Donald E. Zimmer

The Soul Of A Leader Finding Your Path To Success And Fulfillment:

The Soul of a Leader Margaret Benefiel, 2008 Demonstrating the principle that soulfulness at work is a way of being and doing this guide provides new perspectives on the qualities of leadership Three main sections elaborate on the themes of choosing the path staying on track and persevering to the end Drawing from interviews with outstanding leaders including Tom and Kate Chappell the founders of Tom's of Maine Bob Glassman co chairman of Wainwright Bank Desmond Tutu and The Edge of rock band U2 and supported with guided questions in each section this book is an essential addition to the bookshelf of anyone who wants to lead with soul In an environment where leaders are rewarded for their drive decisiveness productivity and long work hours the spiritual well being of a leader may get short shrift and harm can come to both the leader and the organization this individual serves Challenging the assumptions that effective leaders must sell their souls cut corners cook the books and let go of their vision a new model of spiritual leadership is offered Teachers parents committee chair leaders and other individuals in organizations of any size are exhorted to aim higher and lead with soul in any sphere large or small

The Soul of Higher Education Margaret Benefiel, Bo Karen Lee, 2019-05-01 The Soul of Higher Education Contemplative Pedagogy Research and Institutional Life for the Twenty first Century contributes to an understanding of the importance and implications of a contemplative grounding for higher education It is the sixth in a series entitled Advances in Workplace Spirituality Theory Research and Application which is intended to be an authoritative and comprehensive series in the field This volume consists of chapters written by noted scholars from both Eastern and Western traditions that shed light on the following questions What is an appropriate epistemological grounding for contemplative higher education How does the current dominant epistemology in higher education mitigate against contemplative teaching learning and research What alternatives can be offered How can a contemplative culture be nurtured in the classroom What difference does that culture make in teaching and learning What is the role of individual and institutional leadership in creating and sustaining this culture What is contemplative research How can the emerging field of contemplative studies fit into the twenty first century university What can faculty and students learn from contemplative practices about how to find peace of mind in a world of higher education characterized by increasing complexity financial pressures and conflicts What does a contemplative organizational structure look like in higher education How can committees faculty meetings and administrative teams use contemplative practices to work more effectively together How can contemplative decision making processes be used in higher education Given hierarchies turf wars and academics propensity for using argument as a weapon is it possible to introduce contemplative practices into decision making situations in appropriate ways of workplace spirituality and spiritual leadership to teach leaders and their constituencies how to develop business models that address issues of ethical leadership employee well being sustainability and social responsibility without sacrificing profitability growth and other metrics of performance excellence While this text identifies and discusses the characteristics necessary to be a leader its major focus is on leadership engaging stakeholders and enabling groups of people to work together in the most meaningful ways The authors offer real world examples of for profit and non profit organizations that have spiritual leaders and which have implemented organizational spiritual leadership These cases are based on over ten years of research supported by the International Institute of Spiritual Leadership that demonstrates the value of the Spiritual Leadership Balanced Scorecard Business Model presented in the book Pracademic in its orientation the book presents a general process and tools for implementing the model

