Tevis youth filled her with dread a sense that an even worse story one you hadn't read yet could likewise come true In this revelatory collection she reckons with her childhood fears by exploring the uniquely American fascination with apocalypse From a haunted widow's wildly expanding mansion to atomic test sites in the Nevada desert her settings are often places of destruction and loss And yet Tevis transforms these eerie destinations into sites of creation as well uncovering powerful points of connection Whether she's relating her experience of motherhood or describing the timbre of Freddy Mercury's voice in Somebody to Love she relies on the same reverence for detail and sense of awe And by anchoring her attention to the raw materials of our world nails and beams dirt and stone bones and blood she discovers grandeur in the seemingly mundane Winner of the 2016 Firecracker Award for Creative Nonfiction Finalist for the 2016 Pat Conroy Southern Book Prize

Wild Spectacle Janisse Ray, 2021-10-26 Looking for adventure and continuing a process of self discovery Janisse Ray has repeatedly set out to immerse herself in wildness to be wild and to learn what wildness can teach us From overwintering with monarch butterflies in Mexico to counting birds in Belize the stories in Wild Spectacle capture her luckiest moments ones of heart pounding amazement discovery of romance and moving toward living more wisely In Ray's worst moments she crosses boundaries to encounter danger and embrace sadness Anchored firmly in two places Ray has called home Montana and southern Georgia the sixteen essays here span a landscape from Alaska to Central America connecting common elements in the ecosystems of people and place One of her abiding griefs is that she has missed the sights of explorers like Bartram Sacagawea and Carver flocks of passenger pigeons routes of wolves herds of bison She craves a wilder world and documents encounters that are rare in a time of disappearing habitat declining biodiversity and a world too slowly coming to terms with climate change In an age of increasingly virtual urban life Ray embraces the intentionality of trying to be a better person balanced with seeking out natural spectacle abundance and less trammelled environments She questions what it means to travel into the wild as a woman speculates on the impacts of ecotourism and travel in general questions assumptions about eating from the land and appeals to future generations to make substantive change Wild Spectacle explores our first home the wild earth and invites us to question its known and unknown beauties and curiosities
