Women Driven To Success You Can Have Your All:

Women Driven to Success Jane S. Goldner, 2013-09-16 Women today are being told by successful businesswomen that the key to having it all is leaning in Dr Jane Goldner on the other hand believes that success is not a one size fits all concept She states that women can have it all but poses the question What does it all really mean Throughout the book Dr Goldner provides the answer that it all is different for each person and discusses the paths women have taken to go from homemakers to doing dishes diapers and million dollar deals with many choices in between A critical lesson is that before a woman leans in she needs to figure out her all Based on her own life experiences and those of 14 other highly successful senior level professional women Women Driven to Success provides examples of role models as well as a tool kit to help women define and live THEIR ALL Among the many topics that Dr Goldner covers in her book are The need for each woman to define her own CORE her North Star Why being everything to everybody is NOT the answer Learning the skills of negotiation and confrontation The important difference between taking personal time to stay healthy and having to take time to be sick Dr Goldner is a business consultant with nearly 30 years experience She s worked with multiple Fortune 500 companies the US Military and with some of the foremost executive leaders in the country In addition Dr Goldner is both an adjunct professor at the Coles School of Business Kennesaw State University and in the Leadership and Organization Development Master s Degree program at PCOM
