They Didn't See Us Coming Lisa Levenstein, 2020-07-14 From an award winning scholar a vibrant portrait of a pivotal moment in the history of the feminist movement From the declaration of the Year of the Woman to the televising of Anita Hill s testimony from Bitch magazine to SisterSong s demands for reproductive justice the 90s saw the birth of some of the most lasting aspects of contemporary feminism Historian Lisa Levenstein tracks this time of intense and international coalition building one that centered on the growing influence of lesbians women of color and activists from the global South Their work laid the foundation for the feminist energy seen in today s movements including the 2017 Women s March and MeToo campaigns A revisionist history of the origins of contemporary feminism They Didn't See Us Coming shows how women on the margins built a movement at the dawn of the Digital Age

Policy Issues Affecting Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Families Sean Cahill, Sarah Tobias, 2010-06-10 Lesbian gay bisexual and transgender people face the same family issues as their heterosexual counterparts but that is only the beginning of their struggle. The LGBT community also encounters legal barriers to government recognition of their same sex relationships and relationships to their own children. Policy Issues Affecting Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Families addresses partner recognition, parenting issues affecting children of LGBT parents, health care discrimination, senior care and elder rights, and equal access to social services. Sean Cahill and Sarah Tobias provide up-to-date, accurate analysis of the major policies affecting LGBT people, their same sex partners, and their children. This valuable resource offers literature reviews of demographic research as well as original research based on the U.S. Census same sex couple sample. It also provides a look at the 30-year history of right-wing anti-gay activism and the intra-community intellectual debates over the fight for marriage. The sheer diversity of gay people and opinion shines through Cahill and Tobias's fact-packed depiction of same sex couples and their kids, their needs, and day-to-day challenges, and the movement for fairness and the freedom to marry. The disparate personal stories and struggles in this informative book underscore the importance of ending discrimination in marriage and ensuring that no family is left behind. Evan Wolfson, Founder and Executive Director of the Freedom to Marry Project. A concise, comprehensive guide to gay family issues that combines an impassioned progressive sensibility with a firm respect for facts. Jonathan Rauch, senior writer and columnist for National Journal, Atlantic Monthly correspondent, and author of Gay Marriage: Why It Is Good for Gays, Good for Straights, and Good for America. Cahill and Tobias offer readers a thorough and immensely readable guide to the legal problems faced by LGBT families. Ellen Andersen, Indiana University, Purdue University at Indianapolis. For an account of policy issues that frame lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender LGBT family lives here in the United States, one need look no further. Sean Cahill and Sarah Tobias supply accurate and up-to-date information about the legal and policy contexts of LGBT lives across the country. This book is sure to be a valuable resource for students and scholars as well as for others seeking to understand and challenge discrimination based on sexual orientation or gender identity. Charlotte J. Patterson, University of Virginia. Sean Cahill is Director of the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force Policy Institute. Sarah Tobias is a feminist theorist and LGBT activist who earned her Ph.D. in Political Science from Columbia University. She has taught Political Theory at colleges in New York and New Jersey and currently works as Senior Policy Analyst in the Democracy program at Demos, a New York City-based think tank.

Encyclopedia of U.S. Labor and

Working-class History Eric Arnesen, 2007. Publisher Description Social Reproduction Theory Tithi

Bhattacharya, 2017-10-20. This groundbreaking collection explores the profound power of Social Reproduction Theory to deepen our understanding of everyday life under capitalism. While many Marxists tend to focus on the productive economy, this book focuses on issues such as child care, health care, education, family life, and the roles of gender, race, and sexuality, all of which are central to understanding the relationship between economic exploitation and social oppression. In this book, leading writers such as Lise Vogel, Nancy Fraser, David McNally, and Susan Ferguson reveal the ways in which daily and generational reproductive labour found in households schools hospitals and prisons also sustains the drive for accumulation Presenting a more sophisticated alternative to intersectionality these essays provide ideas which have important strategic implications for anti capitalists anti racists and feminists attempting to find a path through the seemingly ever more complex world we live in Social Problems Joel M. Charon, Lee Garth Vigilant, 2005-05 A unique and groundbreaking collection of 54 articles organized in 11 thematic sections SOCIAL PROBLEMS READINGS WITH FOUR QUESTIONS 2e takes a structural conflict approach yet lets the voices of those impacted by social problems be heard The articles are a mix of classic and contemporary readings covering a wide range of issues in the United States and the world The introductory article written by Joel Charon focuses on four questions that students are urged to apply throughout the reader What is the problem What makes the problem a social problem What causes the problem What can be done This four questions approach gives students a consistent sociological framework within which to analyze social problems The articles have been painstakingly selected to hold student interest highlight contemporary social problems and help professors show students how to think sociologically about the social problems around us Families in Poverty Karen Secombe, 2007 Poverty is a social problem and finding solutions requires us to look closely at our social institutions This book brings together the most recent quantitative and qualitative data to examine the many dimensions of this problem in the United States book cover The Poverty of Life-Affirming Work Mechthild Hart, 2002 While society may applaud middle and upper class women who decide to stay home to raise their children there exists a decided abhorrence for single mothers welfare queens who collect public funds but do not work Here Hart challenges traditional notions of welfare mothers by providing first hand accounts of poor urban mothers and revealing the life affirming and moral aspects of their motherwork a form of subsistence work involving many tasks that incorporate the physical psychological emotional and spiritual dimensions of life Though the mothering work these women do is vilified in public discourse as unnecessary and unwanted the author contends that the ethical and epistemological dimensions of life affirming work a key component of motherwork not only structure social political activism but also educational efforts that are oriented towards radical change Concrete experiences of motherwork policy analyses regarding welfare reform efforts oriented towards educational and epistemological border crossings and collective struggles for social change are examined here in a larger theoretical political economic framework Pulling together the many strands of different theoretical fields addressing issues related to critical transformative pedagogy community activism and forms of unpaid work this unique work calls for the unlearning of ways of thinking and feeling which uphold prejudices and life threatening social political hierarchies While the public may sneer at women who choose to accept welfare in order to stay home to raise their children these mothers must continue to perform this invisible work in order that their children may break the cycle of poverty in which they are entrenched The author examines ways in which these mothers organize and carry out educational efforts and political work in the context of extreme poverty and against the harsh criticisms of an unforgiving public Ultimately Hart hopes to convince the public of the inherent importance of motherwork and break down the prejudices that have worked against the urban poor and single mothers
