With Justice for All John M. Perkins, 2011-08-25 I am persuaded that the Church as the steward of this gospel holds the key to justice in our society Either justice will come through us or it will not come at all John Perkins s optimistic view of justice becoming a reality starts and ends with the Church With Justice for All is Perkins s invitation to live out the gospel in a way that brings good news to the poor and liberty to the oppressed This invitation is extended to every racial and ethnic group to be reconciled to one another to work together to make our land all God wants it to be And it is a blueprint a practical strategy for the work of biblical justice in our time In an age of changing demographics where the need to break the cycle of poverty is staring many of us in the face Perkins offers hope through practical ministry principles that work This outstanding resource includes reflection questions for personal or group study as well as interactive sessions for groups to participate in activities together

Discerning Ethics Hak Joon Lee, Tim Dearborn, 2020-02-25 The number of ethical issues that demand a response from Christians today is almost dizzying How can Christians navigate such matters With an unflinching yet irenic approach this volume invites engagement with the biggest ethical issues by drawing on real life experiences and offering a range of responses to some of the most challenging moral questions confronting the church today

The Lines Between Us Lawrence Lanahan, 2019-05-21 A masterful narrative with echoes of Evicted and The Color of Law that brings to life the structures policies and beliefs that divide us Mark Lange and Nicole Smith have never met but if they make the moves they are contemplating Mark a white suburbanite to West Baltimore and Nicole a black woman from a poor city neighborhood to a prosperous suburb it will defy the way the Baltimore region has been programmed for a century It is one region but separate worlds And it was designed to be that way In this deeply reported revelatory story duPont Award winning journalist Lawrence Lanahan chronicles how the region became so highly segregated and why its fault lines persist today Mark and Nicole personify the enormous disparities in access to safe housing educational opportunities and decent jobs As they eventually pack up their lives and change places bold advocates and activists in the courts and in the streets struggle to figure out what it will take to save our cities and communities Put money into poor segregated neighborhoods Make it possible for families to move into areas with more opportunity The Lines Between Us is a riveting narrative that compels reflection on America's entrenched inequality and on where the rubber meets the road not in the abstract but in our own backyards Taking readers from church sermons to community meetings to public hearings to protests to the Supreme Court to the death of Freddie Gray Lanahan deftly exposes the intricacy of Baltimore's hypersegregation through the stories of ordinary people living it shaping it and fighting it day in and day out This eye opening account of how a city creates its black and white places its rich and poor spaces reveals that these problems are not intractable but they are designed to endure until each of us despite living in separate worlds understands we have something at stake

Legal Judgment and the Motivation for Justice Richard L. Wiener, David J. Hansen, 2025-09-26 This volume takes as its point of departure that those who work in the area of law and psychology currently possess a great deal of knowledge about the psychology of the legal system including the way in which the behavior of legislators judges jurors attorneys litigants and defendants shapes the outcome of justice It has also become very clear that the main obstacles to beneficial modifications to the legal system stem from the lack of motivation to seek justice motivation to change legal process and motivation to make use of evidence based decision making The purpose of this volume is to examine the antecedents of the motivation for justice describe how that motivation activates and manifests in various legal institutions i e elections legislatures courts and executive offices and trace the failure of that motivation to influence legal decision making This will include research and commentary about a where the motivation for justice comes from when people make legal judgments and decisions b how the motivation for justice influences legal judgments and decisions and c how legal judgments and decisions influence the motivation for justice in positive and negative ways This topic is paramount at the current time in our history in view of the apparent breakdown of society s beliefs in our institutions and trust in the democratic process which has contributed to a system that has increasingly operated from tribalistic impulse rather than from a richer motivation for authentic justice
