Uncontrollable Societies Of Disaffected Individuals Disbelief And Discredit Volume 2:

Uncontrollable Societies of Disaffected Individuals Bernard Stiegler, 2012-12-17 Max Weber argued that the development of capitalism would lead to the progressive rationalization and disenchantment of society today this process is reaching its endpoint and capitalism is collapsing into a disturbing kind of irrationality It engenders spiritual misery a paralysis of the function of the human mind or spirit where reason disappears as a motive of hope a kingdom of ends in Kant's sense Absolute disenchantment afflicts all those who no longer have anything to expect from the development of hyper industrial society Those who are desperate become desperados and they are becoming more and more numerous No longer having anything to expect means at the same time no longer having anything to fear And the proliferating repressive mechanisms that are supposed to cope with the effects of this loss of authority turn out to be less and less effective For such measures engender more and more the opposite of that for which they were intended but in extreme and totally irrational unpredictable forms This is where we are today the technical system of the hyper industrial epoch can maintain its power only so long as it is backed up by blind trust but this trust is undermined by the destructive irrationality stemming from the liquidation of the kingdom of ends From the moment this trust is lost hyper power is inverted into hyper vulnerability and impotence The loss of motives of hope then expands encompassing all of us like a contagious illness But this all is no longer a we it is a panic

Emotional Capitalism Peter Wing-Kai Lok, 2024-02-23 As today's emotional capitalism increasingly carries out its core operation of regulating the psycho energy of individuals the need to analyse a variety of methods for emotional production becomes important By bringing together the works of Byung Chul Han Bernard Stiegler Emmanuel Levinas and Judith Butler this bold analysis offers a fresh perspective on the operation of emotional capitalism today with various possibilities for evolving a sensitivity to social injustice and the suffering of others through an ethical affective and bodily inter subjective connection

Precarious spectatorship Sam Haddow, 2019-10-17 Precarious spectatorship is about the relationship between emergencies and the spectator In the early twenty first century emergencies are commonplace in the newsgathering and political institutions of western industrial democracies From terrorism to global warming the refugee crisis to general elections the spectator is bombarded with narratives that seek to suspend the criteria of everyday life in order to address perpetual exceptional threats The book argues that repeated exposure to these narratives through the apparatuses of contemporary technology creates a precarious spectatorship where the spectator's ability to rationalise herself or her relationship with the object of her spectatorship is compromised This precarity has become a destructive but too often overlooked aspect of contemporary spectatorship

Automatic Society, Volume 1 Bernard Stiegler, 2017-01-17 In July 2014 the Belgian newspaper Le Soir claimed that France Belgium the United Kingdom Italy Poland and the United States may lose between 43 and 50 per cent of their jobs within ten to fifteen years Across the world integrated automation one key result of the so called data economy is leading to a drastic reduction in employment in all areas from the legal profession to truck driving from medicine to stevedoring In this first volume of a new series the leading cultural theorist Bernard Stiegler advocates a radical solution to the crisis posed by automation and consumer capitalism more generally He calls for a decoupling of the concept of labour meaningful intellectual participation from employment dehumanizing banal work with the ultimate aim of eradicating employment altogether By doing so new and alternative economic models will arise where individuals are no longer simply mined for labour but also actively produce what they consume Building substantially on his existing theories and engaging with a wide range of figures from Deleuze and Foucault to Bill Gates and Alan Greenspan Automatic Society will appeal to students and scholars across the social sciences and humanities as well as anyone concerned with the central question of the future of work

