Under Crescent And Cross The Jews In The Middle Ages:

Under Crescent and Cross Mark R. Cohen, 1994 On the Jews in the Middle Ages Under Crescent and Cross Mark R. Cohen, 2021-04-13 Did Muslims and Jews in the Middle Ages cohabit in a peaceful interfaith utopia Or were Jews under Muslim rule persecuted much as they were in Christian lands Rejecting both polemically charged ideas as myths Mark Cohen offers a systematic comparison of Jewish life in medieval Islam and Christendom and the first in depth explanation of why medieval Islamic Jewish relations though not utopic were less confrontational and violent than those between Christians and Jews in the West Under Crescent and Cross has been translated into Turkish Hebrew German Arabic French and Spanish and its historic message continues to be relevant across continents and time This updated edition which contains an important new introduction and afterword by the author serves as a great companion to the original Jews in the Early Modern World Dean Phillip Bell, 2008 Jews in the Early Modern World argues that the years between 1400 and 1700 represented a discrete cohesive and important period in Jewish history Given the significant demographic shifts that began just before and ended just after this period remarkable changes occurred in the history and experiences of Jews around the world This volume begins with a broad context of Jewish experiences under medieval Christianity and Islam It then turns to the early modern period first providing an overview of Jewish demography and settlement Next the nature and structure of Jewish community and social structures in the early modern period are explored In the final two chapters this book presents a broad overview of Jewish religious and cultural life and Jewish relations with non Jews throughout the early modern period Publisher Jews, Christians and Muslims in Medieval and Early Modern Times, 2014-03-27 This volume brings together articles on the cultural religious social and commercial interactions among Jews Christians and Muslims in the medieval and early modern periods Written by leading scholars in Jewish studies Islamic studies medieval history and social and economic history the contributions to this volume reflect the profound influence on these fields of the volume's honoree Professor Mark R Cohen The Meeting of Civilizations Moshe Ma'oz, 2009-10-07 The horrific acts of anti Western and anti Jewish terrorism carried out by Muslim fanatics during the last decades have been labelled by politicians religious leaders and scholars as a Clash of Civilizations This book states that these acts cannot be considered an Islamic onslaught on Judeo Christian Civilisation A History of Jewish-Muslim Relations Abdelwahab Meddeb, Benjamin Stora, 2013-11-27 The first encyclopedic guide to the history of relations between Jews and Muslims around the world This is the first encyclopedic guide to the history of relations between Jews and Muslims around the world from the birth of Islam to today Richly illustrated and beautifully produced the book features more than 150 authoritative and accessible articles by an international team of leading experts in history politics literature anthropology and philosophy Organized thematically and chronologically this indispensable reference provides critical facts and balanced context for greater historical understanding and a more informed dialogue between Jews and Muslims Part I covers the medieval period Part II the early modern period through the nineteenth century in the Ottoman Empire Africa Asia and Europe Part III the twentieth century including the exile of Jews from the Muslim world Jews and Muslims in Israel and Jewish Muslim politics and Part IV intersections between Jewish and Muslim origins philosophy scholarship art ritual and beliefs The main articles address major topics such as the Jews of Arabia at the origin of Islam special profiles cover important individuals and places and excerpts from primary sources provide contemporary views on historical events Contributors include Mark R Cohen Alain Dieckhoff Michael Laskier Vera Moreen Gordon D Newby Marina Rustow Daniel Schroeter Kirsten Schulze Mark Tessler John Tolan Gilles Veinstein and many more Covers the history of relations between Jews and Muslims around the world from the birth of Islam to today Written by an international team of leading scholars Features in depth articles on social political and cultural history Includes profiles of important people Eliyahu Capsali Joseph Nasi Mohammed V Martin Buber Anwar Sadat and Menachem Begin Edward Said Messali Hadj Mahmoud Darwish and places Jerusalem Alexandria Baghdad Presents passages from essential documents of each historical period such as the Cairo Geniza Al Sira and Judeo Persian illuminated manuscripts Richly illustrated with more than 250 images including maps and color photographs Includes extensive cross references bibliographies and an index

