Tribuut Aan China Vier Eeuwen Nederlands Chinese Betrekkingen:

Tribuut aan China Leonard Blussé, 1989 Chinese Studies in the Netherlands, 2013-12-09 The Netherlands have a long and proud history in Chinese studies This volume collects not only articles that trace the historical development of Chinese studies in the Netherlands from the middle of the nineteenth century to the present and beyond but also studies that deal with Dutch research in specific disciplines within Chinese studies Chinese studies in the Netherlands originated from the needs of the Dutch colonial administration in the Dutch East Indies but developed a strong philological emphasis in the first part of the twentieth century to turn increasingly towards disciplinary research on modern and contemporary China in the last few decades Contributors include Leonard Blussé Maghiel van Crevel Barend ter Haar Albert Hoffstede Wilt Idema Mark Leenhouts Oliver Moore Frank Pieke and Rint Sybesma The Dutch East India Company's Tea Trade with China Yong Liu, 2007 This case study of the tea trade of the Dutch East India Company with China deals with the most profitable phase of the Dutch Company's China trade focusing on the question why and how the tea trade was taken out of the hands of the High Government in Batavia and put under the supervision of the newly established China Committee in 1757 Various factors which contributed to the phenomenal rise of this trade and its sudden decline are dealt with in detail Filling in lacunae left open by previous research and this monograph contributes to a more comprehensive understanding of the VOC trade with Asia The Colonial 'civilizing Process' in Dutch Formosa Chiu Hsin-Hui, 2008 Focusing on Formosan agency in the encounter with Dutch colonialism and Chinese encroachment this book reveals a fascinating picture of Taiwan in the early modern era China and Maritime Europe, 1500-1800 John E. Wills, Jr, 2010-12-31 China and Maritime Europe 1500-1800 looks at early modern China in some of its most complicated and intriguing relations with a world of increasing global interconnection New World silver Chinese tea Jesuit astronomers at the Chinese court and merchants and marauders of all kinds play important roles here Although pieces of these stories have been told before these chapters provide the fullest and clearest available summaries based on sources in Chinese and in European languages making this information accessible to students and scholars interested in the growing connections among continents and civilizations in the early modern period Ancient Beijing and Western Civilization Zhesheng Ouyang, 2024-10-29 This book explores the historical interactions between Beijing and the West before the Opium War It focuses on the experiences of Western travellers missionaries and envoys who visited Beijing during the Yuan Ming and Qing dynasties As the capital of Imperial China since the Yuan dynasty Beijing has been central to communication between China and the West The study uses first hand historical materials such as travelogues memoirs letters Ming and Qing archives and scholarly works from both the West and China It examines their journeys to Beijing their lives in the city and their interactions with imperial officials and ordinary people The book reconstructs Western perceptions of Beijing and their observations of its architecture customs geography and China's history culture and political system It also addresses important historical issues in Sino

Western relations including the controversy over Chinese rites between Beijing and the Vatican attempts to trade with Beijing sinological studies and intelligence gathering The insights gained greatly enhance our understanding of the history of cultural exchange between China and the West The book will appeal to a wide readership interested in the history of the Yuan Ming and Qing dynasties the history of Beijing Sino Western relations and international Sinology The Chinese from Indonesia Patricia Tjiook-Liem, 2025-10-01 The Chinese played a vital part in the Dutch colonial economy and their economic role has remained important throughout the centuries Starting in the early 1900s China also influenced their socio political life After the Chinese in the Dutch East Indies managed to shed most discriminatory regulations in the first decades of the twentieth century they again had to strive for their rights in the new Republic of Indonesia This proved to be a difficult process filled with tension surrounding the issues of culture ethnicity and nationality In this book Patricia Tjiook Liem puts Chinese Indonesians at the centre of Dutch colonial and Indonesian history and takes you through the most important periods in this often underexposed history Goldiggers, Farmers, and Traders in the "Chinese Districts" of West Kalimantan, Indonesia Mary Somers Heidhues, 2018-05-31 This study examines the changing