

- The theory of world risk society addresses the increasing realization of the irrepressible ubiquity of radical uncertainty in the modern world.
- The basic institutions, the actors of first modernity - science and expert systems, the state, commerce and the international system, including the military - responsible for calculating and controlling manufactured uncertainties are undermined by growing awareness that they are inefficient, their actions even counter-productive.
- This does not happen haphazardly, but systematically -- Radicalization of modernity produces this fundamental irony of risk:
