An Engaged Learner: A pocket resource for building community skills Rebecca Nthogo Lekoko,2013-08-09 Not many of us get a chance to share their teaching learning experiences with others Here I am sharing my experiences by focusing on a fact that students we teach are on transit they eventually leave schools and proceed with their lives in their respective communities Our social and pedagogical obligation as educators is to teach them skills to use after exiting educational institutions that is helping them gain community skills The development of community skills starts with an understanding that communities and schools interlink That is learners who go to school expect to use the knowledge they gain to serve their communities This calls for a broader vision of learning that goes beyond the four walls of classrooms It is an ideology that persuades educators to produce graduates with apposite levels of academic achievements as well as broad community skills like ability to think be responsible make decision and solve problems Everyone almost every day uses these skills Educators thus are pressed to think of ways to knit together learning and community s aspirations This can be done by engaging learners in activities that help build their community skills Every educator teaches these skills consciously and unconsciously This resource contributes some ideas and processes that can enhance educators role of imparting community development skills Fun Learning Activities for Modern Foreign Languages Jake Hunton,2014-03-26 Students learning modern foreign languages often comment that it is just too hard to learn and remember all of vocabulary presented to them Yes there is a lot of content that needs to be covered and a lot of vocabulary that needs to be learned But there is a way of making this process engaging and motivating Language lessons needn t be full of grammar worksheets endless drilling and rote learning lists of vocabulary Learning languages isn t always fun and games But these aren t games they are fun learning activities And they can help revolutionise language teaching enabling teachers to authoritatively impart knowledge while fostering a thirst for knowledge and love of learning in their students First the Vocab Fun Learning Activities VFLAs learn the vocabulary in ways which will improve recognition and recall Then the Fun Learning Activities use this vocabulary knowledge to build sentences and paragraphs explore and use this language while keeping the whole class engaged and actively learning The activities are designed to encourage all students to participate and learn more through enjoyment Based on the author s extensive classroom experience and underpinned by research into how students learn best each activity comes complete with a detailed explanation and plenty of ideas for variations differentiations and extensions The activities come with example vocabulary lists in French German and Spanish as a starting point which are all available for download via a link provided in the book However the activities will work effectively in any language and with any vocabulary list of the teacher s choosing and can be adapted to suit every topic learning objective and age range Discover ready to use activities which will make for outstanding lessons in every class and ensure engagement motivation rapport progress and attainment over time ICONSEIR 2019 Nasrun,Yusnadi ,Elvimailani ,Muhammad Faisal,Sriadhi ,2020-06-04 As an annual event 2nd International Conference of Science Education in Industrial Revolution 4 0 ICONSEIR 2019 continued the agenda to bring together researcher academics experts and professionals in
