E. Butler,2022-09-09 Requiem Dunn has zero problems doing whatever his alpha tells him to so when he s tasked with using a fake ID and counterfeit ticket to get on the Amazing Adventures Safari Park VIP Tour to check out the security he s ready and willing His alpha wants to force out the shifters in the park and take it over for himself and since Requiem is tired of living in a trailer with several other wolves he'd do just about anything to have space to spread out. Even if it means covering himself in a special chemical to make him smell human. Sarah Lowe is one of the few unmated female wolves at the park. When she's not in the gift shop, she's helping out in the kitchen and doing whatever else her alphas ask of her. While she doesn't think she'll ever find her soulmate, she dutifully spends time in her shift during the VIP tours, even though she holds out almost no hope that she'll find the male for her. Requiem is suddenly in hell as he spies a beautiful she-wolf in the paddock. His beast wants out now, and he has trouble controlling his base reactions. Not only is he beholden to his alpha and the plan to take out her people, but to make matters worse, she thinks he's human. For the first time in his life, Requiem will have to choose between his alpha and the female who has his heart. The question is: will Sarah forgive him when the truth comes out, or is this his only chance at happiness over before it begins?
