The Structure Of Hebrews A Text Linguistic Analysis Biblical Studies Library:

The Structure of Hebrews George H. Guthrie,1993-12-31 This study offers a lucid evaluation of both past proposals and present issues surrounding the structure of Hebrews In addition to clear advances over past attempts at outlining Hebrews the work suggests a fresh approach to text linguistic analysis

A Discourse Analysis of the Letter to the Hebrews Cynthia Long Westfall,2006-06-22 This study attempts to analyse the text of Hebrews with a method of discourse analysis primarily based on a form of systemic functional linguistics developed for Hellenistic Greek but it is also informed by other linguistic studies It begins with a general survey of the literature that is either influential or representative of approaches to the structure of Hebrews The survey is followed by an introduction to the terminology and definitions of discourse analysis as well as the theory behind the methodology and describes a procedure for analysing text Hebrews is treated as having three sections The first section of Hebrews 1 1 4 16 demonstrates the organization of the units the topic of the units the prominent text and the relationship of the first section with the rest of the discourse The second section of Hebrews 4 11 10 25 is described in two parts 4 11 7 28 and 8 1 10 25 because of its length There is an overlap between the first and second sections in 4 11 16 and between the second and third sections in 10 19 25 Both of these passages have a concluding function for the preceding co text and a staging function for the following co text so that they look backwards and forwards The third and final section in 10 19 13 25 contains the climax or discourse peak The study is concluded with a description of the coherence of the discourse and a presentation of a mental representation of the text JSNTS and Studies in New Testament Greek subseries

A Textlinguistic Analysis of Selected Old Testament Texts in Matthew 1-4 Jeffery L. Capshaw,2004 Using a specific variety of modern textlinguistics known to some as discourse analysis Capshaw Greek and Bible Clearwater Christian College Florida investigates how Old Testament passages function at a larger discourse level where they are quoted in the New Testament which requires determining the discourse type of the biblical book hosting the Old Testament texts as well In addition to providing insight into specific passages in Matthew he also demonstrates how the approach could be used in other New Testament narratives Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com

Deciphering the Worlds of Hebrews Gabriella Gelardini,2021-04-19 In the collection entitled Deciphering the Worlds of Hebrews Gabriella Gelardini gathers fifteen essays written in the last fifteen years twelve of which are in English and three in German Arranged in three parts the world of behind and in front of Hebrews s text her articles deal with such topics as structure and intertext sin and faith atonement and cult as well as space and resistance She reads Hebrews no longer as the enigmatic and homeless outsider within the New Testament corpus as the Melchizedekian being without genealogy rather she reads Hebrews as one whose origin has finally been rediscovered namely in Second Temple Judaism

Polemic in the Book of Hebrews Lloyd Kim,2006-11-01 The author of Hebrews is arguing that God himself has brought about the fulfillment of these institutions through his Son s priesthood his once for all sacrifice and the new covenant he inaugurated in the last days These new institutions are never denied the Jews In fact the context of the epistle presumes that these are primarily for the Jews considering that the author was speaking to a Jewish Christian community The author is not arguing for the abandonment by God of the Jewish people but rather for the abandonment of the shadowy means by which God's people drew near to him It is here we can speak of a qualified supersessionism According to the author of Hebrews the Levitical priesthood the Mosaic covenant and the Levitical sacrifices have been superseded by Jesus' priesthood the new covenant and Jesus' once for all sacrifice However we conclude that the polemical passages in Hebrews do not promote hatred of the Jews nor do they advocate the destruction of the Jewish people Rather the author of Hebrews stresses the fulfillment of specific Jewish institutions for the benefit of the Jews It is this idea of fulfillment that rules out the charge that the epistle promotes the supersession of the Jewish people Because of God's great love for his people he has provided a superior way by which his people can draw near to him from the Conclusion New Testament Rhetoric, Second Edition

Ben Witherington, Jason A. Myers, 2022-09-28 Witherington and Myers provide a much needed introduction to the ancient art of persuasion and its use within the various New Testament documents More than just an exploration of the use of the ancient rhetorical tools and devices this guide introduces the reader to all that went into convincing an audience about some subject Witherington and Myers make the case that rhetorical criticism is a more fruitful approach to the NT epistles than the oft employed approaches of literary and discourse criticism Familiarity with the art of rhetoric also helps the reader explore non epistolary genres In addition to the general introduction to rhetorical criticism the book guides readers through the many and varied uses of rhetoric in most NT documents not only telling readers about rhetoric in the NT but showing them the way it was employed This brief guide book is intended to provide the reader with an entrance into understanding the rhetorical analysis of various parts of the NT the value such studies bring for understanding what is being proclaimed and defended in the NT and how Christ is presented in ways that would be considered persuasive in antiquity from the introduction

