Understanding Second Temple And Rabbinic Judaism:

Understanding Second Temple and Rabbinic Judaism Lawrence H. Schiffman, 2003 Describes the Second Temple period the first few centuries before and after the common era and its influence on the development of Rabbinic Judaism which is the foundation for all of modern Judaism Texts and Traditions Lawrence H. Schiffman, 1998 An indispensable companion text Texts and Traditions includes the essential documents of the various religious trends of the Second Temple and Rabbinic periods as well as Josephus Greek and Aramaic inscriptions classical historians and talmudic sources Book Jacket From Text to Tradition Lawrence H. Schiffman, 1991 From Text to Tradition examines the history of Judaism as it developed from the religion of biblical Israel to the Judaism of the talmudic rabbis Each step in this process is discussed from the historical literary and religious points of view and the context of the political history of the Jews Among the topics covered in this connection are the biblical heritage which underlies all later Judaism the importance of the Persian period for laying the groundwork for postbiblical Judaism the confrontation of Judaism with Hellenism apocrypha pseudepigrapha and the Dead Sea Scrolls Pharisees Sadducees and Essenes the Jewish Christian schism the impact of the Jewish revolts against Rome and the destruction of the Temple the rise of Rabbinic Judaism and the development of the Mishnah Talmud and Jewish law One of the books major theses is that the various approaches to Judaism shared sufficient common ground as to be classified as one albeit variegated religious tradition Diverging trends may be and are traced during this period as is the question of the role of interpretation the impact of external influences and the process by which the competing approaches were eventually supplanted by the rabbinic tradition which became the basis for medieval and modern Judaism In this way Judaism is shown to have travelled the long road from the textual heritage of the Hebrew Bible to the oral tradition of the rabbis Challenge and Transformation Lawrence H. Schiffman, 2013 Targums and Rabbinic Literature

Zondervan, 2024-09-10 Ancient Literature for New Testament Studies is a multivolume series that seeks to introduce key ancient texts that form the cultural historical and literary context for the study of the New Testament Each volume will feature introductory essays to the corpus followed by articles on the relevant texts Each article will address introductory matters provenance summary of content interpretive issues key passages for New Testament studies and their significance Neither too technical to be used by students nor too thin on interpretive information to be useful for serious study of the New Testament this series provides a much needed resource for understanding the New Testament in its first century Jewish and Greco Roman context Produced by an international team of leading experts in each corpus Ancient Literature for New Testament Studies stands to become the standard resource for both scholars and students Volumes include Apocrypha and the Septuagint Old Testament Pseudepigrapha The Dead Sea Scrolls The Apostolic Fathers Philo and Josephus Greco Roman Literature Targums and Early Rabbinic Literature Gnostic Literature New Testament Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha The Politics of Pessimism in Ecclesiastes Mark R. Sneed, 2012-02-27 Scholars attempt to resolve the problem of the book of Ecclesiastes heterodox character in one of two ways either explaining away the book's disturbing qualities or radicalizing and championing it as a precursor of modern existentialism This volume offers an interpretation of Ecclesiastes that both acknowledges the unorthodox nature of Qoheleth's words and accounts for its acceptance among the canonical books of the Hebrew Bible It argues that instead of being the most secular and modern of biblical books Ecclesiastes is perhaps one of the most religious and primitive Bringing a Weberian approach to Ecclesiastes it represents a paradigm of the application of a social science methodology

Crucible of Faith Philip Jenkins, 2017-09-19 One of America's foremost scholars of religion examines the tumultuous era that gave birth to the modern Judeo Christian tradition In The Crucible of Faith Philip Jenkins argues that much of the Judeo Christian tradition we know today was born between 250-50 BCE during a turbulent Crucible Era It was during these years that Judaism grappled with Hellenizing forces and produced new religious ideas that reflected and responded to their changing world By the time of the fall of the Temple in 70 CE concepts that might once have seemed bizarre became normalized and thus passed on to Christianity and later Islam Drawing widely on contemporary sources from outside the canonical Old and New Testaments Jenkins reveals an era of political violence and social upheaval that ultimately gave birth to entirely new ideas about religion the afterlife Creation and the Fall and the nature of God and Satan

Understanding God'S Message for Mankind David Charles Cole, 2011-12-16 Why do Christians believe as they do How do we know Jesus was the Messiah What does God expect of us What happens after death Is there really a heaven and a hell Why does God allow evil in the world permitting bad things to happen to good people This collection of essential verses from Scripture and the accompanying commentaries will help answer these and other fundamental questions The sixty six books of the Bible are an integrated message system from God a message to mankind from the creator of all things It is the best selling book of all time yet most copies sit unread This is due in part to the fact that wading through so many pages of spiritually inspired and purposefully encrypted material can be intimidating This new guide to the Bible offers a solution for those eager to understand God's message and develop a closer relationship with Him It holds a collection of inspirational verses selected from all sixty six books of Scripture cataloged under more than 100 specific subject headings
