Indeed even Thomas's maternal grandfather Thomas Smith had been in the same profession. However Robert's mother's family were not of the same profession. Margaret's natal family the Balfours were gentry tracing their lineage back to a certain Alexander Balfour who had held the lands of Inchyra in Fife in the fifteenth century. Margaret's father Lewis Balfour 1777-1860 was a minister of the Church of Scotland at nearby Colinton and her siblings included the physician George William Balfour and the marine engineer James Balfour. Stevenson spent the greater part of his boyhood holidays in his maternal grandfather's house. Now I often wonder wrote Stevenson what I inherited from this old minister. I must suppose indeed that he was fond of preaching sermons and so am I though I never heard it maintained that either of us loved to hear them. Lewis Balfour and his daughter both had weak chests so they often needed to stay in warmer climates for their health. Stevenson inherited a tendency to coughs and fevers exacerbated when the family moved to a damp chilly house at 1 Inverleith Terrace in 1851. The family moved again to the sunnier 17 Heriot Row when Stevenson was six years old but the tendency to extreme sickness in winter remained with him until he was eleven. Illness would be a recurrent feature of his adult life and left him extraordinarily thin. Contemporary views were that he had tuberculosis but more recent views are that it was bronchiectasis or even sarcoidosis. Underwoods Annotated Underwoods Annotated Stevenson, 2021-09-15

There are men and classes of men that stand above the common herd the soldier the sailor and the shepherd not unfrequently the artist rarely rarely still the clergyman the physician almost as a rule. He is the flower such as it is of our civilisation and when that stage of man is done with and only remembered to be marvelled at in history he will be thought to have shared as little as any in the defects of the period and most notably exhibited the virtues of the race. Generosity he has such as is possible to those who practise an art never to those who drive a trade. Discretion tested by a hundred secrets tact tried in a thousand embarrassments and what are more important Heraclean cheerfulness and courage. So it is that he brings air and cheer into the sickroom and often enough though not so often as he wishes brings healing.
