The Will To Believe And Other Essays In Popular Philosophy Illustrated:

The Will to Believe William James, 1956-01-01 Intellect will belief chance and free will are among the topics touched upon in two works by the American psychologist The Will to Believe; and Other Essays in Popular Philosophy William James, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1911 edition Excerpt of a feather's weight a long phrase may have its sense reversed by the addition of the three letters n o t This life is worth living we can say since it is what we make it from the moral point of view and we are determined to make it from that point of view so far as we have anything to do with it a success Now in this description of faiths that verify themselves I have assumed that our faith in an invisible order is what inspires those efforts and that patience which make this visible order good for moral men Our faith in the seen world's goodness goodness now meaning fitness for successful moral and religious life has verified itself by leaning on our faith in the unseen world But will our faith in the unseen world similarly verify itself Who knows Once more it is a case of maybe and once more tmaybes are the essence of the situation I confess that I do not see why the very existence of an invisible world may not in part depend on the personal response which any one of us may make to the religious appeal God himself in short may draw vital strength and increase of very being from our fidelity For my own part I do not know what the sweat and blood and tragedy of this life mean if they mean anything short of this If this life be not a real fight in which something is eternally gained for the universe by success it is no better than a game of private theatricals from which one may withdraw at will But j it feels like a real fight as if there were something really wild in the universe which we with all our idealities and faithfulnesses are needed to redeem and first of all to redeem our own hearts from atheisms and fears For such a half wild half saved universe our nature is adapted The deepest thing Illustrated Catalogue of Books, Standard and Holiday McClurg, Firm, Booksellers, Chicago, 1898 Essays in Illustration of the Action of Astral Gravitation in Natural Phenomena William Leighton Jordan, 1900 The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine Josiah Gilbert Holland, Richard Watson Gilder, 1902 Kaye's and Malleon's History of the Indian Mutiny of 1857-8 Sir John William Kaye, 1897 The Salmon Alfred Erskine Gathorne-Hardy, 1898 A history of Spain ... to the death of Ferdinand the Catholic Ulick Ralph Burke, 1900 The Trout Henry John Brinsley Manners Rutland (8th duke of), Frederic Hambleton Custance, 1898 A History of the Papacy from the Great Schism to the Sack of Rome Mandell Creighton, 1899 This detailed study of the papacy during the Reformation was first published between 1882 and 1894 The author was an academic and an ordained Anglican Having studied at Oxford and spent time in the parish of Embleton in Northumberland he was appointed the first Dixie Professor of Ecclesiastical History at Cambridge became Bishop of Peterborough and ended his career as Bishop of London A History of England from the Conclusion of the Great War in 1815 Sir Spencer Walpole, 1890 The London Water Supply Arthur Shadwell, 1899 Carthage and the

Carthaginians Reginald Bosworth Smith, 1897 The Europeans in Australia Alan Atkinson, 2014-09-01 This is the third and final volume of the landmark award winning series The Europeans in Australia that gives an account of settlement by Britain. It tells of the various ways in which that experience shaped imagination and belief among the settler people from the eighteenth century to the end of World War I. Volume Three Nation tells the story of Australian Federation and the war with a focus as ever on ordinary habits of thought and feeling. In this period for the first time the settler people began to grasp the vastness of the continent and to think of it as their own. There was a massive funding of education and the intellectual reach of men and women was suddenly expanded to an extent that seemed dazzling to many at the time. Women began to shape public imagination as they had not done before. At the same time the worship of mere ideas had its victims most obviously the Aboriginal people and the war itself proved what vast tragedies it could unleash. The culmination of an extraordinary career in the writing and teaching of Australian history, The Europeans in Australia grapples with the Australian historical experience as a whole from the point of view of the settlers from Europe. Ambitious and unique, it is the first such large single author account since Manning Clark's A History of Australia. The English Radicals Clement Boulton Roynance Kent, 1899 The Origin and Growth of the Moral Instinct Alexander Sutherland, 1898 History of England from the Fall of Wolsey to the Defeat of the Spanish Armada James Anthony Froude, 1898 History of England from the Accession of James I. to the Outbreak of the Civil War, 1603-1642: 1623-1625 Samuel Rawson Gardiner, 1896 Bulletin of the Public Library Providence Public Library (R.I.), 1897 Monthly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library Providence Public Library (R.I.), 1897
