Allen, 2025-07-10 Ronald J Allen argues that the apostle Paul wrote his letter to the Romans to address specifically the gentiles in the congregation in Rome Allen suggests that this was because the gentiles exhibited arrogant behavior towards Jewish members of the community thereby undermining a primary facet of the early church to witness to the community of love and mutual support that God seeks for all Allen shows readers how Paul points the gentiles to the faithfulness of God who invites them to recognize and live according to the grace of God shown to them through Jesus Christ In this pastorally engaged work Allen not only provides historical commentary on Romans but also helps preachers and scholars make connections between arrogance and its destructiveness in communities today as well as inviting congregations to participate in the grace that makes possible a loving and mutually respectful community Healing Racial Divides Carter, Terrell, 2019-01-08 Can the church help America emerge from its racist shadows empowered to heal racial divides Church pastor and former police officer Terrell Carter says yes While our faith inarguably calls Christians to unity the hard fact remains we re still tragically divided when it comes to race even and especially many say in our churches Racism pervades our faith our relationships and our institutions in deep often imperceptible ways In Healing Racial Divides Terrell Carter a pastor professor and former police officer takes us on a revelatory journey into the abyss of the racial divide and shows us how we ve arrived at this divisive place Understanding racism s roots and our place in it we surface more committed and empowered to defeat racism once and for all Drawing from the Bible scholarly research and personal experience as a both a

Talking About Race Steven Grineski, Julie Landsman, Robert Simmons III, 2023-07-03 What is it that gives many of us White people a visceral fear about discussing race Do you realize that being able to not think about or talk about it is a uniquely White experience Do you warn your children about how people might react to them find store staff following or watching you get stopped by the police for no reason The students of color in your classroom experience discrimination every day in small and large ways They don't often see themselves represented in their textbooks and encounter hostility in school and outside For them race is a constant reality and an issue they need and want to discuss Failure to do so can inhibit their academic performance Failure to discuss race prevents White students from getting a real critical and deep understanding of our society and their place in it It is essential for the well being of all students that they learn to have constructive conversations about the history of race in this country the impact of racism on different ethnic communities and how those communities and cultures contribute to society The need to model for our students how to talk openly and comfortably about race is critical in America today but it is still an issue that is difficult to tackle To overcome the common fear of discussing race of saying something wrong this book brings together over thirty contributions by teachers and students of different ethnicities and races who offer their experiences ideas and advice With passion and sensitivity they cover such topics as the development of racial consciousness and identity in children admit their failures and continuing struggles write about creating safe spaces and the climate that promotes thoughtful discussion model self reflection demonstrate the importance of giving voice to students recount how they responded to racial incidents and used current affairs to discuss oppression describe courses and strategies they have developed explain the n word present exercises and pose questions For any teacher grappling with addressing race in the classroom and for pre service teachers confronting their anxieties about race this book offers a rich resource of insights approaches and guidance that will allay fears and provide the reflective practitioner with the confidence to initiate and respond to discussion of race from the pre school and elementary classroom through high school Deconstructing Racism

Barbara Crain Major, Joseph Barndt, 2022-04-12 Deconstructing Racism explores why change has been so difficult to come by and offers new paths toward lasting change through the deconstruction of racism s roots within systems and institutions It speaks to people in both church and society who are or have been working to dismantle institutional and systemic racism

The Chicago Reporter ,2007 Becoming an Anti-Racist Church Joseph Barndt, 2011-03-01 Christians addressing racism in American society must begin with a frank assessment of how race figures in the churches themselves leading activist Joseph Barndt argues This practical and important volume extends the insights of Barndt s earlier more general work to address the race situation in the churches themselves and to equip people there to be agents for change in and beyond their church communities MultiCultural Review ,2008 Raising Kids in the 21st Century Sharon K. Hall, 2008-09-09 In this timely important and engagingly written book Hall presents cutting edge information about how to promote positive development among children and adolescents This book is a vital resource for parents practitioners and students of human development Future Vision, Present Work Sharon Cronin, 1998 Dismantling White Privilege Nelson M.

Rodriguez, Leila E. Villaverde, 2000 Dismantling White Privilege critically interrogates whiteness across contexts from the experiential level to the different ways in which whiteness is deployed in contemporary cultural politics The editors and contributors contend that marking whiteness is an important step in dismantling white privilege within the context of concerns for equity and social justice Significant to this anthology is linking analyses of whiteness to the discourse of critical pedagogy especially around constructing pedagogies of whiteness Investigating whiteness in its many manifestations Dismantling White Privilege represents a necessary advance concerning the intersection among race culture and pedagogy

Page 4 of cover Why Are All The Black Kids Sitting Together In The Cafeteria? Beverly Daniel Tatum, 1999-06-24 Walk into any racially mixed high school and you will see Black youth seated together in the cafeteria Of course it s not just the Black kids sitting together the White Latino Asian Pacific and in some regions American Indian youth are clustered in their own groups too The same phenomenon can be observed in college dining halls faculty lounges and in corporate cafeterias What is going on here Is this self segregation a problem we should try to fix or a coping strategy we should support How can we get past our reluctance to talk about racial issues to even discuss it And what about the other questions we and our children have about race Beverly Daniel Tatum is a renowned authority on the psychology of racism She asserts that we do not know how to talk about our racial differences Whites are afraid of using the wrong words and being perceived as racist Parents of color are afraid of exposing their children to painful racial realities too soon Tatum understands that the vocabulary of race is loaded and that embarrassment and awkwardness often stymie conversations about this subject yet she believes that these obstacles can and must be overcome if we are to bring about change In Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria And Other Conversations About Race Dr Tatum provides us with a new way of thinking and talking about race through the lens of racial identity She explains that all of us have a racial identity and must strive to affirm it For people of color the development of a constructive racial identity requires being able to recognize and reject the bombardment of negative stereotypes and to embrace a history of resistance and empowerment rather than passive victimization For Whites the challenge is to engage in a process of racial identity development which leads to an awareness of White privilege and a determination to actively work against injustice and this requires the strength to reject a system that awards them and to reclaim the legacy of White allies For many this is uncharted territory This book provides a road map for those who want to make the journey and better understand the racial dynamics of their daily lives Tatum extends her ideas about racial identity development beyond the usual Black White paradigm to embrace the unique circumstances of Latinos American Indians Asians as well as biracial youth Also included is a list of resources for further reading as well as a list of books for parents and teachers to recommend to children of all ages Using real life examples and the latest research Tatum presents strong evidence that straight talk about our racial identities whatever they may be is essential if we are serious about facilitating communication across racial and ethnic divides We have waited far too long to begin our conversations about race This remarkable book infused with great wisdom and humanity tells us where to start For the Good of the Order Delmus Eugene Williams, 1994 Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing, R5ference Reed, 1995-12 Dismantling Racism Joseph R. Barndt, 1991-01-01 An analysis of racism today and the thoughts on how we can work to bring it to an end Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1993 Journal of School Leadership , 2000
