The Winding Passage Sociological Essays And Journeys By Bell Daniel 1991 Paperback:

The Logic of Intersubjectivity Darren M. Slade, 2020-08-27 To survey harsh criticisms against Brian Douglas McLaren 1956 readers gain the inaccurate impression that he is a heretical relativist who denies objective truth and logic While McLaren s inflammatory and provocative writing style is partly to blame this study also suspects that his critics base much of their analyses on only small portions of his overall corpus The result becomes a caricature of McLaren s actual philosophy of religion What is argued in this book is that McLaren s philosophy of religion suggests a faith based intersubjective relationship with the divine ought to result in an existential appropriation of Christ s religio ethical teachings When subjectively internalized this appropriation will lead to the assimilation of Jesus kingdom priorities thereby transforming the believer s identity into one that actualizes Jesus kingdom ideals The hope of this book is that by tracing McLaren s philosophy of Christian religion future researchers will not only be able to comprehend and perhaps empathize with McLaren s line of reasoning but they will also possess a more nuanced discernment of where they agree and disagree with his overall rationale

Technocracy and Political Truth Guido Niccolò Barbi, 2025-09-02 The inability to envision political alternatives or to use Arendt s terminology to make new beginnings is a key component of today s democratic crisis In its first part this study shows that this situation results from the growing technocratization of both government and the democratic public sphere which hinders the ability to form new political judgments By analyzing rationalized bureaucracy which substitutes automated procedures for political decision and mass democracy which permits the infinite expansion of the administration s purview an account of technocracy as administrative non political rule is constructed The book s second part expands on this diagnosis by examining how political judgment differs from epistemic reasoning This examination puts into dialogue Arendt Kant and Vico reviving a humanist understanding of common sense sensus communis and ingenuity ingenium This allows us to rethink political judgment as both cognitively immediate and reflectively plural showcasing how technocratic decision making illegitimately delimits the horizon for political judgments and new beginnings

Irenaeus, Joseph Smith, and God-Making Heresy Adam J. Powell, 2015-10-30 Irenaeus Joseph

Smith and God Making Heresy seeks both to demonstrate the salience of heresy as a tool for analyzing instances of religious conflict far beyond the borders of traditional historical theology and to illuminate the apparent affinity for deification exhibited by some persecuted religious movements To these ends the book argues for a sociologically informed redefinition of heresy as religiously motivated opposition and applies the resulting concept to the historical cases of second century Christians and nineteenth century Mormons Ultimately Irenaeus Joseph Smith and God Making Heresy is a careful application of the comparative method to two new religious movements highlighting the social processes at work in their early doctrinal developments

Essentials of Catholic Radicalism Corneliu C. Simuț, 2011 The book describes the fundamental tenets of Catholic Radicalism defined as an understanding of Christianity from a perspective which dismisses the traditional supernatural image of God The essentials of Catholic Radicalism are extracted from the works of Vito Mancuso a lay Italian theologian whose intention is to rebuild Christian theology starting from the natural and physical reality of this world Mancuso insists that he is a Catholic theologian despite his conviction that God should be seen today in atheistic terms which help us understand the world from a rational perspective The use of reason in theology is compulsory for Mancuso in order for theology to make sense in the skeptical society of our times which is characterized by a powerful lay consciousness
