PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIP OF HIGH & LOW ACHIEVING STUDENTS Dr. Deepa David Sevak, Research, Applications, and Interventions for Children and Adolescents Carmel Proctor, P. Alex Linley, 2013-05-13 This book presents recent positive psychological research applications and interventions being used among adolescents and children. Currently there is a wave of change occurring whereby educators and others working with children and adolescents are beginning to recognize the benefits of looking at well being from a positive perspective specifically the integration of positive psychological theory into the school curriculum in order to improve student well being. Moreover although the positive psychological field has grown tremendously since its inception there remains an imbalance in the publication of research findings applications and interventions among children and adolescents in comparison to adults. This book fills the need for a reference to this valuable information and benefits a wide range of professionals including educators clinicians psychologists students and many other working with children and adolescents.

Promoting Student Happiness Shannon M. Suldo, 2016-07-22 Grounded in cutting edge research this book shows how interventions targeting gratitude kindness character strengths optimistic thinking hope and healthy relationships can contribute to improved academic and social outcomes in grades 3-12. It provides a 10 session manual for promoting subjective well being complete with vivid case examples that can be implemented with individuals small groups or whole classes. Factors that predict youth happiness are discussed evidence based assessment tools presented and ways to involve teachers and parents described. In a large size format for easy photocopying the volume includes 40 reproducible handouts and forms. Purchasers get access to a companion website where they can download and print these materials plus online only fidelity checklists and parent and teacher notes. This book is in The Guilford Practical Intervention in the Schools Series edited by Sandra M. Chafouleas.

Harm Reduction Approaches with Adolescents Who Use Substances Amanda Reiman, Barry Lessin, 2025-11-26 Harm Reduction Approaches with Adolescents Who Use Substances details the concepts of harm reduction and how they can be implemented in work with adolescents on the topic of substance use behaviors. This book reviews the concepts of harm reduction as they have traditionally been applied and in the context of working with adolescents around issues of substance use behaviors. Using both conceptual and real world examples this book guides students through case examples and exercises designed to not only better understand harm reduction as a concept but to practice putting it to use in real world clinical scenarios. This book also aims to reduce the stigma associated with talking about substance using behavior and to provide nuance around different types of use from experimental to hazardous using person first language without resorting to shaming and blaming. Practical elements incorporate skills of Motivational Interviewing MI and Cognitive Behavioral Therapy CBT into discussion. Suitable for use in a variety of upper level and graduate courses this book educates students about the traditional concepts of harm reduction and how they can relate to adolescent substance use and family therapy The Parent App Lynn Schofield Clark, 2013 New technologies offer new ways for families to connect access ideas and entertainment and manage the risks faced by children and teens but they also bring more responsibilities choices and challenges Clark argues that families experience digital and mobile technologies in their children's lives especially during the preteen and teen years quite differently depending on whether they are middle class or less advantaged Based on over ten years of interviews hundreds of parents and children The Parent App explores these differences and provides the kind of guidance backed by thorough research that parents today desperately need