Psychoanalysis, Philosophy and Myth in Contemporary Culture Angie Voela, 2017-08-09 This book examines the use of myth in contemporary popular and high culture and proposes that the aporetic subject the individual that does not know is the ideal contemporary subject Using several contemporary novels films and theatrical plays that illustrate aporia such as Percy Jackson and the Lightning Thief Riordan 2007 Tron Legacy Koninski 2010 Welcome to Thebes Buffini 2010 The Photographers Koundouros 1998 Prometheus 2012 and Prometheus Retrogressing Sfikas 1998 Angie Voela introduces common ground between Lacanian psychoanalysis and some of Freud's most ardent critics Michel Foucault and Jean Baudrillard as well as the cultural philosopher Bernard Stiegler These unprecedented systematic comparisons broaden the scope and impact of Lacanian psychoanalysis in interdisciplinary debates of philosophy and culture and Voela argues that apart from dealing with the past psychoanalysis must also deal more explicitly with the present and the future She presents a unique inquiry into modern subjectivity that will be of great interest to scholars of psychoanalysis philosophy film literature and contemporary culture

The Ethos of Digital Environments Susanna Lindberg, Hanna-Riikka Roine, 2021-05-27 While self-driving cars and autonomous weapon systems have received a great deal of attention in media and research the general requirements of ethical life in today's digitalizing reality have not been made sufficiently visible and evaluable This collection of articles from both distinguished and emerging authors working at the intersections of philosophy literary theory media and technology does not intend to fix new moral rules Instead the volume explores the ethos of digital environments asking how we can orient ourselves in them and inviting us to renewed moral reflection in the face of dilemmas they entail The authors show how contemporary digital technologies model our perception narration as well as our conceptions of truth and investigate the ethical moral and juridical consequences of making public and societal infrastructures computational They argue that we must make the structures of the digital environments visible and learn to care for them

Finance Fictions Arne De Boever, 2018-03-06 Finance Fictions takes the measure of what it means to live in a world ruled by high finance by examining the tension between psychosis and realism that plays out in the contemporary finance novel When the things traded at the center of the economy cease to be things at all but highly abstracted speculations how do we come to see the real What sorts of narrative can accurately approach the actual workings of a neoliberal economy marked by accelerating cycles of market crashes economic and political crisis and austerity Revisiting such twentieth century classics of the genre as Tom Wolfe s Bonfire of the Vanities and Bret Easton Ellis s American Psycho De Boever argues that the twenty first century is witnessing the birth of a new kind of realistic novel that can make sense of complex financial instruments like collateralized debt obligations credit default swaps and digital algorithms operating at speeds faster than what human beings or computers can record If in 1989 Wolfe could still urge novelists to work harder to tame the billion footed beast of reality today s economic reality confronts us with a difference that is qualitative rather than quantitative a new financial ontology requiring new modes of thinking and writing Mobilizing the philosophical thought of Quentin Meillassoux in the close reading of finance novels by Robert Harris Michel Houellebecq Ben Lerner and less well known works of conceptual writing such as Mathew Timmons Credit Finance Fictions argues that realism is in for a speculative update if it wants to take on the contemporary economy and if whose implications turn out to be deeply political Part literary study and part philosophical inquiry Finance Fictions seeks to contribute to a new mindset for creative and critical work on finance in the twenty first century

Predator Empire Ian G. R. Shaw, 2016-08-15 What does it mean for human beings to exist in an era of dronified state violence How can we understand the rise of robotic systems of power and domination Focusing on U S drone warfare and its broader implications as no other book has to date Predator Empire argues that we are witnessing a transition from a labor intensive American empire to a machine intensive Predator Empire Moving from the Vietnam War to the War on Terror and beyond Ian G R Shaw reveals how changes in military strategy domestic policing and state surveillance have come together to enclose our planet in a robotic system of control The rise of drones presents a series of existential crises he suggests that are reengineering not only spaces of violence but also the character of the modern state Positioning drone warfare as part of a much longer project to watch and enclose the human species he shows that for decades centuries even human existence has slowly but surely been brought within the artificial worlds of technological civilization Instead of incarcerating us in prisons or colonizing territory directly the Predator Empire locks us inside a worldwide system of electromagnetic enclosure in which democratic ideals give way to a system of totalitarian control a machinic rule by Nobody As accessibly written as it is theoretically ambitious Predator Empire provides up to date information about U S drone warfare as well as an in depth history of the rise of drones
