The Space Of Appearance:

The Space of Appearance George Baird, 1995 George Baird probes into the conceptual lineage and current expressions of postmodernism and the critique of postmodern architecture over the past four decades Spaces of Appearance Martin Renz, Julius Schwarzwälder, 2025-11-07 Present whenever people act together and yet never seen for what they do spaces of appearance come in many guises a car crash in Vienna a discussion forum in Dresden a baker's queue in Paris an art festival in Shiraz an unbuilt house in Istanbul a law court in Berlin a photograph from Arkansas Taking their cue from Hannah Arendt's famous concept the case studies in this volume written in close collaboration examine how the perceptive standards of a given political situation may subtly change or consolidate Supported by a wealth of images this volume demonstrates how the concept can be activated for innovative research especially in cases where an understanding of aesthetics and politics needs to go beyond their analogization Featuring an essay by Susan Buck Morss The Cambridge Companion to Hannah Arendt Dana Villa, 2000-11-30 A distinguished team of contributors examines the primary themes of Arendt's multi-faceted thought Explosivity Javier Arbona-Homar, 2025-04-01 How explosions across history reveal the violence embedded in San Francisco's landscape Offering a novel approach to contemporary landscape studies Explosivity unearths the hidden legacies of violence that have shaped the physical and cultural environment of the San Francisco Bay area As he sifts through the historical debris of previous centuries Javier Arbona Homar analyzes a series of explosions that took place between 1866 and 2011 to call attention to the scattered remnants of militarism and racialized capitalism embedded in the region's geography From incidents involving nineteenth century explosives manufacturing and World War II munitions loading to radical activism and contemporary television productions Arbona Homar locates a pattern of historical violence that refocuses the broader racial and colonial context Citing the material social and political conditions that gave rise to these disparate episodes he reviews the historic erasure of those driving forces and puts forth alternative possibilities for how such disasters might be memorialized Synthesizing a diverse set of field research methods including oral histories and site visits and supplemented by specially commissioned landscape photographs by Andrea Gaffney Explosivity presents a radical exercise in the exposition of public memory Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation Sheera Talpaz, Anuradha Dingwaney Needham, 2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation brings together over 30 articles by leading and emerging scholars from around the world who engage fresh critical lenses from affect studies to the medical humanities and re-energize established frameworks to examine the interplay between cultural production and conceptualizations of the nation and nationalism The scholarship in this volume takes as its objects of analysis various forms of aesthetic and cultural production from film and literature to museums and costume books enriching the conversation that has often siloed these forms Geared toward scholars graduate students and upper level undergraduates across the humanities and social sciences this timely interdisciplinary collection is issued at a critical juncture in the transformation of the nation and the global resurgence of regressive and populist nationalist movements Both offering new insights reorienting our understanding of canonical materials and bringing noncanonical works to light this volume challenges long held assumptions about the nation while establishing its continued significance and future possibilities

Feminism and the Abyss of Freedom Linda M. G. Zerilli, 2005-10-03 In contemporary feminist theory the problem of feminine subjectivity persistently appears and reappears as the site that grounds all discussion of feminism In Feminism and the Abyss of Freedom Linda M G Zerilli argues that the persistence of this subject centered frame severely limits feminists capacity to think imaginatively about the central problem of feminist theory and practice a politics concerned with freedom Offering both a discussion of feminism in its postmodern context and a critique of contemporary theory Zerilli here challenges feminists to move away from a theory based approach which focuses on securing or contesting women as an analytic category of feminism to one rooted in political action and judgment She revisits the democratic problem of exclusion from participation in common affairs and elaborates a freedom centered feminism as the political practice of beginning anew world building and judging In a series of case studies Zerilli draws on the political thought of Hannah Arendt to articulate a nonsovereign conception of political freedom and to explore a variety of feminist understandings of freedom in the twentieth century including ones proposed by Judith Butler Monique Wittig and the Milan Women s Bookstore Collective In so doing Zerilli hopes to retrieve what Arendt called feminism s lost treasure the original and radical claim to political freedom

Citizen Journalism as Conceptual Practice , Bolette B. Blaagaard, 2018-07-27 Citizen Journalism as Conceptual Practice provides a conceptualization of citizen journalism as a political practice developed through analyses of an historical and postcolonial case Arguing that citizen journalism is first and foremost situated embodied and political rather than networked and technology based the book offers a grounded analysis of the colonial newspaper The Herald published in St Croix Virgin Islands 1915-25 by a descendant of enslaved people and independently of the colonial ruler Denmark The analysis is informed by Deleuze and Guattari s approach to knowledge production and formulates a critical reading of citizens and subjects mediated political engagements then as well as now The book discusses current approaches to citizen journalism before turning to The Herald which is then read against the grain in an attempt to show the embodied politics of colonial history and cultural forms of citizen engagement as these politics evolve in this particular case of journalism

Rethinking Community Research David Studdert, Valerie Walkerdine, 2016-08-24 This book sheds new light on the complex inter relations that make up class power local history and space It turns community thinking on its head by understanding community not as an object but as a relational process with sociality at its core Based on fieldwork from one market town and the work of Hannah Arendt it demonstrates how a new approach to social practices can illuminate our understanding of commonality and communal being Whilst community has become both a much derided and much touted

The Meaning of Religious Freedom in the Public Square Pablo Munoz Iturrieta,2020-02-27 This book offers a new perspective on religious freedom Its central theme is to elucidate the meaning of religion and freedom in discussions related to religious freedom and the place of religion in the public square One often hears that either religion must be tamed by restricting its access to public power or that in the name of neutrality and equality no religious reasoning may be used in the political sphere as it may be coercive to other worldviews There is also the idea that religion is a feature of human life essentially distinct from secular features such as politics and economics and which has a peculiarly dangerous inclination to promote violence Thus the meaning of religious freedom in the twenty first century seems uncertain For that reason it is necessary to clarify the meaning of religious freedom especially in relation to the public sphere in order to offer an answer that will guide us in discerning issues of religious freedom