Spiritual Leadership in Action Louis W. Fry, Yochana Altman, 2013-07-01 Spiritual Leadership in Action The CEL Story is designed for thoughtful leaders working in the complexity and messiness of their daily organizational lives It is a book first and foremost about people about the ways they find purpose creativity and meaning in their professional work how they thrive in community and fulfill their deep desire to be of service to others against seemingly impossible odds and limitations A study of how full human potential and creativity is released how the spirit within and without can be experienced and manifested It is also story of ordinary people achieving extraordinary results individually and collectively of people becoming more than they thought was possible and having fun along the way This is a practical book with reflections legacy and lessons learnt to support and guide busy leaders who are looking for wisdom and to learn from the experiences and mistakes of others Spiritual Leadership in Action The CEL Story is the result of serious and rigorous academic research It is a case study containing features dilemmas and opportunities facing all leaders today A leadership narrative of a professional community who learned to live and work together with respect and harmony It is also the story of a CEO leader and the integration of her spiritual yearning and fulfillment manifested through her professional vocation and calling In particular it explores how To create effective collaborative partnerships To deliver outstanding value for money on limited resources in complex contexts To develop excellent commercial practices within a public sector organization To nurture the spirit high energy and performance of everyone involved to ensure outstanding success on the triple bottom line This book challenges the reader to be bold creative reflective trusting even more allowing of their own spirit and leadership path and to rise to even greater achievements but most of all to fulfill their own deepest yearnings and potential and to become the very best of what they are meant to be both as a leader and as a human being An important feature in this book is that spirituality and religion are distinct and that organizational spiritual leadership can be inclusive or exclusive of religious theory and practice The Centre for Excellence in Leadership CEL serves as a role model for maximizing the triple bottom line through both personal and organizational spiritual leadership CEL is a stellar example of an organization that embraced organizational spiritual leadership the values of altruistic love employee well being and sustainability while maintaining high levels of financial performance Spiritual Leadership in Action The CEL Story chronicles how as CEO Lynne Sedgmore led CEL through its spiritual journey including several Dark Nights of the Soul to a place of pre eminence in the United Kingdom s Learning and Skills sector Mercenaries and Missionaries Brandon

Vaidyanathan,2019-05-15 Mercenaries and Missionaries examines the relationship between rapidly diffusing forms of capitalism and Christianity in the Global South Using more than two hundred interviews in Bangalore and Dubai Brandon Vaidyanathan explains how and why global corporate professionals straddle conflicting moral orientations in the realms of work and religion Seeking to place the spotlight on the role of religion in debates about the cultural consequences of capitalism Vaidyanathan finds that an apprehensive individualism generated in global corporate workplaces is supported and sustained by a therapeutic individualism cultivated in evangelical charismatic Catholicism Mercenaries and Missionaries uncovers a symbiotic relationship between these individualisms and shows how this relationship unfolds in two global cities Dubai in non democratic UAE which holds what is considered the world s largest Catholic parish and Bangalore in democratic India where the Catholic Church though afflicted by ethnic and religious violence runs many of the city s elite educational institutions Vaidyanathan concludes that global corporations and religious communities create distinctive cultures with normative models that powerfully orient people to those cultures the Mercenary in cutthroat workplaces and the Missionary in churches As a result global corporate professionals in rapidly developing cities negotiate starkly opposing moral commitments in the realms of work and religion which in turn shapes their civic commitment to these cities

Leadership Coaching Jonathan Passmore,2015-07-03 Published with the Association for Coaching this revised edition of the highly respected Leadership Coaching will enhance and extend your coaching practice It draws on evidence based thinking and the writing of some of the world s top leadership thinkers and coaching practitioners to present a start of the art coverage of leadership models and how to use them effectively to benefit your coaching relationships Leaders face many challenges and this book will challenge you to adapt your coaching approach to suit your clients needs Its coverage ranges from newer topics such as strengths focused leadership and conversational leadership to more tried and tested frameworks such as Porter s strategy model and Goleman s model of leadership styles It also incorporates non Western perspectives from Asia and Africa and considers multinational topics like coaching global boards Leadership and Listening Donald E. Zimmer,2011-06-22 Church leaders must fundamentally change the way they view leadership governance and management in their organizations if they are to take seriously the need to listen to God s desires before acting In Leadership and Listening readers will find encouragement and specific suggestions for re imagining church governance and management Zimmer observes that the contemporary church is rooted in both the kingdom of God and the systems and cultures of government and business Most people who serve in governing and management roles in the church in the United States today have been formed in the corporate world and acculturated to parliamentary process As a result many church governing boards are about business rather than their primary task discerning God's desires for the part of the church they serve. Through research with more than one hundred church leaders, Zimmer learned that the church and the business community possess many insights and resources that can help boards shift toward a focus on seeking first the desires of God's heart and then responding effectively. By drawing on the guidance Zimmer offers, a church board can transform itself from a group that manages the day-to-day affairs of the church to one that makes listening, prayer, worship, reflection, and community the first priority.