role of the Chinese community of West Kalimantan particularly its economic and social relationships Heidhues explores the history of the community from the early nineteenth century establishment of the kongsis to the Dayak Raids which uprooted the rural Chinese population in the 1960s The Cambridge History of China: Volume 9, The Ch'ing Dynasty to 1800, Part 2 Willard J. Peterson, 2016-04-07 Volume 9 Part 2 of The Cambridge History of China is the second of two volumes which together explore the political social and economic developments of the Ch ing Empire during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries prior to the arrival of Western military power Across fifteen chapters a team of leading historians explore how the eighteenth century s greatest contiguous empire in terms of geographical size population wealth cultural production political order and military domination peaked and then began to unravel The book sheds new light on the changing systems deployed under the Ch ing dynasty to govern its large multi ethnic Empire and surveys the dynasty s complex relations with neighbouring states and Europe In this compelling and authoritative account of a significant era of early modern Chinese history the volume illustrates the ever changing nature of the Ch ing Empire and provides context for the unforeseeable challenges that the nineteenth century would bring Foreign Devils and Philosophers Thijs Weststeijn, 2020-02-10 What was the cultural impact of early meetings between Chinese and Europeans This book explores visual literary and scholarly representations of the Celestial Empire and Western countries against the backdrop of actual encounters Based on rare Chinese and correspondingly European especially Dutch sources and archival documents the volume covers a range of cultural expressions from the applied arts to philosophy Special attention goes to the ideals and realities of trade and diplomacy of the Dutch East India Company in China Foreign Devils and Philosophers approaches global history from a cultural perspective and illuminates the reciprocal dynamic of aversion and admiration Chinese and Westerners could appear as sages or savages in each other's eyes Mediating Netherlandish Art and Material Culture in Asia Thomas Kaufmann, Michael North, 2025-10-01 While the socio economic and historical aspects of the Dutch East India Company VOC have been extensively documented and researched the role of the VOC in visual culture and the arts has been relatively neglected This authoritative volume addresses various aspects of cultural exchange between the Low Countries and Asia Increased prosperity and the flood of imported goods from Asia had a huge influence on seventeenth century Holland To cite some examples when the VOC spread its merchandise throughout the various regions of Asia Chinese decorative motives became popular in Indonesia After the lifting of the seventeenth century ban on the import of Christian books to Japan a wave of interest in Dutch culture hit the country giving rise to Hollandmania imitation of anything Dutch Mediating Netherlandish Art and Material Culture in Asia offers new insights into the world routes travelled by seventeenth century Dutch visual culture as well as the rise of Asian influence in the imagery of the Dutch Golden Age To My Dear Pieter nelletje Bea Brommer, 2015-08-04 To my dear Pieter nelletje describes a ten year period in the lives of Pieter nella van Hoorn and her grandfather Willem van Outhoorn former governor general of the Dutch East Indies Eleven years old Pieter nella left for Amsterdam and the only contact possible was by mail Numerous letters have survived and combined with contemporaneous documents most of them never published before they offer a vivid and clear picture of their private life and feelings forming a most welcome addition to official VOC history Van Outhoorn not only acted as Pieter nella's mentor while she tried to adjust to her new but unknown fatherland but also sent her numerous exquisite presents the greater part of which has been traced and described in full thus offering new insight in the cultural history of Asia Forgotten Diplomacy Vincent K.L. Chang, 2019-11-26 In this meticulously researched volume Vincent Chang resurrects a near forgotten yet pivotal chapter of Dutch Chinese ties to narrate how World War II the civil war in China and Indonesia's decolonization redefined and remade this age old bilateral relationship Drawing on a unique range of hitherto unexplored archives the book explains how China's nascent rise on the global scene and the Netherlands simultaneous decline as a colonial power shaped events in Dutch controlled Indonesia and vice versa and prompted a recalibration of their mutual ties culminating in the Netherlands recognition of the People's Republic and laying the foundations for Dutch and Chinese policies through to the present