Cultural Journeys Pamela S. Gates, Dianne L. Hall Mark, 2010-08-16 As multicultural education is becoming integral to the core curriculum teachers often implement this aspect into their courses through literature However standards and criteria to teach and promote active discussion about this literature are sparse Cultural Journeys introduces pre service and experienced teachers to the use of literature to promote active discussions that lead students to think about racial diversity More than just an annotated list of books for children Pamela S Gates and Dianne L Hall Mark provide systematic guidelines that teachers can use throughout their careers to evaluate multicultural literature for students in grades K 8 At the same time the text leads the reader to a deeper understanding of how to use multicultural literature throughout the entire curriculum and not just during specially designated months or time periods With the example unit plans and extensive annotated bibliography this book is a valuable resource that pre service teachers will utilize when they begin teaching and in service teachers will reference repeatedly during their planning periods Ethnic Literary Traditions in American Children's Literature M. Stewart, Y. Atkinson, 2009-11-23 Esteemed contributors expand the range of possibilities for reading understanding and teaching children s literature as ethnic literature rather than children s literature in this ambitious collection Teaching Children's Literature Christine H. Leland, Mitzi Lewison, Jerome C. Harste, 2017-11-03 Inviting multiple ways of critically engaging with literature this text offers a fresh perspective on how to integrate children s literature into and across the curriculum in effective purposeful ways Structured around three mantras that build on each other Enjoy Dig deeply Take action the book is rich with real examples of teachers implementing critical pedagogy The materials and practical strategies focus on issues that impact children s lives building from students personal experiences and cultural knowledge to using language to question the everyday world analyze popular culture and media understand how power relationships are socially constructed and consider actions that can be taken to promote social justice Written for teachers and teacher educators each chapter opens with three elements that are closely linked classroom vignettes showcasing the use of literature and inviting conversation three key principles elaborating the main theme of the chapter and connecting theory with practice and related research on the topics and their importance for curriculum Other chapter features include key issues in implementation suggestions for working with linguistically and culturally diverse students alternative approaches to assessment and suggestions for further reading A companion website to enrich and extend the text includes an annotated bibliography of literature selections suggested text sets resources by chapter and ideas for professional development Changes in the Second Edition Voices from the Field vignettes include examples from inspiring educators who use trade books to promote critical thinking and diversity Updated chapters include information on new technology and electronic resources New references in the principles sections and new resources for further study New children's books added throughout the chapters as well as to the companion website
