novelists particularly those who remain staple reference points in the study of the subject Accessible wide ranging and designed specifically for use on courses this is the most current introduction to the subject available An invaluable resource for students and teachers alike Encyclopedia of British Writers, 1800 to the Present George Stade, Karen Karbiener, 2010-05-12 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide biographical and critical information on major and lesser known nineteenth and twentieth century British writers and includes articles on key schools of literature and genres American Book Publishing Record , 2001 Art and Life in the Novels of Anita Brookner Eileen Williams-Wanquet, 2004 This book treats all of Brookner's twenty two short novels as one monolithic fiction The autobiographical element in this controversial author's fiction is taken as a starting point to explore the complex interplay of art and life Autobiography as a form of emplotment of life is the creative matrix governing the whole oeuvre which is realistically rooted in time and space The study draws on narrative theory contemporary theories of fiction and recent feminist and ethical criticism It shows how Brookner's work combines and opposes both realistic and modernist modes of writing and their philosophical underpinnings The novels too often misread as anti feminist and resolutely pre modern appear to be more essentially postmodern than is usually acknowledged through a heightened awareness of the role played by narrative in constructing our sense of reality and of self The pervasive intertextuality habitually ignored or taken to be simply a form of intellectual snobbery is the key to understanding how the novels tackle questions of moral life as encoded in narrative discourse and fine art In addressing the questions of how life should have been lived Brookner's self reflexive and ironical fiction subversively rewrites the traditional moral codes embodied in romance and which have determined the behaviour of women Finally this study examines the function of writing as a performative act and the role played by repetition The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading Booker Prize Novels, 1969-2005 Merritt Moseley, 2006 The Booker Prize renamed in 2002 to the Man Booker Prize is the most prestigious literary award given in the United Kingdom and one of the two or three most esteemed such awards in the world and confers literary recognition on novels that reflect and portray the state of culture Discusses the impact the Booker Prize had on the world of books the history of the Booker Prize the rules and judging and the various controversies that arose over awarding this prize Travelling around Cultures Zsolt Győri, Gabriella Moise, 2017-01-06 Culture has always relied on art just as artists have been dependent on culture as a problem field to draw inspiration from and as a store of social ideological and political practices to endorse or criticise This volume addresses this dynamic reality by investigating how literary cinematic and artistic practices expose the often invisible structures and discourses which underlie the values concepts rites and myths specific to Anglo American cultural environments On the one hand the chapters re visit classical as well as contemporary authors including Charles Dickens Emily Dickinson Janice Galloway and Matthew Kneale through the lenses of culture to explore how their works become social commentaries and a cultural diagnosis On the other hand they explore the politics and ideological effects of cultural practices exemplified by such matters as censorship reading communities fan fiction and travelogues Postmodernism and Contemporary Fiction Edmund J. Smyth, 1991 Providing an up dated introduction to the discussion on post modernist fiction this text explores geographical trends the work of major writers and cultures within the movement It questions the term postmodernism by considering those features which distinguish it from both modernist and contemporary fiction English Novel Explication, 1976 British Women Writing Fiction Abby H. P. Werlock, 2000 An informal jargon free introduction to the fiction of 16 contemporary writers either brought up or now living in England from Muriel Spark to Jeanette Winterson It seeks to present a balanced view of women s writing since the 1950s and 1960s those who attracted critical attention during the 1970s and 1980s and those who have burst upon the literary scene more recently including Afro Caribbean and African women The essays show how each of these writers treats British subjects and themes sometimes from radically different perspectives and how those who are daughters of immigrants see themselves as women writing on the margins of society The Foreign Woman in British Literature Marilyn D. Button, Toni Reed, 1999-11-30 While England has been strengthened by a proud isolationism she has simultaneously been enriched by the economic social and political complexities that have emerged as people of different ethnic and cultural backgrounds have moved within her borders or when her own citizens have emigrated among those foreigners to live or rule This book explores the foreign element in English culture and the attempt by English writers from the early 19th to the mid 20th century to portray their complex and often ambiguous responses to that doubly foreign element among them the foreign woman While being foreign may begin with national or ethnic difference the contributors to this book expand it to include other forms of alienation from a dominant culture resulting from gender race class ideology or temperament The many factors shaping English national identity including British imperialism immigration patterns English family and social structures and English common law have been shaped by gender related issues Though not a prominent literary figure the foreign woman in England has received increasingly critical attention in recent years as a psychological and sociological phenomenon By beginning with Byron in the early 19th century and concluding with Lawrence Durrell in the 20th century this study contributes to a more comprehensive vision of the foreign woman as she is portrayed by a number of British authors including Shelley Wordsworth Charlotte Bront Elizabeth Barrett Browning Wilkie Collins George Eliot Joseph Conrad D H Lawrence and Anita Brookner The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1998 Book Review Index ,2001 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation The Use of English ,2000