Offering insightful analyses of power dynamics and international law at the close of empire this book is a critical resource for historians and China specialists as well as scholars of international relations War, Trade and Piracy in the China Seas (1622-1683) Weichung Cheng, 2013-05-13 Approaching its demise the Ming imperial administration enlisted members of the Cheng family as mercenaries to help in the defense of the coastal waters of Fukien Under the leadership of Cheng Chih lung also known as Nicolas Iquan and with the help of the local gentry these mercenaries became the backbone of the empire's maritime defense and the protectors of Chinese commercial interests in the East and South China Seas The fall of the Ming allowed Cheng Ch eng kung alias Coxinga and his sons to create a short lived but independent seaborne regime in China's southeastern coastal provinces that competed fiercely if only briefly with Spanish Portuguese Dutch and English merchants during the early stages of globalization Han-Mongol Encounters and Missionary Endeavors Patrick Taveirne,2004 The study describes the origins of the Southwest Mongolia vicariate beyond the Great Wall and along the Yellow River Bend during the transition period from Lazarist missionary activities in the 1840s to the Scheutists in the early 1870 The Making of the Humanities Rens Bod,Jaap Maat,Thijs Weststeijn,2025-10-01 This much awaited second volume investigates the changes in subject method and institutional context of the humanistic disciplines around 1800 offering a wealth of insights for specialists and students alike Point of departure is the pivotal question whether there was a paradigm shift in the humanities around 1800 or whether these changes were part of a much longer process The authors provide an overarching perspective including philology musicology art history linguistics historiography philosophy and literary theory They also make clear that the influence from the East from the Ottoman Empire to China was crucial for the development of the European humanistic disciplines The Eclipse of Liberal Protestantism in the Netherlands Tom-Eric Krijger,2019-09-16 In The Eclipse of Liberal Protestantism in the Netherlands Tom Eric Krijger is the first to offer a synthesis of the development of the Protestant modernist movement in Dutch religious social cultural and political life between 1870 and 1940 In historiography the liberal Protestant community is said to have lost appeal and influence in these decades due to a lack of theological clarity inner harmony and organisation Analysing liberal Protestants self perception vis vis Christian orthodoxy self understanding as a faith community attitude towards other alternatives to orthodoxy class consciousness literary criticism political commitment and involvement with foreign mission Krijger challenges this view Making an international comparison he argues that the Dutch modernist movement failed to make headway primarily due to liberal Protestant expectations and discourse Reading Asia Frans Huskin,Dick van der Meij,2013-10-11 This volume presents a wide variety of articles in the broad field of Asian Studies covering the latest results of research within the social sciences and the humanities reflecting the rich diversity within these areas of research The contributions stem from research carried out by scholars who are or have been affiliated with the International Institute for Asian Studies Leiden Amsterdam Other People's Anthropologies Aleksandar Bošković,2008-03-01 Anthropological practice has been dominated by the so called great traditions Anglo American French and German However processes of decolonization along with critical interrogation of these dominant narratives have led to greater visibility of what used to be seen as peripheral scholarship With contributions from leading anthropologists and social scientists from different countries and anthropological traditions this volume gives voice to scholars outside these great traditions It shows the immense variety of methodologies training and approaches that scholars from these regions bring to anthropology and the social sciences in general thus enriching the disciplines in important ways at an age marked by multiculturalism globalization and transnationalism Europe, China and the Two SARs M. Neves,B. Bridges,2000-07-12 This book is a detailed study of contemporary economic political and security relations between Western Europe now represented by the European Union and China and the two emerging special administrative regions of Hong Kong and Macau In a comparative manner the contributors analyse the policies of seven major European states and the European Commission counter balanced with the view from China Hong Kong and Macau This uniquely wide ranging survey discusses the past record the present performance and the future prospects of the Sino European relationship
