Understanding Islam An Introduction To The Muslim World Third Edition:

Understanding Islam Thomas W. Lippman, 1995-09-01 A little over thirteen centuries ago the prophet Muhammad converted a few Arab desert tribes to the belief in a single god Allah thus founding the religion of Islam Within a century that belief had created one of history's mightiest empires and today Islam continues to shape events around the globe This comprehensive guide offers an informative and insightful introduction to Islam both as a religion and as a political economic force It tells the story of Muhammad and the rise of Islam outlines the sacred book the Koran explains the five pillars of faith explores the interplay between religion and government describes the differences that divide Islam and above all shows the influence of Islam on world affairs This second revised edition provides crucial new material on the Islamic community today including discussion of the Gulf War and the Salman Rushdie affair the rise and ebb of fundamentalist fervor in Iran Algeria and elsewhere and the relationships among different factions of the Islamic faith There are also updated descriptions of internal politics in Syria Egypt Pakistan and other Islamic nations Complete with glossary bibliography and index Understanding Islam is engrossing essential reading for both students and all who seek a clearer understanding of the world in which we live

Understanding Islam Thomas W. Lippman, 1990 The completely updated and expanded study of the Moslem world from its earliest roots to today's headlines Complete with glossary bibliography and index this book is engrossing reading for all seeking a clearer understanding of the Moslem world

Religious Organizations and Democratization Tun-jen Cheng, Deborah A. Brown, 2015-03-26 Since the terrorist attacks on 9 11 the political roles of religious institutions and groups have captured international attention This book examines how religious institutions and organizations in various Asian countries are influencing democratic development and the shaping of government policies Religious Organizations and Democratization covers Taiwan Hong Kong Mainland China Korea Thailand the Philippines Malaysia Indonesia and Japan The chapters specifically address the engagement of Christian Buddhist Muslim and other religious organizations in the advancement and or hindrance of democratization in the region The contributors consider such questions as Why have some religious organizations played a decisive role in democratic transitions while others remained politically dormant and other still acted in conservative alliances to block democratic development Why did some religious organizations that once were active and instrumental to democratic change lose their political vitality as soon as civil liberties were successfully introduced And why did other religious organizations irrespective of their roles in the process of democratic transition emerge as key political forces in the civil society

The Muslim Majority Robin Hadaway, 2021-09-15 More than 70 percent of Muslims worldwide practice folk Islam a syncretistic mix of theologically orthodox Islam and traditional religious beliefs and practices The Muslim Majority is unlike many published works on evangelism to Muslims which argue for either apologetic or contextualized bridge approaches These approaches are often ineffective in reaching adherents of popular Islam Instead author and missiologist Robin Hadaway outlines a contextual approach that addresses the unique perspective of popular Islam Hadaway explains the differences between folk Islam and orthodox Islam and explores best practices for reaching the vast majority of Muslims with the gospel of Jesus Christ Christian-Muslim Dialogue Heidi Hirvonen, 2012-11-09 Lebanon is a significant region of encounter between Muslims and Christians in the Middle East This book examines how Christian Muslim dialogue is envisioned by four present day Lebanese thinkers Great Ayatollah Muhammad Husayn Fadlallah and Doctor Mahmoud Ayoub from the Shiite tradition and Metropolitan Georges Khodr and Doctor Father Mouchir Basile Aoun from the Eastern Christian Antiochian tradition The study seeks to bring the four thinkers into dialogue on a number of topics including doctrinal themes ethical principles and the issue of political power sharing in Lebanon All four thinkers make several suggestions for facilitating mutual understanding and transcending old debates The concept of God and the principle of neighbourly love seem to have particular potential as fruitful bases for further dialogue

The Oxford History of Islam John L. Esposito, 2000-04-06 Lavishly illustrated with over 300 pictures including more than 200 in full color The Oxford History of Islam offers the most wide ranging and authoritative account available of the second largest and fastest growing religion in the world John L Esposito Editor in Chief of the four volume Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World has gathered together sixteen leading scholars both Muslim and non Muslim to examine the origins and historical development of Islam its faith community institutions sciences and arts Beginning in the pre Islamic Arab world the chapters range from the story of Muhammad and his Companions to the development of Islamic religion and culture and the empires that grew from it to the influence that Islam has on today's world The book covers a wide array of subjects casting light on topics such as the historical encounter of Islam and Christianity the role of Islam in the Mughal and Ottoman empires the growth of Islam in Southeast Asia China and Africa the political economic and religious challenges of European imperialism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and Islamic communities in the modern Western world In addition the book offers excellent articles on Islamic religion art and architecture and sciences as well as bibliographies Events in the contemporary world have led to an explosion of interest and scholarly work on Islam Written for the general reader but also appealing to specialists The Oxford History of Islam offers the best of that recent scholarship presented in a readable style and complemented by a rich variety of illustrations Sayyid

Quṭb and Islamic Activism William Shepard, 2021-09-20 This work is a translation of an important book by one of the forerunners of the current resurgence of Islam Its author was a prominent Islamic activist in Egypt in the late 1940s and early 1950s and was jailed and eventually executed for his activities Today he is commonly viewed as a martyr and his books are widely read First written in 1948 Social Justice in Islam went through five further editions each revised in a manner reflecting his increasingly radical views The present work translates the last edition the most radical one and also provides the alternative readings from the earlier editions so that the reader can trace the development of the author's thinking The introduction provides a brief biography of the author and an analysis of the changes in his thinking reflected in this book