Conflict and Reconciliation Iñigo Kristien Marcel Bocken, 2004 This book offers historical philosophical and theological studies on the meaning of conflicts in life and thinking of Nicholas of Cusa 1401 1464 and deals with his attempts to develop a model for peace and tolerance Sephardic and Mizrahi Jewry Zion Zohar, 2005-06-01 Brilliant essays providing a comprehensive overview of Sephardic and Mizrahi Jews from leading intellectuals on Jewish history and culture Midwest Jewish Studies Association Sephardic Jews trace their origins to Spain and Portugal They enjoyed a renaissance in these lands until their expulsion from Spain in 1492 when they settled in the countries along the Mediterranean throughout the Ottoman Empire in the Balkans and in the lands of North Africa Italy Egypt Palestine and Syria mixing with the Mizrahi or Oriental Jews already in these locations Sephardic Jews have contributed some of the most important Jewish philosophers poets biblical commentators Talmudic and Halachic scholars and scientists and have had a significant impact on the development of Jewish mysticism Sephardic and Mizrahi Jewry brings together original work from the world's leading scholars to present a deep introductory overview of their history and culture over the past 1500 years The book presents an overarching chronological and thematic survey of topics ranging from the origin of Sephardic and Mizrahi Jewry and their history to kabbalah philosophy and biblical commentary and Sephardic Jewish life in the modern era This collection represents the most up to date scholarship about Sephardic and Mizrahi Jewry available Contributors include Mark R Cohen Norman Stillman David Bunis Jonathan Decter Yitzhak Kalimi Moshe Idel Annette B Fromm Zvi Zohar Morris Fairstein Pamela Dorn Sezgin Mark Kligman and Henry Abramson Religious Thought and Heresy in the Middle Ages Frederick William Bussell, 1918 Nahmanides in Medieval Catalonia Nina Caputo, 2007 Nina Caputo situates Nahmanides 1195 1270 the brilliant Talmudic scholar in medieval Catalonia and in the important discourse anticipating messianic redemption that began developing there in the late thirteenth century Caputo argues that Nahmanides role in negotiating Jewish Christian interactions and mediating relations among Jews as well as his formulation of fresh systematic approach to exegesis reflects a sense of historical and chronological contingency expressed through out this writings Christians, Muslims, and Jews in Medieval and Early Modern Spain Mark D. Meyerson, Edward D. English, 2000 The essays in this interdisciplinary volume examine the social and cultural interaction of Christians Muslims and Jews in Spain during the medieval and early modern periods Together the essays provide a unique comparative perspective on compelling problems of ethnoreligious relations Christians Muslims and Jews in Medieval and Early Modern Spain considers how certain social and political conditions fostered fruitful cultural interchange while others promoted mutual hostility and aversion The volume examines the factors that enabled one religious minority to maintain its cultural integrity and identity more effectively than another in the same sociopolitical setting This volume provides an enriched understanding of how Christians Muslims and Jews encountered ideological antagonism and negotiated the theological and social boundaries that separated them

Alternative Orientalisms in Latin America and Beyond Ignacio López-Calvo, 2007 Orientalism is widely known as the study of Eastern cultures by Western intellectuals Yet most people would associate this term with scholars from France England Germany and the United States This book presents along with new essays dealing with the United States the Islamic world and the Far East alternative views on Orientalism this time also coming from Latin America and other regions While still dealing in some cases with interpretations of the East by Western outsiders the fact that the cultural production analyzed as well as many of the critics comes from an area Latin America that has also been affected by European and U S imperialism and colonialism brings new light to the traditionally negative connotations ascribed to the term These essays reveal that though prejudice and racism are still prevalent in many Orientalist aesthetic practices coming from Latin America and other world regions the perspective can also be radically different From this perspective rather than constructing the Orient as the West TM s alien and inferior other the mirror image that appears in this book constitutes an attempt at understanding the Asian within us within the Western world The postcolonial approach of many of these essays is the theoretical framework that prevents or at least tries to prevent paternalistic or hegemonic representations of the Asian subject As a result the emphasis is often placed on transculturation hybridity liminality double consciousness and cultural identity Karaite Judaism Meira Polliack, 2003 This Guide to Karaite Studies contains thirty seven chapters which cover all the main areas of the fascinating and varied history and literature of medieval and modern Karaite Judaism The volume reflects this rapidly growing field of Jewish Studies as analysed by an international team of experts and taught in various universities and institutes "And God Rested on the Seventh Day..."
