The Vanishing Word Arthur W. Hunt III, 2013-09-01 Is image everything For many people in our culture image and images are everything Americans spend hours watching television but rarely finish a good book Words are quickly losing their appeal Arthur Hunt sees this trend as a direct assault on Christianity He warns that by exalting imagery we risk becoming mindless pagans Our thirst for images has dulled our minds so that we lack the biblical and mental defenses we need to resist pagan influences What about paganism Hunt contends that it never died in modern Western culture image based media just brought it to the surface again Sex violence and celebrity worship abound in our culture driving a mass media frenzy reminiscent of pagan idolatry This book is a clear warning that the church is being cut off from its word based heritage and that we are open to abuse by those who exploit the image but neglect the Word Thoughtful readers will find this a challenging call to be critical about the images bombarding our sense and to affirm that the Word is everything

In contrast to more conventional social scientific methodologies and conversations about the relationship between religion and media, Dennis Ford argues that the characteristics we ascribe to a medium can be extended and applied metaphorically to the characteristics we ascribe to God, just as earlier generations attempted to comprehend God through the metaphors of father, shepherd, or mother. As a result, his work both challenges and bridges the gap between students of religion and media and theology. Searchlights from the Word George Campbell Morgan, 1926 A Glossary of the Demetian Dialect of North Pembrokeshire William Meredith Morris, 1910 The Reading of Words Walter Bowers Pillsburg, 1897 Preach the Word James Imrie, 1889 The English Language: Its Grammar, History, and Literature John Miller Dow Meiklejohn, 1886 A Brief History of the English Language and Literature John Miller Dow Meiklejohn, 1887 The English Language John Miller Dow Meiklejohn, 1887 A Manual of the Foochow Dialect Caleb C.
