Theories in Intercultural Communication Young Yun Kim, William B Gudykunst, 1988-10 Published in cooperation with the Speech Communication Association Division on International and Intercultural Communication Just as the earlier version of this work Intercultural Communication Theory helped to define the field Theories In Intercultural Communication also makes an important contribution This collection represents the major current approaches to the study of intercultural communication as well as of communication in general The contributors cover constructivist theory coordinated management theory convergence theory adaptation in intercultural relationships intercultural transformation and network theory The volume offers an analysis of the most current theories in intercultural communication It also points to areas of further research and the need for continued refinements of existing approaches This volume is valuable for graduate students and professionals in the areas of communication especially intercultural and interpersonal ethnic studies cross cultural studies comparative studies and education The book is well conceived in its purpose scope and organization It is also well executed with an even quality throughout Each chapter author clearly presents the theory and provides thorough documentation This volume promises to become a central piece in both the definition and development of theory in intercultural communication Modern Language Journal This volume does represent a significant attempt to consolidate and crystallize the current intellectual core concepts of mainstream intercultural communications theories and to push the field forward toward a more rigorous and coherent state As a collection these essays cover a lot of the bumpy terrain that constitutes the field of intercultural communication from an interpersonal perspective Very useful in the context of a university course on intercultural communications Canadian Journal of Communication Intercultural Communication Theory William B. Gudykunst, 1983-04 The seventh volume of the distinguished series International and Intercultural Communication Annuals is published for the first time by SAGE It is also the first volume to be presented in a new format theme oriented volumes that examine key issues in intercultural communication Twenty four leaders in the field contribute original essays that review the progress made toward developing theories of intercultural communication Theories based on traditional communication perspectives new theories that are unique to this new emerging discipline and contributions from such areas as philosophy social psychology and linguistics are described If one were to offer a seminar designed to take stock of theory in intercultural co

Intercultural Communication Competence Richard L. Wiseman, Jolene Koester, 1993-02-01 Bringing together current research theories and methods from leading scholars in the field this volume is a state of the art study of intercultural communication competence and effectiveness In the first part contributors analyze the conceptual decisions made in intercultural communication competence research by examining decisions regarding conceptualization operationalization research design and sampling The second part presents four different theoretical orientations while illustrating how each person s theoretical bias directs the focus of research Lastly both quantitative and qualitative research approaches used in studying intercultural communication competence are examined Resituating Culture Gavan Titley, Council of Europe. Directorate of Youth and Sport, 2004-01-01 Becoming Interculturally Competent Through Education and Training Anwei Feng, Michael Byram, 2009 This book demonstrates the complementarity of educational and training approaches to developing intercultural competence as represented by those who work in commercial training and those who work in further and higher education It does so by presenting chapters of analysis and chapters describing courses in the two sectors The Global Intercultural Communication Reader Molefi Kete Asante, Yoshitaka Miike, Jing Yin, 2013-06-26 The Global Intercultural Communication Reader is the first anthology to take a distinctly non Eurocentric approach to the study of culture and communication In this expanded second edition editors Molefi Kete Asante Yoshitaka Miike and Jing Yin bring together thirty two essential readings for students of cross cultural intercultural and international communication This stand out collection aims to broaden and deepen the scope of the field by placing an emphasis on diversity including work from authors across the globe examining the processes and politics of intercultural communication from critical historical and indigenous perspectives The collection covers a wide range of topics the emergence and evolution of the field issues and challenges in cross cultural and intercultural inquiry cultural wisdom and communication practices in context identity and intercultural competence in a multicultural society the effects of globalization and ethical considerations Many readings first appeared outside the mainstream Western academy and offer diverse theoretical lenses on culture and communication practices in the world community Organized into five themed sections for easy classroom use The Global Intercultural Communication Reader includes a detailed bibliography that will be a crucial resource for today's students of intercultural communication Resources in Education, 1994 Managerial Competence within the Hospitality and Tourism Service Industries John Saeed, 2006-09-27 This book examines cross cultural managerial competence across all managerial functions Focusing particularly on the hospitality and tourism industry editor Saeed examines the cross cultural implications of planning workplace communication recruitment promotion induction training supervision industrial relations management of change customer service financial management and marketing Incorporating well structured discussion this book demonstrates an excellent balance of theory and practical application and takes an innovative angle on the analysis of the host countries managers undergoing culture shock This volume will be useful to students across many disciplines including cross cultural studies international business and tourism Managerial Competence Within the Hospitality and Tourism Service Industries John Saeed, 2006-09-27 Focusing particularly on the hospitality and tourism industry this book examines the topical issue of cross cultural managerial competence across all managerial functions the book balances theory and practical application Effective Group Discussion John K. Brilhart, Gloria J. Galanes, 1992 Refining Intercultural Perspective-taking Barbara Jean Kappler, 1998 Understanding Communication Theory John F. Cragan, Donald C. Shields, 1998 Anyone who wishes to pursue a career in communication with groups needs this comprehensive book on the theories behind communication This volume provides practical engaging overviews of over 42 different theories that readers will need to be aware of if they are pursuing this serious field The authors established writers and scholars who are known as the park rangers of communication theory have provided a user friendly tour Accurate up to date and comprehensive this volume will prove a valuable addition to the literature on the subject Those involved in communication careers Effective Group Discussion Gloria J. Galanes, John K.