Encountering the Book of Hebrews () Donald A. Hagner, 2002-08-01 Although the Book of Hebrews is not exactly what most of us would regard as a user friendly book notes Donald Hagner Hebrews has always been popular among Christians Encountering the Book of Hebrews was written to help students more fully appreciate the complexities of this favorite section of Scripture Hagner begins by exploring introductory issues e.g. historical backgrounds author audience date purpose structure genre and overarching themes e.g. heavenly archetypes and earthly copies the use of the Old Testament the attitude toward Judaism The heart of the book then offers a chapter by chapter exposition of Hebrews Unlike commentaries it does not try to be exhaustive examining all details and answering all questions but instead guides students to the issues that are most important for their study of this difficult book Hagner concludes with a final look at the contribution of Hebrews to the New Testament New Testament theology the church and the individual Christian As with other volumes in the Encountering Biblical Studies series Encountering the Book of Hebrews is designed for classroom use and includes a number of helpful features including further reading sections key terms chapter objectives and outlines along with numerous sidebars and illustrations

Hebrews Douglas J. Moo, 2024-11-19 Designed for the pastor and Bible teacher the Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament features today's top New Testament scholars and brings together commentary features rarely gathered together in one volume With careful analysis and interpretation of the Greek text the authors trace the flow of argument in each New Testament book giving readers the tools they need to properly understand and communicate the meaning of the text Commentary on each passage follows a clear structure to help readers grasp the flow and meaning of the text Literary Context A brief discussion of how the passage functions in the broader literary context of the book Main Idea A one or two sentence statement of the big idea or central thrust of the passage Translation and Graphical Layout Presents each commentator's translation of the Greek text in a graphical layout to help the reader visualize and thus better understand the flow of thought within the text Structure Describes the flow of thought in the passage and explains how certain interpretive decisions regarding the relationship of the clauses were made in the passage Exegetical Outline The overall structure of the passage is described in a detailed exegetical outline This will be particularly helpful for those who are looking for a way to concisely explain the flow of thought in the passage in a teaching or preaching setting Explanation of the Text Commentators examine words and images grammatical details relevant Old Testament and Jewish background to a particular concept historical and cultural context important text critical issues and various interpretive issues that surface Theology in Application The theological message of the passage is summarized The author discusses the theology of the text in terms of its place within the book and in a broader biblical theological context Finally each commentator provides some suggestions on what the message of the passage is for the church today The Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament series is the go to resource for pastors and Bible teachers looking for deep but accessible study that equips them to connect the needs of Christians today with the biblical text

New Testament Rhetoric, Second Edition Ben Witherington III, Jason A. Myers, 2022-09-28 Witherington and Myers provide a much needed introduction to the ancient art of persuasion and its use within the various New Testament documents More than just an exploration of the use of the ancient rhetorical tools and devices this guide introduces the reader to all that went into convincing an audience about some subject Witherington and Myers make the case that rhetorical criticism is a more fruitful approach to the NT epistles than the oft employed approaches of literary and discourse criticism Familiarity with the art of rhetoric also helps the reader explore non epistolary genres In addition to the general introduction to rhetorical criticism the book guides readers through the many and varied uses of rhetoric in most NT documents not only telling readers about rhetoric in the NT but showing them the way it was employed This brief guide book is intended to provide the reader with an entrance into understanding the rhetorical analysis of various parts of the NT the value such studies bring for understanding what is being proclaimed and defended in the NT and how Christ is presented in ways that would be considered persuasive in antiquity from the introduction Early Christian Paraenesis in Context James Starr, Troels Engberg-Pedersen, 2012-02-13 An up to date discussion of early Christian paraenesis in its Graeco Roman and Hellenistic Jewish contexts in the light of one hundred years of scholarship issuing from a research project by Nordic and international scholars The concept of paraenesis is basic to New Testament scholarship but hardly anywhere else How is that to be explained The concept is also notoriously without any agreed upon definition and it is even contested Can it at all be salvaged This volume reassesses the scholarly discussion of paraenesis both the concept and the phenomenon since Paul Wendland and Martin Dibelius and argues for a number of ways in which it may continue to be fruitful
